Asia-Pacific Trusts Law, Volume 3 Ying Khai Liew, Masayuki Tamaruya, 2025-05-15 This collection explores the boundaries of trusts law in the Asia Pacific region It is uncontroversial to state that the region's jurisdictions are diverse reflecting a mix of histories economies politics and legal systems The essays in this collection illustrate how this diversity is reflected in trusts law But this thematic and systematic exploration from a region wide perspective also identifies patterns of commonality in those factors which limit the operation of trusts law particularly as jurisdictions encounter domestic and international challenges By charting both convergence and divergence this study is pivotal in shaping and guiding the future development of trusts law in the region

Ten Pound Poms A. James Hammerton, Alistair Thomson, 2005-08-06 More than a million Britons emigrated to Australia between the 1940s and 1970s They were the famous ten pound Poms and this is their story Illuminated by the fascinating testimony of migrant life histories this is the first substantial history of their experience and fills a gaping hole in the literature of emigration The authors both leading figures in the fields of oral history and migration studies draw upon a rich life history archive of letters diaries personal photographs and hundreds of oral history interviews with former migrants including those who settled in Australia and those who returned to Britain

Business Groups in the West Asli M. Colpan, Takashi Hikino, 2018-02-02 This volume aims to explore the long term evolution of different varieties of large enterprises in today's developed economies It focuses on the economic institution of business groups and attempts to comprehend the factors behind their rise growth struggle and resilience their behavioral and organizational characteristics and their roles in national economic development The volume seeks to enhance the scholarly and policy oriented understanding of business groups in developed economies by bringing together state of the art research on the characteristics and contributions of large enterprises in an evolutionary perspective While business groups are a dominant and critical organization model in contemporary emerging economies and have lately attracted much attention in academic circles and business presses their counterparts in developed economies have not been systematically examined This book aims to fill this gap in the literature and is the first scholarly attempt to explore the evolutionary paths and contemporary roles of business groups in developed economies from an internationally comparative perspective In doing so it argues that business groups actually rose to function as a critical factor of industrial dynamics in the context of Second Industrial Revolution in the late nineteenth century They have adapted their characteristic roles and transformed to fit to the changing market and institutional settings As they flexibly co evolve with the environment the volume shows that business groups can remain as a viable organization model in the world's most advanced economies today
