Cases-The Indian Context S. Ramesh Kumar,2009-09 India is one of the emerging markets that pose a unique set of challenges to marketers The importance of the context and the usefulness of concepts in the Indian context is the core proposition of the book The diversity of a mix of factors such as cultural aspects lifestyles demographics and unbranded offerings make consumer behaviour a fascinating study This book focuses on the behavioural principles of marketing and its application to branding in the Indian context Consumer behaviour concepts associated with branding A combination of recent and traditional examples reflecting the application of behavioural concepts Touch of reality boxes to indicate context based examples Caselets and cases drawn from real life situations Research findings associated with the Indian context Topical issues in consumer behaviour like cultural aspects digital marketing and experiential branding Strategic Marketing for Success in Retailing A. Coskun Samli,1998-09-24 Very little of marketing theory and knowledge has made its way into retailing practice but its value in making profitable and effective retailing decisions is unquestioned Samli drawing upon three decades of experience and recognition as an expert in marketing research offers retailing professionals and those who aspire to retailing careers a foundation for understanding what marketing theory is and how it can be linked successfully and profitably to retailing practice Not a simplified set of steps to take his book forces retailing decision makers to think for themselves and to use sound reasoning in their judgments With an extensive review of retailing research and emphasis on small retail decision making processes plus discussions of human resource development information technology control mechanisms and the international aspects of retailing this book will find a special place in the list of books that must be read not only by retailing professionals and students but also their colleagues who teach retailing The planning and implementation of the strategic plan is dependent upon the identification of the retailer's target market and then successfully catering to that market by using four key retailing mixes goods and service mix communication mix pricing mix and human resource mix The retailing mixes are the controllables of retail management Preparation of these mixes depends upon the knowledge reasoning availability of resources and familiarity with the target markets

RETAIL MANAGEMENT Giri, Arunangshu, Paul, Pradip, Chatterjee, Satakshi, 2020-12-01 The book discusses the whole gamut of retail management emphasizing the changing retail environment in Indian and International context for conceptual clarity and mastery of retailing by the modern readers It offers experiential learning through contextual case studies to render a better understanding of each functional area of retail management Various aspects of retail management at the introductory level have been covered and explained lucidly supported with examples illustration and photographs to enable students to comprehend the subject matter with ease The objective of the book is to give hands on experience and learning of global retail practices to the students of management studies Key Features Thorough coverage of retailing in modern context including e retailing Case studies caselets and examples to make students industry ready Bullet point approach for key topics to highlight important information Graphics to generate students interest and make learning easy Target Audience MBA PGDM and PGPBA Marketing professionals and trainers

Marketing Geography (RLE Retailing and Distribution) Ross Davies, 2012-10-02 This book is concerned with the spatial aspects of the distributive trades It provides a comprehensive insight into the relationship between consumer demand and retail supply in the context of both recent business trends and increasing planning controls It unites a wide variety of theories and techniques to the practical problems confronting businessmen and planners and draws together the findings of a vast research literature on the geography of retailing Extensive comparisons are drawn between conditions in North America and Western Europe Originally published 1976 A valuable and welcome undergraduate textbook Environment and Planning Recommended unreservedly to managers and planners in the distributive trades and to all those who are concerned with the implications of current trends in the provision of shopping facilities Retail Distribution and Management

The Replication of Retail Fashion Formats into Foreign Countries Christoph Schröder, 2014-10-30 Christoph Schröder does one of the first attempts to analyze format transfers within the scope of different strategies format elements countries and success with focus on the fashion industry Three distinct format transfer strategies are identified The empirically observed design of format elements supports and extends the existing research Fashion firms standardize their Retail culture which acts as a foundation for a successful format transfer strategy core elements New insights are provided with regard to format transfer into foreign countries as well as over a timeframe of five years International retailers face specific challenges with regard to the decision on their retail format abroad which is known as an important success driver They may transfer their format elements unchanged or may adapt those elements One successful strategy is known to be an unchanged format replication which is linked to the fashion industry
