Rise Of The Modern West:

Rise of the Modern West Meenaxi Phukan, 2000-02-01 This book deals with the social and economic history of Europe from the decline of Feudalism in the late middle ages to the beginning of Industrial Capitalism Historians Debate the Rise of the West Jonathan Daly, 2014-07-11 How and why did Europe rise to world pre eminence Providing an overview of this central historical conundrum of modern times Historians Debate the Rise of the West enables students to grasp major scholars evaluations of the biggest picture of all how Western civilization fits into modern world history Most historians who write in this area subscribe to a combination of interpretations set forward by scholars of the field like David Landes Jared Diamond or Kenneth Pomeranz But it is often difficult to understand the position they are coming from and for readers to understand clearly how Europe made the transition from merely one of many developing civilizations to the world s first industrial power In this volume Jonathan Daly introduces us to the main interpretations of Europe s rise that have been proposed over the past half century and presents the views of these historians and schools of scholarship advocating for each point of view and letting each author speak for him or herself through the inclusion of brief textual selections Also included are interesting biographical details for each scholar as well as a list of further reading for each chapter and a collection of maps An ideal introduction for students of world history

Hist West Educ:Modern West V3 James Bowen, 2013-10-08 Volume Three of three this is a reprint of James Bowen s A History of Western Education originally published by Methuen in the 1970s Volume Three The Modern West Europe and the New World The final volume covers the period of educational dissent which became conspicuous in the early seventeenth century and reached crisis proportions in the late twentieth when the dominant ideologies of progress and equality generated at the beginning of the nineteenth century were questioned for the first time on a widespread popular scale The Role of the Arab-Islamic World in the Rise of the West Nayef R.F. Al-Rodhan, 2012-08-21 This book takes a fascinating look at the role of the Arab Islamic world in the rise of the West It examines the cultural transmission of ideas and institutions in a number of key areas including science philosophy humanism law finance commerce as well as the Arab Islamic world's overall impact on the Reformation and the Renaissance The Rise of Music in the Ancient World, East and West Curt Sachs,2008-01-01 An eminent scholar explores the evolution of music from the ecstatic singing of early civilizations to the development of more structured styles in Egypt East Asia Rome and other regions The Rise of Western Rationalism Wolfgang Schluchter,1985-11-07 Western rationalism nature of course and genesis was Max Weber's dominant historical interest It was the grand theme of his two world historical studies Economy and Society and The Economic Ethics of the World Religions His studies of the relationships among economy polity law and religion are lasting scholarly achievements In this book Wolfgang Schluchter presents the most systematic analysis and elaboration ever attempted of Weber's sociology as a developmental history of the West The Rise of Modern Chinese Thought Hui Wang,2023-07-18 Wang Hui asks what it means for China to be modern and for modernity to be Chinese Is there a rupture between tradition and modernity in China How has Confucian thought evolved Did China become modern in the Middle Ages A deep intellectual history The Rise of Modern Chinese Thought revises our senses of both modernity and Chinese philosophy The Rise and Fall of the Caucasian Race Bruce Baum,2008-07-01 The term Caucasian is a curious invention of the modern age Originating in 1795 the word identifies both the peoples of the Caucasus Mountains region as well as those thought to be Caucasian Bruce Baum explores the history of the term and the category of the Caucasian race more broadly in the light of the changing politics of racial theory and notions of racial identity With a comprehensive sweep that encompasses the understanding of race even before the use of the term Caucasian Baum traces the major trends in scientific and intellectual understandings of race from the Middle Ages to the present day Baum's conclusions make an unprecedented attempt to separate modern science and politics from a long history of racial classification He offers significant insights into our understanding of race and how the Caucasian race has been authoritatively invented embraced displaced and recovered throughout our history The Rise of Science in Islam and the West John W. Livingston,2017-12-14 This is a study of science in Muslim society from its rise in the 8th century to the efforts of 19th century Muslim thinkers and reformers to regain the lost ethos that had given birth to the rich scientific heritage of earlier Muslim civilization The volume is organized in four parts the rise of science in Muslim society in its historical setting of political and intellectual expansion the Muslim creative achievement and original discoveries proponents and opponents of science in a religiously oriented society and finally the complex factors that account for the end of the 500 year Muslim renaissance The book brings together and treats in depth using primary and secondary sources in Arabic Turkish and European languages subjects that are lightly and uncritically brushed over in non specialized literature such as the question of what can be considered to be purely original scientific advancement in Muslim civilization over and above what was inherited from the Greco Syriac and Indian traditions what was the place of science in a religious society and the question of the curious demise of the Muslim scientific renaissance after centuries of creativity The book also interprets the history of the rise achievement and decline of scientific study in light of the religious temper and of the political and socio economic vicissitudes across Islamdom for over a millennium and integrates the Muslim legacy with the history of Latin European accomplishments It sets the stage for the next momentous transmission of science from the West back to the Arabic speaking world of Islam from the last half of the 19th century to the early 21st century the subject of a second volume
