The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel Daniel Anderson,2014-04-21 In his third collection of poems Daniel Anderson ponders and celebrates the images sounds and tastes of contemporary life The poems in The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel navigate the evanescent boundaries between the public and the private self Daniel Anderson s settings are often social but never fail to turn inward drowning out the chatter of conversation to quietly observe the truths that we simultaneously share and withhold from one another even as we visit friends celebrate a young couple s union or eavesdrop on the conversations of others These twenty poems include meditations on teaching hungover undergraduates wine tasting among snobs and engaging the war on terror from the comfort of the suburbs They are alternately driven by ornamental language that seeks to clarify and crystallize the beauties of our common world and the poet s faith that fellowship ultimately trumps partisanship Even as they weigh and measure the darkness of the heart and the sometimes rash and stingy movements of the mind the poems refrain from pronouncing judgment on their characters As much as they ponder they also celebrate in exact careful and loving terms the haunting and bracing stimuli from which they originate

Couldn't Prove, Had to Promise Wyatt Prunty,2015-05 Funny raw and colorfully musical Nodplays what teeters like a tuning fork

The View We're Granted Peter Filkins,2012-08-15 These poems consider large events such as 9 11 and the Holocaust as well as everyday concerns like quilting ice skating or the beauty of a stand of sugar maples in winter Co Winner of the Sheila Motton Book Award of the New England Poetry Club In the pivotal poem Marking Time which appears almost exactly halfway through Peter Filkins s fourth collection of poetry the speaker reflects on the death of a sibling and how time is marked by our memories These memories these moments whether spent contemplating a painting by Vermeer or the simple toss of a bean bag ultimately shape who we are Yet you are with me here with me here again where neither that moon nor you exist but live tethered to this memory composed of words These are poems unafraid to be graceful and engaging They attain an assurance and stability rare in contemporary poetry while their careful balance of sadness and joy reminds the reader of the difficult negotiations we make in life In Late Light Brian Swann,2013-05-15 From a stone to fireflies from childhood to growing old Brian Swann's poems contemplate the moments and individual objects that create a whole life and our relationship to them There is a clearing by a certain stone where images flow and are worth stopping for I have stayed there almost all day in silence until night remembered what belonged to it and its shadows started to take back its own I've found it hard to walk away as starlight infused daisies and the stone itself began to feel like a star so although what I have done with my life may not be much for a while it seemed to be in line The poems of In Late Light situate objects and experiences both large and small concrete and abstract within Brian Swann's perspective of the natural world Sixty-two poems presented in four sections explore his life from early days to the present evoking friends and family on two continents His sharp bright imagery affirms the unique beauty of our world and explores its invisible mysteries Revenge and Forgiveness Patrice Vecchione,2004-04 When you seek revenge dig two graves Anonymous A poetry anthology for teens on a perennially important topic Acclaimed anthologist and teacher Patrice Vecchione has put together an immensely powerful group of poems all of which address the timeless and uniquely human desires for revenge and for forgiveness The events of September 11th inspired this book I wanted to create a tangible forum a book to hold in our hands to help frame and think not just about terrorism but about who we are as individuals and who we are as a country It's been gestating in me for all this time Finding these poems was like turning little lights on to illumine the dark How can beauty be made out of ugliness and fear Can it rise from ash Patrice Vecchione The Khayyam Suite Charles Martin,2025-03-04 A rich collection of poems inspired by the Persian lyric tradition In The Khayyam Suite acclaimed poet Charles Martin explores both the profound and the personal in verse that celebrates the spectrum of human experience At the heart of this collection is a study of the Rubaiyat the renowned poem cycle attributed to the Persian poet Omar Khayyam Martin pays homage to Khayyam's classical Persian poetic form the ghazal by infusing it with contemporary sensibilities creating a rich tapestry of contemplation and artistry By seamlessly blending Eastern and Western poetic traditions Martin offers a unique and thought-provoking perspective on timeless questions that have captivated philosophers and poets throughout the ages Each long poem consists of forty quatrains mirroring those of Khayyam's Martin's verses reflect on modern existential dilemmas environmental crises and the intricacies of personal relationships From the haunting feeling of On the Coming Extinctions to the stark socioeconomic commentary in On Capital each poem invites the reader into a contemplative dialogue with the self Martin's poems are both a mirror and a window to the soul reflecting personal histories and illuminating the universal human condition This collection imbued with the lyrical charm and intellectual depth of Martin's writing is a profound commentary on love loss and the fleeting nature of life Imago Brian Swann,2023-03-28 An exuberant collection of poems celebrating art nature and humanity This various and vital poetry collection in rich language and sharp detail spans the rural and urban country and town and foreign and domestic Tracing the vagaries of the self these poems record and transmute biography from an English youth to the trials and challenges of aging in America Memorable for its exuberant voice and exacting eye Brian Swann's Imago is awake to the natural world as well as the world within From the half page title poem to the multi section Elegiac this volume is striking in its largeness its tone evolving from self indicting to ecstatic and self transcendent This collection the author's fourteenth is moving both as art and as testament Imago unfolds much like a piece of music It is a continuum by which Swann sees nature and art interwoven in the ways they emerge and change In Grief and Magritte Swann muses upon all of us snagged in a net whose skeins tangle in night sky where one star dreams another The title poem focuses on an insect on its way through the changes the patterns of what led up to it the catches and releases saying now and now till splitting down the back such changes release what was always there Brian Swann's poems moving in their candor read as though they have always been there too
