Restructuring Networks In Post Socialism Legacies Linkages And Localities:

Restructuring Networks in Post-socialism Gernot Grabher, David Stark, 1997 In these pages leading sociologists economists and political scientists analyze current changes in Central and Eastern Europe Drawing on a range of contemporary perspectives such as evolutionary economics and network analysis they question many of the assumptions associated with the notion of transition while reporting on changes in organizational forms in Hungary Poland Eastern Germany Russia and the Czech Republic Editors Grabher and Stark offer a book that will appeal not only to students of Central and Eastern European organizational change but also to those interested in social and economic change in general

Postcommunist Transformation and the Social Sciences Frank Bönker, Klaus Müller, Andreas Pickel, 2003-08 The work's major substantive themes revolve around problems of post communist socio economic transformations Specifically it explores post communist systemic change the role of religion and collective identity the significance of trust and economic culture patterns of state economy interactions in enterprise restructuring the context of EU expansion the strengths and weaknesses of economic theory and neo liberal doctrine and the history of ideas in the post communist transformation debate

The New Entrepreneurs of Europe and Asia Victoria E. Bonnell, Thomas B. Gold, 2015-05-20 While attention has been focused on high level struggles over control of giant enterprises in China and the former Soviet bloc a remarkable but underreported revolution has been occurring at the grass roots level This volume examines the profiles of entrepreneurs and the patterns of business development in the post socialist countries Bringing together the perspectives of all the social science disciplines from anthropology through economics and political science to sociology the contributors identify the criteria for survival and success of independent businesses in different environments Their findings shed light not only on the transition from socialism at the micro level but also on the conditioning effects of different economic historical legal and social conditions on the conduct of independent economic initiatives

Articulations of Capital John Pickles, Adrian Smith, 2016-01-19 Articulations of Capital offers an accessible grounded yet theoretically sophisticated account of the geographies of global production networks value chains and regional development in post socialist Eastern and Central Europe Proposes a new theorization of global value chains as part of a conjunctural economic geography Develops a set of conceptual and theoretical arguments concerning the regional embeddedness of global production Draws on longitudinal empirical research from over 20 years in the Bulgarian and Slovakian apparel industries Makes a major intervention into the debate over the economic geographies of European integration and EU enlargement

Global Geographies of Post-Socialist Transition Tassilo Herrschel, 2006-09-27 Since the formal raising of the Iron Curtain there has been much interest in post socialism and the process of post socialist transition This timely book provides a systematic review and analysis of the process of transition Herrschel explores recent theories concepts and debates on post socialism and the notion of transition provides a systematic topical account of post socialist transitions around the world as evidence by social economic and political processes examines case studies of post socialist transition in east and Central Europe the former Soviet Union Asia and South East Asia and Africa and Latin America brings together theoretical and practical aspects by examining what lessons can be learned from recent experiences Global Geographies of Post Socialist Transition provides a truly global comparative account of the meaning and processes of post socialist transition and will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in this area Domesticating Neo-Liberalism Alison Stenning, Adrian Smith, Alena Rochovská, Dariusz Świątek, 2011-06-20 Based on in depth research in Poland and Slovakia Domesticating Neo Liberalism addresses how we understand the processes of neo liberalization in post socialist cities Builds upon a vast amount of new research data Examines how households try to sustain their livelihoods at particularly dramatic and difficult times of urban transformation Provides a major contribution to how we theorize the geographies of neo liberalism Offers a conclusion which informs discussions of social policy within European Union enlargement Regionalism Contested Henrik Halkier, 2016-12-05 As we move further into the 21st century the prominence of regions can no longer be taken for granted A certain skepticism has developed with regard to the feasibility of marginal regions achieving self sustained growth and states have maintained their role as regulators of economic and social activities Thus the notion of the region and its significance is currently much debated and contested Illustrated with a wide range of European case studies this volume brings together the main strands of these contestations as economic political and social actors attempt to institutionalise their vision of their region as the dominant form of territorial governance It questions both the external delimitation and the internal constitution of regions and critically analyses the societal processes circumscribing ways in which regions are created maintained and undermined The volume provides a wide range of analytical perspectives to enable an understanding of the current mosaic of regionalism in Europe Regional Diversity and Local Development in the New Member States P. Blokker, B. Dallago, 2009-09-16 This book analyzes regional and local models of development in the context of existing socio economic disparities and the impact of EU enlargement and European policy offering a comparative and in depth analysis of the distinct nature of regional differences within Central and Eastern Europe Postsocialist Pathways David Stark, Laszlo Bruszt, 1998-02-28 This book first published in 1998 analyzes democratization and economic change in the postsocialist societies of East Central Europe Constructing Capitalisms Roderick Martin, 2013-03-28 This book provides an analysis of the changes in business systems of four Central and Eastern European countries Poland Hungary the Czech Republic and Romania since the fall of Communism in 1989 drawing on the Varieties of Capitalism debate
