Responding To Evil:

Responding to Evil Joseph Francis Kelly, 2003 In Responding to Evil Joseph Kelly treats evil as a force in our personal lives He talks about the impact of September 11 on the American consciousness and how that brought the question of evil front and center Professor Kelly then looks at what evil does to us and how previous generations have dealt with it By focusing on the sins people commit rather than the questions psychologists tend to focus on such as murder or theft or on tragedies that occurred in Rwanda or during the Holocaust Kelly makes the discussion of evil relevant to readers like us who are not really evil but who face the problem of our own sinfulness every day In taking up the intellectual question of how God and evil can coexist Kelly relates the ideas in the book to real life situations especially of good and caring people Finally he shares how we can respond to evil and looks at how some modern Christians often ordinary people have done so Chapters are What Evil Does to Us How Can God and Evil Co Exist Responses to Evil and Some Final Thoughts Joseph F Kelly PhD chair of the department of religious studies at John Carroll University is also active in religious education for the Diocese of Cleveland Of his eight previous books with Liturgical Press he has published The Problem of Evil in the Western Tradition and The World of the Early Christians Transforming an Illegitimate State ,1988 Forgiveness and reconciliation--utopia or a challenge? Holland,1980-06-28 Beginning with a group of essays on education the author shows the constricting and limiting effects of empirical assumptions In his essays on values he makes it clear that the ethics of empiricism so pervade modern moral philosophy that it can find no place for the notion of absolute value Responding to Evil Jeffrie G.
