Warfield, Kate Hetherington, 2018-11-26 The construct of transformation has emerged as a prominent theme in academic discourse Based on the accepted notion that processes and living organisms are in an ongoing state of development it is unsurprising that this concept of transformation would find resonance within literature on the pilgrimage phenomenon Examples of transformational processes intersecting with pilgrimage are the movement from sickness to wellness from grief to closure and from fractured to integrated That the pilgrimage journey itself can be construed as a transformational quest was noted by Winkleman and Dubisch 2005 who stated Life transforming experiences are at the core of both traditional and more contemporary forms of pilgrimage In the current volume Warfield and Hetherington examine the transformational process of pilgrimage journeys Contributors are Sharenda Holland Barlar Anne M Blankenship Valentina Bold Shirley du Plooy Alexandria M Egler Miguel Tain Guzman Kate Hetherington Scott Libson Chadwick Co Sy Su Kip Redick Roy Tamashiro and Heather A Warfield Does Religious Education Matter? Mary Shanahan, 2016-07-28 In the current climate and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion. Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion. One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious, spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle. This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education. The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today. Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious, moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society. As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world.

Christian Education Curriculum for the Digital Generation Jong Soo Park, 2015-02-16. This book is about exploring and presenting a model of digital based curriculum for Christian education suitable for the digital ways of learning, communicating and thinking. Park discusses the limitations of analog based curricula, most of current curricula and necessities for digital oriented ones. Then he provides a new model of curriculum: curriculum as software. Curriculum as software is a curricular framework for embracing digital culture like open, flat, network, service centered, management, interactive, communication and offline/online hybrid learning space. It consists of four spiral stages: analysis, design, simulation and service. In the process of designing units, 4R Movement, a new learning theory is utilized to encourage today's young people to construct their own knowledge after critically analyzing various resources of information. 4R embedded courses are implemented in the four movements: reflection, reinterpretation, reformation and recreation.

Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix, Jonathan H. Kim, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2020-10-27. Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives: biblical, theological, pastoral, practical and global. They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship, Bible study and mission. They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts. The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions.

Cultivating Reasonableness in Education Marella Ada V. Mancenido-Bolaños, Cathlyne Joy P. Alvarez-Abarejo, Leander Penaso Marquez, 2023-09-19. This book focuses on the real world application of the Philosophy for with Children (P4wC) pedagogy to cultivate reasonableness in individuals through communities of philosophical inquiry. It presents a collection not only of theories but more importantly of experiences, discoveries and innovations on P4wC by scholars, trainers, advocates and practitioners around the world. Each chapter provides readers with insights and lessons that have resulted from the continuous application, exploration and enrichment of the concepts, principles and practices that were developed by Matthew Lipman and Ann Margaret Sharp into what P4wC is today: a dialogic pedagogical approach that may just be what is needed at a time when reasonableness and dialogue are essential to maintaining global stability and progress. In this light, this book also looks into how the P4wC approach can be practiced with adults such as when it is employed in various settings or contexts such as in business consulting textbook writing peace education and extremism prevention among others Furthermore this book also features chapters that discuss how the P4wC pedagogy can be beneficial once integrated into processes such as classroom teaching teacher education bioethics and employee education This book provides valuable insights about how reasonableness that is cultivated through building communities of philosophical inquiry in education can be a powerful tool for nation building and social transformation
