Restructuring Schooling:

Restructuring Schooling Joseph Murphy, Philip Hallinger, 1993-03-16 The editors of this volume aim to help educators make better decisions about their efforts at restructuring by showing what has and has not worked in some of the most widely known experiments Because the programmes examined have been in place for several years the cases offer richness of detail and a wealth of ideas This book s insights and practical detail will benefit educators both in schools and at district level as well as students and academics in the field Restructuring High Schools for Equity and Excellence Valerie E. Lee, Julia Smith, 2001 This book demonstrates empirical links with achievement and investigates how restructuring relates to school size teachers attitudes toward students and how teachers press their students to work hard and succeed

Elmore, Penelope L. Peterson, Sarah J. McCarthey, 1996-03-15 Restructuring in the Classroom goes into the classrooms of three elementary schools to take a detailed look at how teachers responded to changes in structure in their schools The authors interviewed principals teachers parents support staff and district personnel to produce in depth case studies of schools at various stages of restructuring showing what the school had done to change its structure and how those changes had occurred Selecting four teachers in each school for closer observation and discussion the authors reveal how those teachers responded to the changes around them in their day to day practice in the classroom They show for example how teaching practice is or is not affected by changes in the way students are grouped for learning in the way teachers relate to groups of students and to each other and in the way time is allocated to subject matter The Practice and Theory of School Improvement David Hopkins, 2005-10 ANDY HARGREAVES Department of Teacher Education Curriculum and

 Change brings together evidence and insights on educational change issues from leading writers and researchers in the field from across the world Many of these writers whose chapters have been specially written for these books have been investigating helping initiate and implementing educational change for most or all of their lengthy careers Others are

 They help us to approach projects of understanding or initiating educational change more deeply reflectively and realistically Educational change and reform have rarely had so much prominence within public policy in so many different places Educational change is ubiquitous It figures large in Presidential and Prime Ministerial speeches It is at or near the top of many National policy agendas Everywhere educational change is not only a policy priority but also major public news Yet action to bring about educational change usually exceeds people s understanding of how to do so effectively Effective
