Tibetan Rituals of Death Margaret Gouin, 2012-09-10 This book describes and analyses the structure and performance of Tibetan Buddhist death rituals and situates that performance within the wider context of Buddhist death practices generally Drawing on a detailed and systematic comparative survey of existing records of Tibetan funerary practices including historical travel accounts anthropological and ethnographic literature Tibetan texts and academic studies it demonstrates that there is no standard form of funeral in Tibetan Buddhism although certain elements are common The structure of the book follows the twin trajectories of benefiting the deceased and protecting survivors in the process it reveals a rich and complex panoply of activities some handled by religious professionals and others by lay persons This information is examined to identify similarities and differences in practices and the degree to which Tibetan Buddhist funeral practices are consistent with the mortuary rituals of other forms of Buddhism A number of elements in these death rites which at first appear to be unique to Tibetan Buddhism may only be Tibetan in their surface characteristics while having roots in practices which pre date the transmission of Buddhism to Tibet Filling a gap in the existing literature on Tibetan Buddhism this book poses research challenges that will engage future scholars in the field of Buddhism Tibetan Buddhism and Anthropology The Spread of

Tibetan Buddhism in China Dan Smyer Yu, 2013-03-01 Focusing on contemporary Tibetan Buddhist revivals in the Tibetan regions of the Sichuan and Qinghai Provinces in China this book explores the intricate entanglements of the Buddhist revivals with cultural identity state ideology and popular imagination of Tibetan Buddhist spirituality in contemporary China In turn the author explores the broader socio cultural implications of such revivals Based on detailed cross regional ethnographic work the book demonstrates that the revival of Tibetan Buddhism in contemporary China is intimately bound with both the affirming and negating forces of globalization modernity and politics of religion indigenous identity reclamation and the market economy The analysis highlights the multidimensionality of Tibetan Buddhism in relation to different religious cultural and political constituencies of China By recognizing the greater contexts of China's politics of religion and of the global status of Tibetan Buddhism this book presents an argument that the revival of Tibetan Buddhism is not an isolated event limited merely to Tibetan regions instead it is a result of the intersection of both local and global transformative changes The book is a useful contribution to students and scholars of Asian religion and Chinese studies

Death and Reincarnation in Tibetan Buddhism Tanya Zivkovic, 2013-10-08 Contextualising the seemingly esoteric and exotic aspects of Tibetan Buddhist culture within the everyday embodied and sensual sphere of religious praxis this book centres on the social and religious lives of deceased Tibetan Buddhist lamas It explores how posterior forms corpses relics reincarnations and hagiographical representations extend a lama's trajectory of lives and manipulate biological imperatives of birth and death The book looks closely at previously unexamined figures whose history is relevant to a better understanding of how Tibetan culture navigates its own understanding of reincarnation the veneration of relics and different social roles of different types of practitioners It analyses both the minutiae of everyday interrelations between lamas and their devotees specifically noted in ritual performances and the enactment of lived tradition and the sacred hagiographical conventions that underpin local knowledge A phenomenology of Tibetan Buddhist life the book provides an ethnography of the everyday embodiment of Tibetan Buddhism This unusual approach offers a valuable and a genuine new perspective on Tibetan Buddhist culture and is of interest to researchers in the fields of social cultural anthropology and religious Buddhist and Tibetan studies Reason and Experience in Tibetan Buddhism Thomas Doctor, 2014-01-10 Based on newly discovered texts this book explores the barely known but tremendously influential thought of the Tibetan Buddhist teacher Mabja Jangchub Ts ndr d 1185 This Tibetan Buddhist master exercised significant influence on the interpretation of Madhyamaka thinking in Tibet during the formative phase of Tibetan Buddhism and plays a key role in the religious thought of his day and beyond The book studies the framework of Mabja s philosophical project holding it up against the works of both his own Madhyamaka teachers as well as those of central authors of the later classical period The emerging account of the evolution of Madhyamaka in Tibet reveals a striking pattern of transformative appropriations This in turn affords us insights into the nature and function of tradition in Tibetan religious culture and Mah y na Buddhism at large Innovation is demanded for both the advancement and consolidation of tradition This ground breaking book is an invaluable contribution to the study of Tibetan philosophy It is of great interest to Buddhist practitioners specialists in Buddhist philosophy and Tibetan Buddhism
