Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2016-07-18 Women of Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships explores and critically examines the opportunities and challenges presented in mentoring relationships involving women of color While all mentoring relationships are unique to the individuals involved in them this book highlights the roles of race class and gender oriented constructions in the establishment maintenance and dissolution of specific mentoring relationships in which women of color are engaged This edited collection argues that traditional notions of mentoring fail to account for intersectionality and power dynamics that can have profound effects on mentoring practices and that institutional best practices for mentoring do little to address the impact of constructions of otherness on the success or failure of mentoring relationships involving women of color Recommended for scholars of communication studies gender studies race studies and for scholars pursuing a career in academia Resources in Education ,2001-04

Introducing Human Geographies, Second Edition Paul Cloke, Philip Crang, Mark Goodwin, 2013-01-11 Introducing Human Geographies is a comprehensive stimulating and innovative introduction to human geography This second edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to build upon the success of the acclaimed first edition Now in full colour and with sixteen new chapters discussion points and glossary definitions in the margin it is even more accessible Part one discusses the principal ideas through which human geographers understand and shape their subject Part two examines each of the main sub fields cultural geography development geography economic geography environmental geography historical geography political geography rural geography social geography urban geography Part three demonstrates how different thematic interests are combined in cutting edge human geographical debates Introducing Human Geographies continues to be the essential textbook for first year undergraduate geography students taking introductory courses in human geography The Science Teacher ,1998 Some issues are accompanied by a CD ROM on a selected topic Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 2014-02-01 This work indexes books dissertations and journal articles that mention television shows Memoirs autobiographies biographies and some popular works meant for fans are also indexed The major focus is on service to researchers in the history of television Listings are keyed to an annotated bibliography Appendices include a list of websites an index of groups or classes of people on television and a list of programs by genre Changes from the second edition include more than 300 new shows airing on a wider variety of networks 2000 plus references more than double the second edition and a large increase in scholarly articles The book provides access to materials on almost 2300 shows including groundbreaking ones like All in the Family almost 200 entries cult favorites like Buffy The Vampire Slayer 200 plus entries and a classic franchise Star Trek more than 400 entries for all the shows The shows covered range from the late 1940s to 2010 The Walking Dead References range from 1956 to 2013 The Sino-Japanese War and Youth Literature Minjie Chen, 2016-01-22 The Sino Japanese War 1937 1945 was fought in the Asia Pacific theatre between Imperial Japan and China with the United States as the latter s major military ally An important line of investigation remains questioning how the history of this war has been passed on to post war generations consciousness and how information sources particularly those exposed to young people in their formative years shape their knowledge and bias of the conflict as well as World War II more generally This book is the first to focus on how the Sino Japanese War has been represented in non English and English sources for children and young adults As a cross cultural study and an interdisciplinary endeavour it not only examines youth orientated publications in China and the United States but also draws upon popular culture novelists memoirs and family oral narratives to make comparisons between fiction and history Chinese and American sources and published materials and private memories of the war Through quantitative narrative analysis literary and visual analysis and socio political critique it shows the dominant pattern of war stories traces chronological changes over the seven decades from 1937 to 2007 and teases out the ways in which the history of the Sino Japanese War has been constructed censored and utilized to serve shifting agendas Providing a much needed examination of public memory literary representation and popular imagination of the Sino Japanese War this book will have huge interdisciplinary appeal particularly for students and scholars of Asian history literature society and education U.S. Land and Natural Resources Policy Gary C. Bryner, 1998 A comprehensive overview of the policy debates surrounding U S public lands and the natural resources they contain Bryner traces the origin and evolution of policy and the current debate in Congress and within the Clinton administration over public lands and natural resources He also assesses policy options in light of ecological principles and examines the importance of public lands and natural resources in the nation s environmental quality and in the quality of life the environment will provide for future generations This book will be a useful reference for policymakers environmental studies students and anyone concerned with the future of our public lands and natural resources
