Rethinking Europe Social Theory And The Implications Of Europeanization:

Rethinking Europe Gerard Delanty, Chris Rumford, 2005 Europeanization and European Integration R. Coman, T. Kostera, L. Tomini, 2014-09-17 After two decades of research into the impact of the EU on domestic politics and policies this book explores the relationship between Europeanization and EU integration It argues that Europeanization should be considered as a stage in the development of EU integration as well as questioning the notion of incremental Europeanization

The Spatialities of Europeanization Alun Jones, Julian Clark, 2024-03-08 Europeanization is increasingly fashionable in the social sciences as a research focus as well as a backdrop for studies of the European Union and its relations with its member states However to date there is little consensus among the scholarly community over what Europeanization is or how it should be analyzed Spatialities of Europeanization is the first work to comprehensively analyze contemporary research across the social sciences and humanities in order to bring together critically informed and previously unconnected contributions on this vital topic The authors identify unexplored communalities between these different research traditions as well as shedding light on its neglected geographical and spatial dimensions which they argue are critical to understanding Europeanization in the 21st century This book reflects a strong conceptual approach which is supported by detailed empirical materials drawn from interviews with policy elites at supranational national and regional levels in the EU who are engaged in short medium and long term EU policy planning and management Offering fascinating empirically grounded insights into why Europe's governance must now become more transparent and accountable to its 500 million citizens this book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of Political Science International and European Studies Economic and Political Change in Asia and Europe Bernadette Andreosso-O'Callaghan, Frédéric Royall, 2012-08-10 Since the 1973 publication of Alain Peyrefitte's prophetic When China Awakens developments in East Asia have outstripped even the wildest predictions China has undergone the fastest industrialization and urbanization process in history yet tensions there are rising as some realize how far they have been left behind This volume explores the applicability of European economic and social models to our analysis of East Asia's and in particular China's situation Though millions of Chinese and other Asian people have been lifted out of poverty inequality is rising nonetheless and contemporary Europe and Asia are both witnessing collective action against rampant economic neoliberalism in the former and the exclusion of minorities in the latter It is difficult to overstate the relevance of this assessment which seeks answers to some central questions Can events in Europe serve as a model for those in East Asia Are there similarities or differences between the two regions To what extent do political economic or social systems stimulate or inhibit collective action How culturally equivalent are the collective actions of marginalized disadvantaged people in the two locations or are events in Europe symptomatic of specific cultural attributes Comparing and contrasting the research tools and dominant paradigms in the social and economic sciences in East Asia and Europe as this volume does throws out some revealing results European Self-Reflection Between Politics and Religion L. Bruun, K. Lammers, G. Sørensen, 2013-05-07 This collection of essays suggests new ways of looking at the intertwining of political and religious agonies in the period 1914-1991. The long European civil war revealed that Europe far from being formed by a one-track progression has followed several tracks or fault lines leading to a number of contrasts in European self-perception.

Europe and World Society Chris Rumford, Didem Buhari-Gulmez, 2017-10-02 Europe and World Society offers a distinctive critical approach to understanding European transformations exploring both the progress and limitations of integration on various key policy areas such as agricultural policy, education reform, migration and external relations as well as the relationship between European regionalism and globalization. Due to its innovative theoretical framework based on macro perspectives including World Polity Theory developed by Stanford sociologist John W. Meyer, this collection contributes to both the recent sociological turn in European studies and to the constructivist critiques of rational choice accounts of modern Europe. At a time when the European integration project has been severely challenged by multiple economic, political and social crises, this book offers a timely global perspective that sheds light on the dynamism and multiplicity of the actors, discourses and processes which underlie contemporary Europe. The book's distinctive global approach allows it to move the debate beyond state and EU centrism and establish the missing link between Europe and its global context. This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies.

Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post-1989 education reform in Romania. By drawing on policy documentation, interviews with key players, qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis, this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe. The book argues that the education system's structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self-depiction by ultimately serving a nation-building agenda. It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post-1989 era. The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan, matching post-war patterns of post-national affiliations on a worldwide level.

Europe and Asia beyond East and West Gerard Delanty, 2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West. The contributors, sociologists, anthropologists, philosophers and historians, show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned. Featuring four thematically organized chapters, the book looks at a post-Western world. Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia, otherness in Europe and Asia, exploring new expressions of European self-understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations. This outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective. It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context, both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory

Democratising the EU from Below? Ulrike Liebert,Alexander Gattig,2016-05-23 For the European Union of the 21st century the search for sustainable prosperity and stability includes the challenge of reconciling democratic ideals and practices with the construction of a European constitutional order From the 2001 Laeken Summit to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond EU leaders have repeatedly set out to bring citizens closer to EU governance by making it more democratic and effective yet several national ratification referendums have shown that publics are divided about whether and why to endorse or veto complex EU reform packages imposed from the top down Despite these limitations people do effectively engage in the making of a European polity By initiating national court proceedings active citizens are promoting fundamental European rights in Member States practices As party members they contribute to shaping mass media communication about and national publics understanding of European political alternatives As civil society activists citizens help build social networks for contesting certain EU reforms or advocating others Last but not least as voters in national and European elections they choose between competing party visions and national parliamentary stances regarding the role of democratic citizenship This original contribution to the debate about democratic citizenship vis vis the challenges of economic globalization and European political integration presents critical explorations of different fields of direct representative participatory and deliberative democratic citizenship practices that affect the transformation of Europe Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty,2012-05-23 Pt 1 Cosmopolitan theory and approaches pt 2 Cosmopolitan cultures pt 3 Cosmopolitics pt 4 World varieties of cosmopolitanism
