Rethinking Sexual Identity in Education Susan Birden, 2004-10-22 Responding to wide spread abuse of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and questioning persons LGBTQs in education Rethinking Sexual Identity in Education examines the heterosexism inherent in both educational theory and practice conceptualizing as mis educative compulsory heterosexuality s stigmatization of out LGBTQs as outsiders Reflecting upon the Outsiders Society Virginia Woolf envisioned in Three Guineas 1938 for daughters of educated men this work re names and re conceives as Out Siders those people who side with the out in order to mitigate compulsory heterosexuality s mis educative effects Examining how Out Siders already bring theory and action to bear on sexual identity Birden names and explicates six praxes used to educate about sexual identity These Praxes in re Sexual Identity range from ignoring or denigrating non heterosexuality to queering discourse by de centering normative gender roles The author utilizes autobiographical and qualitative research narratives of LGBTQs experiences in schooling higher education and community education to challenge the theoretical and practical weaknesses of these Praxes in re Sexual Identity Finding each to be lacking to test the practicality of each praxis Finding each to be lacking Birden constructs an Out Siders Praxis The significance of this proposed Out Siders Praxis lies in its educative resistance against cynicism and powerlessness that silence oppressed LGBTQ voices and in its theoretical soundness as a guide for developing curricula that Out Siders can teach and learn in order to transform heterosexist practices and environments Birden s Out Siders Praxis affirms ethical values of liberty experimentation and discourse across difference while advocating that Out Siders invent and intervene with the attitude of artists

Rethinking Gender and Sexuality in Childhood Emily W. Kane, 2013-01-17 Here be dragons was the traditional warning used by ancient mapmakers to indicate dangerous or simply unknown lands These were the dwelling places of fantastical beasts creatures such as dragons sea serpents unicorns griffins and mermaids Throughout the ages such beasts have been viewed in complex and contradictory ways because they embody both our fear and our fascination of the unpredictable natural world around us They appear in the earliest myths and accompany the heroes of medieval romance and folktales Whether as the symbolic creatures of myth or as the marvellous beasts of medieval legend and travellers tales fantastic animals have always inspired art and literature Today they feature among the many marvels that populate the alternative worlds of fantasy and the outer reaches of cyberspace Drawing on sources as diverse as myth history and folklore this book explores the ways in which mythical beasts continue to inhabit our

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K-16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and disability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production
