Romanticism Realism The Mythology Of:

Romanticism and realism Charles Rosen, Henri Zerner, 1985 Romanticism and Realism, 1971 The Romanticism of Contemporary Theory Justin Clemens, 2017-03-02 Using Phillipe Lacoue Labarthe and Jean Luc Nancy's groundbreaking study of the persistence of German Idealist philosophy as his starting point Justin Clemens presents a valuable study of the links between Romanticism and contemporary theory The central contention of this book is that contemporary theory is still essentially Romantic despite all its declarations to the contrary and despite all its attempts to elude or exceed the limits bequeathed it by Romantic thought The argument focuses on the ruses of Romanticism's indefinable character under two main rubrics Contexts and Interventions The first three chapters investigate Contexts examining some of the broad trends in the historical and institutional development of Romantic criticism the second section Interventions comprises close readings of the work of Jacques Lacan Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Ian Hunter and Alain Badiou In the first chapter Clemens identifies and traces the development of two interlocking recurrent themes in Romantic criticism the Romantic desire to escape Romanticism and the problem posed to aesthetico philosophical thought by the modern domiciliation of philosophy in the university He develops these themes in the second chapter by examining the link forged between aesthetics and the subject in the work of Immanuel Kant In the third chapter Clemens shows how the Romantic problems of the academic institution and aesthetics were effectively bound together by the philosophical diagnosis of nihilism Chapter Four focuses on two key moments in the work of Jacques Lacan his theory of the mirror stage and his formulas of sexuation and demonstrates how Lacan returns to the grounding claims of Kantian aesthetics in such a way as to render him complicit with the Romantic thought he often seems to contest In the following chapter taking Deleuze and Guattari's notion of multiplicity as a guiding thread Clemens links their account to their professed anti Platonism showing how they find themselves forced back onto emblematically Romantic arguments Chapter Six provides a close reading of Sedgwick's most influential text Epistemology of the Closet Clemens reading localizes her practice both in the newly consolidated academic field of Queer Theory and in a conceptual genealogy whose roots can be traced back to a particular anti Enlightenment strain of Romanticism Clemens next turns to the professedly anti Romantic arguments of Ian Hunter a major figure in the ongoing re writing of modern histories of education In the final chapter he examines the work of the contemporary French philosopher Alain Badiou Clemens argues that if Badiou's hostility to the diagnosis of nihilism his return to Plato and mathematics and his expulsion of poetry from philosophical method all place him at a genuine distance from dominant Romantic trends even this attempt admits ciphered Romantic elements This study will be of interest to literary theorists philosophers political theorists and cultural studies scholars Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 5, Romanticism George Alexander Kennedy, 1989 The history of the most hotly debated areas of literary theory including structuralism and deconstruction The Romantic Vision of Caspar David Friedrich Caspar David Friedrich, Robert Rosenblum, Boris Asvarishch, Art Institute of Chicago, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1990 This book is about the paintings of Casper David Friedrich Art in Reproduction Robert Verhoogt, 2007 This illuminating study examines the cultural meaning of artistic reproduction in a refreshingly new context through its consideration of how three artists managed the reproduction of their work The Romantic Machine John Tresch, 2022-12-22 In the years immediately following Napoleon's defeat French thinkers in all fields set their minds to the problem of how to recover from the long upheavals that had been set into motion by the French Revolution Many challenged the Enlightenment's emphasis on mechanics and questioned the rising power of machines seeking a return to the organic unity of an earlier age and triggering the artistic and philosophical movement of romanticism Previous scholars have viewed romanticism and industrialization in opposition but in this groundbreaking volume John Tresch reveals how thoroughly entwined science and the arts were in early nineteenth century France and how they worked together to unite a fractured society Focusing on a set of celebrated technologies including steam engines electromagnetic and geophysical instruments early photography and mass scale printing Tresch looks at how new conceptions of energy instrumentality and association fueled such diverse developments as fantastic literature popular astronomy grand opera positivism utopian socialism and the Revolution of 1848 He shows that those who attempted to fuse organicism and mechanism in various ways including Alexander von Humboldt and Auguste Comte charted a road not taken that resonates today Essential reading for historians of science intellectual and cultural historians of Europe and literary and art historians The Romantic Machine is poised to profoundly alter our understanding of the scientific and cultural landscape of the early nineteenth century Romanticism and Time Sophie Laniel-Musitelli, Céline Sabiron, 2021-03-10 Eternity is in love with the productions of time This original edited volume takes William Blake's aphorism as a basis to explore how British Romantic literature creates its own sense of time It considers Romantic poetry as embedded in and reflecting on the march of time regarding it not merely as a reaction to the course of events between the late eighteenth and mid nineteenth centuries but also as a form of creative engagement with history in the making The authors offer a comprehensive overview of the question of time from a literary perspective applying a diverse range of critical approaches to Romantic authors from William Blake and Percy Shelley to John Clare and Samuel Rogers Close readings uncover fresh insights into these authors and their works including Frankenstein the most familiar of Romantic texts Revising current thinking about periodisation the authors explore how the Romantic poetics of time bears witness to the ruptures and dislocations at work within chronological time They consider an array of topics such as ecological time futurity operatic time or the a temporality of Venice As well as surveying the Romantic canon s evolution over time these essays approach it as a phenomenon unfolding across national borders Romantic authors are compared with American or European counterparts including Beethoven Irving Nietzsche and Beckett Romanticism and Time will be of great value to literary scholars and students working in Romantic Studies It will be of further interest to philosophers and historians working on the connections between philosophy history and literature during the nineteenth century Historical
