Retail and Channel Marketing Sandro Castaldo,Monica Grosso,Katia Premazzi,2020-10-30 Now in its second edition this updated text explores the contemporary trends in retail and channel marketing Disentangling the complexity of channel marketing issues it offers a systematic overview of the key concepts and intricacies of the subject and provides a holistic approach to retail and channel marketing The Routledge Companion to the History of Retailing Jon Stobart,Vicki Howard,2018-11-08 Retail history is a rich cross disciplinary field that demonstrates the centrality of retailing to many aspects of human experience from the provisioning of everyday goods to the shaping of urban environments from earning a living to the construction of identity Over the last few decades interest in the history of retail has increased greatly spanning centuries extending to all areas of the globe and drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives By offering an up to date comprehensive thematic spatial and chronological coverage of the history of retailing this Companion goes beyond traditional narratives that are too simplistic and Euro centric and offers a vibrant survey of this field It is divided into four broad sections 1 Contexts 2 Spaces and places 3 People processes and practices and 4 Geographical variations Chapters are written in an analytical and synthetic manner accessible to the general reader as well as challenging for specialists and with an international perspective This volume is an important resource to a wide range of readers including marketing and management specialists historians geographers economists sociologists and urban planners Retailing in the European Union Stewart Howe,2005-08-12 As retailing becomes increasingly important in global economics the similarities and differences of retailing from country to country are now more evident This unique and timely study of retail structures across Europe gives an insightful overview of the internationalization of retailing and asks important questions regarding the effectiveness of different retailing sectors With chapters on Denmark France Germany Greece Italy Spain and the United Kingdom this contemporary study examines the extent to which Europe's increasingly homogenous environment applies to retailing By considering overall structural and socio economic variables of country to country retailing it draws fascinating conclusions on efficiency and competition within the European Union A major contribution to the field of European retail studies this significant work in comparative legislation is essential reading for anyone studying retailing at postgraduate or undergraduate level or with an interest in comparative economics National Capitalisms, Global Production Networks Christel Lane, Jocelyn Probert, 2009-03-19 Firms in the clothing industry engage in global sourcing and operate in global markets Their global production networks have often been subject to scrutiny as the power relationships between buyer firms in developed countries and supplier firms in developing countries raise issues concerned with fast fashion the role of brands labour standards in developing countries job losses among the most vulnerable workers in Europe and the US and the growing differentiation within the bloc of developing countries between the least developed and fast developers such as China and India This book analyses the way British American and German firms in the clothing industry manufacturing and retail co ordinate and govern their global production networks value chains It offers a multi level study concerned with processes of economic interaction between international regional and national economic institutions and actors This combines an analysis of international regional regulatory systems global markets and conditions in the developing countries where suppliers are found with a focus on the recent development of the clothing industry in three western countries The analysis of firms global networks focuses on the power relationships between western producers and retailers on the one hand and between buyer firms in developed and supplier firms in developing countries on the other as well as their impact on labour Utilising over one hundred interviews in six countries on three continents it follows the value chain from developed to developing countries and studies the many issues which confront students of globalization at the current time The study combines theoretical perspectives from economic sociology political economy and management and seeks to utilise the complementary strengths of the Varieties of Capitalism approach and that of Global Production Networks Value Chains It will appeal to advanced students and academics interested in processes of economic globalization and the way firms manage them as well as to those looking for a study of the clothing industry which combines theoretical depth with broad empirical coverage The Market Makers Gary G. Hamilton, Benjamin Senauer, Misha Petrovic, 2012-08-02 The huge expansion of new marketplaces and new retailers over the last fifty years has created a retail revolution These large and globally sophisticated retailers have harnessed the new technologies in communications and logistics to build consumer markets around the world and to create suppliers new types of manufacturers that provide consumers with whatever goods they want to buy These global retailers are at the hub of the new global economy They are the new Market Makers and they have changed the way the global economy works Despite the fact that this retail revolution unfolded right before our eyes this book is the first to describe the market making capabilities of these retailers In eleven chapters by leading scholars The Market Makers provides a detailed and highly readable analysis of how retailers have become the leading drivers of the new global economy

Marketing Channel Trends Edoardo Fornari, Sebastiano Grandi, 2013-01-18 T00:00:00+01:00 The enormous changes under way in economic systems mean that traditional paradigms of analysis need to be reviewed In particular increasing maturity of consumption patterns emergence of new purchasing models and repositioning of corporate groups are creating a more balanced division of functions within the channel value chain between manufacturing and distribution Starting from these assumptions the aim of this study is to focus on major development trends in channel marketing highlighting possible impacts on the competitive equilibrium between the various players involved

The Globalization of Retailing Neil M. Coe, Neil Wrigley, 2009 This path breaking collection brings together seminal contributions from the burgeoning multidisciplinary literature on the globalisation of retailing

Entrepreneurship Marketing Sonny Nwankwo, Ayantunji Gbadamosi, 2020-02-26 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs dominate the market in terms of sheer number of organisations yet scholarly resource materials to assist in honing skills and competencies have not kept pace This well renowned textbook guides students through the complexities of entrepreneurship from the unique perspective of marketing in SME contexts providing a clear grounding in the principles practices strategies challenges and opportunities faced by businesses today SMEs now need to step up to the terrain of mobile marketing and consumer generated marketing and utilise social media marketing tools Similarly the activities of various stakeholders in SME businesses like start up accelerators business incubators and crowdfunding have now gained more prominence in SME activities This second edition advances grounds covered in the earlier edition and has been fully updated to reflect this new dynamic business landscape Updates include A consideration of social media imperatives on SME marketing Discussion of forms of capital formation and deployment for marketing effectiveness including crowdfunding Updated international case studies drawn from diverse backgrounds Hands on practical explorations based on real life tasks to encourage deeper understanding This book is perfect for students studying SMEs Marketing and Enterprise at both advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels as well as professionals looking to obtain the required knowledge to operate their businesses in this increasingly complex and turbulent marketing environment
