Postmodern Philosophy And Christian Thought:

Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal, 1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view Postmodern philosophy and Christian thought Merold Westphal (ed), 1999 Christianity and the Postmodern Turn Myron B. Penner, 2005-07-01 In our post Cold War post colonial post Christian world Western culture is experiencing a dramatic shift Correspondingly says Myron Penner recent philosophy has taken a postmodern turn in which traditional concepts of reality truth language and knowledge have been radically altered if not discarded Here James K A Smith John Franke Merold Westphal Kevin Vanhoozer Douglas Geivett and R Scott Smith respond to the question What perils and or promises does the postmodern turn hold for the tasks of Christian thinkers Addressing topics such as the nature of rationality and biblical faith the relationship of language to reality and the impact of postmodern concerns on ethics this book presents a variety of positions in vigorous dialogue with each other Postmodernism and the Ethics of Theological Knowledge Justin Thacker, 2016-04-08 This book establishes the necessary integration of theological knowledge with theological ethics It does this as a response to the postmodern critique of Christianity as exemplified in Rorty and Lyotard They argue that any claim to know God is necessarily tyrannical Contemporary responses to such postmodern thinking often fail to address adequately the ethical critique that is made This book redresses that balance by suggesting that our knowledge of God and love of the Other are so intimately connected that we cannot have one without the other In the absence of love then we simply do not know God Justin Thacker proposes that an effective theological response to postmodernity must address both knowledge and ethics in an integrated fashion as presented in this book Varieties of Postmodern Theology David Ray Griffin, 1989-07-01 This book sorts out the confusion created by the use of the term postmodern in relation to widely divergent theological positions Four different types of postmodern theology are distinguished in the preface constructive deconstructive liberationist and conservative Two forms of each type are discussed in the book Writing from a constructive postmodern perspective the authors enter into dialogue with the deconstructive postmodernism of Mark C Taylor and Jean Fran ois Lyotard with the liberationist postmodernism of Harvey Cox and Cornel West and with the conservative postmodernism of George William Rutler and John Paul II

Postmodernism and Christian Philosophy Roman Theodore Ciapalo, 1996-12-31 The contributors to Postmodernism and Christian Philosophy bring a wealth of philosophical insights and methodological approaches to bear on a common concern namely the possibility and extent of a fruitful dialogue between Christian philosophy and postmodern thought They tackle the timely question of how realism ought to respond to the threat to what Gilson called the Western Creed posed by modernity's heir apparent Enriched and invigorated by the insights of St Thomas Jacques Maritain Yves R Simon and others the articles assembled in this volume offer a provocative vision of the way in which a world bearing the imprint of modernity can nevertheless avoid succumbing to the false alternative proposed by postmodernism Contributors include Benedict M Ashley O P Don T Asselin Michael Baur David B Burrell C S C John Deely Curtis L Hancock Thomas S Hibbs Gregory J Kerr John F X Knasas Joseph W Koterski S J James L Marsh Matthew S Pugh Gregory M Reichberg Robert Royal James V Schall S J Rosalind Smith Edman Brendan Sweetman Joseph M de Torre Merold Westphal and Robert E Wood ABOUT THE EDITOR Roman T Ciapalo is associate professor of philosophy at Loras College in Dubuque Iowa

Lamport, 2022-02-15 The Handbook of Contemporary Christianity in the United States is a one volume examination of Christianity in its role contributions and embattled engagements with the contemporary culture of the postmodern United States While Christianity has been a sustaining force and dominant storyline of the historical foundations of America obvious social political and scientific inroads have lessened its influence and altered the issues considered The handbook explores the strengths and weaknesses of the Christian faith and traditions in the United States and its rich and textured history with a discernable eye toward how the message strategies and initiatives of Christianity has adapted to contemporary American life

Inerrancy and the Spiritual Formation of Younger Evangelicals Carlos R. Bovell, 2007-03-01 In Inerrancy and the Spiritual Formation of Younger

Evangelicals readers are urged to pastorally consider their own spiritual responsibilities toward students by taking more seriously six representative critical discoveries that students tend to make during the course of their higher education By doing this it is hoped that leaders and teachers might become more sensitive to the reality that younger evangelicals are not generally already convinced of the Bible's inerrancy and may even be secretly and frantically searching for existentially workable bibliological alternatives It behooves evangelical leaders as responsible shepherds of God's people to give their students the social and spiritual room they need to breathe by offering them acceptably orthodox alternatives for understanding the inspiration and authority of the Bible Solidarity with the World Carolyn A. Chau, 2016-11-15 Is Christian mission even possible today In a secular age is it possible to talk about the goodness of God in a compelling way How should the church proceed Carolyn Chau explores the question of Catholic mission in a secular age through a constructive interpretation of the work of two celebrated Catholic thinkers philosopher Charles Taylor and theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar arguing that Taylor and Balthasar together offer a promising path for mission today Chau attends to Taylor's account of the conditions of belief today and the genesis of the sociohistorical limits on contemporary God talk as well as his affirmation of certain aspects of Western modernity's culture From Balthasar Chau sifts out the distinctiveness of his view of the human person as defined by mission and his encouragement of a kenotic self understanding of the church In the end Chau claims that if modern persons in secular Western societies are seeking fulfillment and integrity Christian spirituality remains a rich resource on offer Faith and Learning David S. Dockery, 2012 Two dozen Christian higher education professionals thoroughly explore the question of the faith's place on the university campus whether in administrative matters the broader academic world or in student life The Blackwell Companion to the Bible and Culture John F. A. Sawyer, 2012-06-04 The Blackwell Companion to the Bible and Culture provides readers with a concise readable and scholarly introduction to twenty first century approaches to the Bible Consists of 30 articles written by distinguished specialists from around the world Draws on interdisciplinary and international examples to explore how the Bible has impacted on all the major social contexts where it has been influential ancient medieval and modern world wide Gives examples of how the Bible has influenced literature art music history religious studies politics ecology and sociology Each article is accompanied by a comprehensive bibliography Offers guidance on how to read the Bible and its many interpretations Divine Aporia John Charles Hawley, 2000 The essays in this book bring together postmodern theory philosophy psychoanalysis anthropology literature cultural studies and women's studies to show how a persistent and classical theme in western theological studies the alterity of the divine reality has become creatively transcribed and theorized within the postmodern landscape Rorty, Religion, and Metaphysics John Owens, 2019-09-05 Believing that humanity would be better off if it simply dropped its traditional religious and metaphysical beliefs Richard Rorty proposes an alternative approach drawn from the American pragmatist tradition where things get their significance against a background of broad human interests and knowledge is regarded as part of the active pursuit of a better world Rorty Religion and Metaphysics argues that while Rorty's case is clearly and robustly made it is fundamentally challenged by the phenomenon of human recognition the relationship that arises between people when they talk to one another John Owens demonstrates that recognition so central to human life cannot be accommodated within Rorty's proposals given that it precisely attributes a reality to others that goes beyond anything a pragmatist framework can offer It follows that there is more to human interaction than can be explained by Rorty's pragmatism Gazing Through a Prism Darkly B. Keith Putt, 2009-08-25

Merold Westphal has been in the foremost ranks of philosophers who proclaim a new postsecular philosophy By articulating an epistemology sensitive to the realities of cognitive finitude and moral weakness he defends a wisdom that begins in both humility and commitment one that always confesses that human beings can encounter meaning and truth only as human beings never as gods The present volume focuses on this wisdom of humility that characterizes Westphal's thought and explores how that wisdom expressed through the redemptive dynamic of doubt can contribute to developing a postsecular apologetic for faith This book can function both as an accessible introduction to Westphal for those who have not read him extensively and also as an informed critical appreciation and extension of his work for those who are more experienced readers With Gifted Thinkers Mark Manolopoulos, 2009 This book is a collection of engaging entertaining and often confronting dialogues with nine thinkers of faith in postmodernity some of them more prominent than others all of them possessing the rare quality or gift of thinking rigorously tentatively passionately John D Caputo Kevin Hart Robyn Horner Richard Kearney Catherine Keller Kate Rigby Mark C Taylor Mark I Wallace and Merold Westphal The project was driven by two ambitions to seek out their thoughts on the question of the gift which has become a hot topic since the early 1990s in philosophy theology and a whole range of academic disciplines and which was the subject of the interviewer's doctoral work and more generally to examine key elements of these thinkers most important works Hence the dialogues traverse a splendid range of issues philosophical theological ecological hermeneutical biblical scientific and more What's more the dialogical medium has the advantage of casting complex issues in extremely accessible terms thereby making this collection a must read for anyone interested in contemporary Continental theory Theology After Ricoeur Dan R. Stiver, 2001-01-01 Dan

Stiver presents the implications of Paul Ricoeur's hermeneutical philosophy for a postmodern theology by providing a comprehensive interpretation of Ricoeur and then applying Ricoeur's hermeneutical theory to biblical interpretation and theology Stiver situates Ricoeur's contributions in the Yale Chicago debate and shows how Ricoeur's textual theory provides a real alternative to George Lindbeck on the one hand and deconstruction on the other Emerging Prophet Kyle A.

Roberts, 2013-04-23 Kierkegaard was a prophet who critiqued Christendom the perversion of authentic New Testament Christianity into the institutionalized materialistic triumphalist and flabby religion of modernism Emergent Christianity is attempting to carve out a more authentic way of being Christian and doing church within and beyond the ineffectual institutionalized church of modernity In many ways Kierkegaard s critiques concerns and goals overlap with emergent Christianity and the emerging church For the first time this book brings Kierkegaard into a dialogue with various postmodern forms of Christianity on topics like revelation and the Bible the atonement and moralism and the church as an apologetic of witness In conversation with postmodern philosophers contemporary theologians and emergent leaders Kierkegaard is offered as a prophetic voice for those who are carving out an alternative expression of the New Testament today and attempting to follow Christ through works of love

Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29

Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination
