In her groundbreaking work Gods and Kings, acclaimed journalist Dana Thomas tells the true story of McQueen and Galliano. In so doing, she reveals the revolution in high fashion in the last two decades and the price it demanded of the very ones who saved it. Walker Evans Judith Keller, 1995-11-02

Walker Evans is widely recognized as one of the greatest American photographers of the twentieth century and the J. Paul Getty Museum owns one of the most comprehensive collections of his work, including more of his vintage prints than any other museum in the world. This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings. Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men, and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s. In addition, many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time. Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture, especially the popular culture of the time. In so doing, she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century. Also included is the most comprehensive bibliography on Walker Evans published to date. Handbook of Digital Imaging
