Rising From Reality Art In Oldham From 1820 To 1890:

Rising from Reality Trevor Coombs,1990 Public Sculpture of Greater Manchester Terry Wyke,Harry Cocks,2004-01-01 Public Sculpture of Greater Manchester is a complete catalog and illustrated guide to all of Greater Manchester s public sculptures and monuments Manchester historian Terry Wyke provides detailed individual entries for each sculpture featured including information about the artist and the commissioning agent date of installation and the sculpture s historical and artistic significance More than 350 black and white photographs reveal the diversity and beauty of Manchester s many public monuments The eighth volume in Liverpool University Press s highly acclaimed and prize winning Public Sculpture of Britain series Public Sculpture of Greater Manchester will be an incomparable resource for both armchair and actual travelers as well as for English historians and art scholars alike These are excellent volumes in an outstanding and continuing series one of the most original and important such projects under way They set an international standard for the recording and publication of public sculpture Judging panel 2003 William MB Berger Prize for British Art History on the Public Sculpture of Britain series Lancastrians Paul Salveson,2023 In the early morning the mill girls clumping down the cobbled street all in clogs making a curiously formidable sound like an army hurrying into battle I suppose this is the typical sound of Lancashire George Orwell The Road to Wigan Pier This popular history explores the cultural heritage and identity of Lancashire stretching from the Mersey to the Lake District Paul Salveson charts the county s transformation from a largely agricultural region noted for its religious learning into the Industrial Revolution s powerhouse as an emerging self confident bourgeoisie drove economic growth This capital boom came with a cultural blossoming creating today s Lancashire Industrialists strongly committed to the arts endowed galleries and museums producing a diverse world of science technology music and literature Lancashire developed a distinct business culture but this was also the birthplace of the world co operative movement and the heart of democracy campaigns including Chartism and women s suffrage Lancashire has generally welcomed incomers who have long helped to inform its distinctive identity fourteenth century Flemish weavers nineteenth century Irish immigrants and Jewish refugees and more recently New Lancastrians from Asia Africa and Eastern Europe This long overdue book explores contemporary Lancastrian culture following modern upheavals and Lancashire s fragmentation compared with its old rival Yorkshire What future awaits the 6 million people of this rich historic region

High culture and tall chimneys James Moore,2018-04-03 This new study examines how nineteenth century industrial Lancashire became a leading national and international art centre By the end of the century almost every major town possessed an art gallery while Lancashire art schools and artists were recognised at home and abroad The book documents the remarkable rise of visual art across the county along with the rise of the commercial and professional classes who supported it It examines how Lancashire looked to great civilisations of the past for inspiration while also embracing new industrial technologies and distinctively modern art movements This volume will be essential reading for all those with an interest in the new industrial society of the nineteenth century from art lovers and collectors to urban and social historians
