Romance And The 34yellow Peril 34 Race Sex And Discursive Strategies In Hollywood Fiction:

Romance and the Yellow Peril Gina Marchetti, 1994-02-15 Hollywood films about Asians and interracial sexuality are the focus of Gina Marchetti's provocative new work. While miscegenation might seem an unlikely theme for Hollywood, Marchetti shows how fantasy dramas of interracial rape, lynching, tragic love, and model marriage are powerfully evident in American cinema. The author begins with a discussion of D. W. Griffith's Broken Blossoms, then considers later films such as Shanghai Express, Madame Butterfly, and the recurring geisha movies. She also includes some fascinating forgotten films that have been overlooked by critics until now. Marchetti brings the theoretical perspective of recent writing on race, ethnicity, and gender to her analyses of film and television and argues persuasively that these media help to perpetuate social and racial inequality in America. Noting how social norms and taboos have been simultaneously set and broken by Hollywood filmmakers, she discusses the orientalist tensions underlying the construction of American cultural identity. Her book will be certain to interest readers in film, Asian women's, and cultural studies.

The Othering of Women in Silent Film Barbara Tupa Lupack, 2023-11-06 In The Othering of Women in Silent Film: Cultural, Historical, and Literary Contexts, Barbara Tupa Lupack explores the rampant racial and gender stereotyping depicted in early cinema, demonstrating how those stereotypes helped shape American attitudes and practices. Using social, cultural, literary, and cinema history as a focus, this book offers insights into issues of othering, including discrimination, exclusion, and sexism that are as timely today as they were a century ago. Lupack not only examines the ways that dominant cinema of the era imprinted indelible and pejorative images of women, including African Americans, Native Americans, Asians, Hispanics, and New Women Suffragists, but also reveals the ways in which a number of pioneering early filmmakers and performers attempted to counter those depictions by challenging the imagery, interrogating the stereotypes, and re-politicizing the familiar narratives. Scholars of film, gender history, and race studies will find this book of particular interest.

War Baby / Love Child Laura Kina Wei Ming Dariotis, 2013-01-17 War Baby / Love Child examines hybrid Asian American identity through a collection of essays, artworks, and interviews at the intersection of critical mixed race studies and contemporary art. The book pairs artwork and interviews with nineteen emerging, mid-career, and established mixed race, mixed heritage Asian American artists, including Li Lan and Kip Fulbeck, with scholarly essays exploring such topics as Vietnamese Amerasians, Korean transracial adoptions, and multiethnic Hawai'i. As an increasingly ethnically ambiguous Asian American generation is coming of age in an era of optional identity, this collection brings together first-person perspectives and a wider scholarly context to shed light on changing Asian American cultures.
