Resiliency And Capacity Building In Innercity Learning Communities:

Resiliency and Capacity Building in Inner-city Learning Communities Dawn Leigh Sutherland, Laura Sokal, 2003 The voices that are represented in this book offer differing perspectives on ways to support inner city children and families Each essay offers a unique contribution to our understanding of the interdependence of the people in these communities yet all share the common message that inner city children and families have strengths that can be built on to maximize their positive outcomes This book is especially relevant to teachers who work with children and families with challenges

Understanding ADHD Ken W. McCluskey, Andrea McCluskey, 2001 This personal and moving account of raising a child with ADHD is remarkable for its humour real life examples and useful strategies for teachers and parents It is one of the few books to make the topic of ADHD truly come alive Understanding ADHD shows how parents and teachers can work together in a positive and productive fashion Topics addressed include identification causation theory treatment behaviour management teaching strategies self concept and prognosis Language Teacher Psychology Sarah Mercer, Achilleas Kostoulas, 2018-01-05 To date the majority of work in language learning psychology has focused on the learner In contrast relatively little attention has been paid to teacher psychology This volume seeks to redress the imbalance by bringing together various strands of research into the psychology of language teachers It consists of 19 contributions on well established areas of teacher psychology as well as areas that have only recently begun to be explored This original collection which covers a multitude of theoretical and methodological perspectives makes a significant contribution to the emerging field of language teacher psychology as a domain of inquiry within language education Resources in Education, 2001

Adapting to Climate Change Bruce C. Glavovic, Gavin P. Smith, 2014-04-18 This book identifies lessons learned from natural hazard experiences to help communities plan for and adapt to climate change Written by leading experts the case studies examine diverse experiences from severe storms to sea level related hazards droughts heat waves wildfires floods earthquakes and tsunami in North America Europe Australasia Asia Africa and Small Island Developing States The lessons are grouped according to four imperatives i Develop collaborative governance networks ii build adaptive capabilities iii invest in pre event planning and iv the moral imperative to undertake adaptive actions that advance resilience and sustainability A theoretically rich and empirically grounded analysis of the interface between disaster risk management and climate change adaptation comprehensive yet accessible and very timely Mark Pelling Department of Geography King s College London UK This book represents a major contribution to the understanding of natural hazards planning as an urgent first step for reducing disaster risk and adapting to climate change to ensure sustainable and equitable development S Ivano Brice o Vice Chair Science Committee Integrated Research on Disaster Risk IRDR an ICSU ISSC ISDR programme Former Director International Strategy for Disaster Reduction UNISDR What a welcome addition to the young literature on climate adaptation and hazard mitigation Bruc e Glavovic and Gavin Smith each bring to the editing task a rare blend of solid scholarly attainment and on the ground experience that shines through in this extensively documented synthesis of theoretical ideas from the realms of climate and hazards and their validation in a rich set of diverse case studies pulled in from around the world This book should remain a classic for many years William H Hooke American Meteorological Society 50 Years of Community Development Vol II Norman Walzer,Rhonda Phillips,Robert Blair,2021-05-13 This 50th anniversary publication provides a comprehensive history of community development Beginning in 1970 with the advent of the Community Development Society and its journal shortly thereafter Community Development the editors have placed the chapters in major themed areas or issues pertinent to both research and practice of community development The evolution of community development as an area of scholarship and application and the subsequent founding of the discipline is vital to capture At the 50 year mark it is particularly relevant to revisit issues that reoccur throughout the last five decades and look at approaches to addressing them These include issues and themes around equity and inclusion collective impact leadership and policy development as well as resilience and sustainability Community change over time has much to teach us and this set will provide a foundation for fostering understanding of the history of community development and its focus on community change The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Community Development Global Cases in Best and Worst Practice in Crisis and Emergency Management Ali Farazmand,2016-04-19 Global Cases in Best and Worst Practice in Crisis and Emergency Management is the first book to focus on select global cases from the perspective of best and worst practices in the context of crisis and emergency management Bringing together the most established scholars and experts in the field it offers theories along with an empirical success Learning from Arnstein's Ladder Mickey Lauria,Carissa Schively Slotterback,2020-10-12 Sherry Arnstein writing in 1969 about citizen involvement in planning processes in the United States described a ladder of citizen participation that showed participation ranging from low to high Arnstein depicted the failings of typical participation processes at the time and characterized aspirations toward engagement that have now been elevated to core values in planning practice But since that time the political economic and social context has evolved greatly and planners organizers and residents have been involved in planning and community development practice in ways previously unforeseen Learning from Arnstein s Ladder draws on contemporary theory expertise empirical analysis and practical applications in what is now more commonly termed public engagement in planning to examine the enduring impacts of Arnstein s work and the pervasive challenges that planners face in advancing meaningful public engagement This book presents research from throughout the world including Australia Brazil India Indonesia Portugal Serbia and the United States among others that utilizes critiques revises and expands upon Arnstein s aspirational vision It is essential reading for educators and students of planning Global Im-Possibilities Phoebe Godfrey,Mary Buchanan,2021-07-01 At a time when environmental and social stakes are at their highest with rising crises and contradictions at the nexus of a building sense of environmental and social collapse there are no easy solutions Global Im

Possibilities explores just what can be done around the world to ameliorate this dynamic Using a range of essays and a multitude of case studies this book explores what new lessons can be learned from examining the challenges and impediments to achieving just sustainabilities on the levels of policy planning and practice and considers how these challenges and impediments can be addressed by individuals and or governments Taking a nuanced approach to provide an intersectional analysis of a particular issue relating to the ideals for achieving sustainability this book asserts that that it is only in recognizing such complexity that we can hope to achieve just sustainabilities Jamaica International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept.,2014-06-20 This 2014 Article IV Consultation highlights that a gradual economic recovery appears to be under way in Jamaica Growth is estimated at 0.9 percent in FY2013/14 as mining agriculture and tourism picked up Recorded unemployment remains high but fell from 16 percent to 13.5 percent in seasonally adjusted terms from April 2013 to January 2014 Inflation declined to 7.6 percent year over year at end April as the impact of the ongoing depreciation of the exchange rate was countered by weak domestic demand Growth is projected to reach almost 11.2 percent in 2014/2015 as the negative fiscal impulse comes to an end
