Racing And Eracing Language Living With The Color Of Our Words:

Racing and (E)Racing Language Ellen J. Goldner, Safiya Henderson-Holmes, 2001-07-01 This anthology the first of its kind considers the poetry critical analysis of literature and language personal narrative dialogue and political speech by African American Asian American and European American authors Racing and E Racing Language explores genres in American literature from the 1850s through the 1990s from work songs to poetry from fiction to theater This book sheds light on many kinds of American language and throws into relief the written word as a shifting common ground a charged and unpredictable space where different voices ethnic groups and classes exert different kinds and varying degrees of influence on one another

The Cambridge History of American Poetry Alfred Bendixen, Stephen Burt, 2014-10-27 The Cambridge History of American Poetry offers a comprehensive exploration of the development of American poetic traditions from their beginnings until the end of the twentieth century Bringing together the insights of fifty distinguished scholars this literary history emphasizes the complex roles that poetry has played in American cultural and intellectual life detailing the variety of ways in which both public and private forms of poetry have met the needs of different communities at different times The Cambridge History of American Poetry recognizes the existence of multiple traditions and a dramatically fluid canon providing current perspectives on both major authors and a number of representative figures whose work embodies the diversity of America s democratic traditions

Film and the American Presidency Jeff Menne, Christian B. Long, 2015-02-20 The contention of Film and the American Presidency is that over the twentieth century the cinema has been a silent partner in setting the parameters of what we might call the presidential imaginary This volume surveys the partnership in its longevity placing stress on especially iconic presidents such as Lincoln and FDR The contributions to this collection probe the rich interactions between these high institutions of culture and politics Hollywood and the presidency and argue that not only did Hollywood acting become an idiom for presidential style but that Hollywood early on understood its own identity through the presidency s peculiar mix of national epic and unified protagonist Additionally they contend that studios often made their films to sway political outcomes that the performance of presidential personae has been constrained by the kinds of bodies for so long white and male that have occupied the office such that presidential embodiment obscures the body politic and that Hollywood and the presidency may finally be nothing more than two privileged figures of media age power

“Mouths on Fire with Songs”. Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity Inspired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today

Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu, 2022-08-15 A Library Journal Best Reference Book of 2022 This book represents the culmination of over 150 years of literary achievement by the most diverse ethnic group in the United States Diverse because this group of ethnic Americans includes those whose ancestral roots branch out to East Asia Southeast Asia South Asia and Western Asia Even within each of these regions there exist vast differences in languages cultures religions political systems and colonial histories From the earliest publication in 1887 to the latest in 2021 this dictionary celebrates the incredibly rich body of fiction poetry memoirs plays and children s literature Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries on genres major terms and authors This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this topic

Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this

Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children s literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms

Asian American Literature in Transition, 1965-1996: Volume 3 Asha Nadkarni, Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, 2021-06-17 This volume traces the formation of the Asian American literary canon and the field of Asian American Studies from 1965 1996 It is intended for an academic audience ranging from advanced undergraduate students to scholars from a variety of disciplines interested in the formation of Asian American literary studies from 1965-1996 Ideas of Order in Contemporary American Poetry Diana von Finck, Oliver Scheiding, 2007 American Cycle Larry Beckett, 2022-07-01 American Cycle a sequence of long poems

inspired by our folklore and past was written over forty seven years Its themes are love local mythology history justice memory accomplishment time The books are extraordinary sustained explosions of authentic American language and energy Each is entirely different from the others in style voice form and narrative content each so rich in imagery and nuance and texture and event and so finely crafted Paul Williams author of Bob Dylan Performing Artist American Cycle holds Spanish words loaned from Old California rough colloquialisms in Paul Bunyan the power of African American vernacular English in John Henry bare oratory in Chief Joseph old west phrases in Wyatt Earp circus ballyhoo in P T Barnum aviation jargon in Amelia Earhart backwoods dialect in Blue Ridge As Walt Whitman says I hear America singing the varied carols Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Contributions by Tanya Long Bennett David Brauer Cameron Williams Crawford Emily Pierce Cummins April Conley Kilinski Justin Mellette and Wendy Kurant Rollins As a white woman of means living in segregated Georgia in the first half of the twentieth century Lillian Smith 1897 1966 surprised readers with stories of mixed race love affairs mob attacks on outsiders and young female campers exploring their sexuality Critical Essays on the Writings of Lillian Smith tracks the evolution of Smith from a young girls camp director into a courageous artist who could examine controversial topics frankly and critically while preserving a lifelong connection to the north Georgia mountains and people She did not pull punches in her portrayals of the South and refused to obsess on an idealized past Smith took seriously the artist s role as she saw it to lead readers toward a better understanding of themselves and a more fulfilling existence Smith s perspective cut straight to the core of the neurotic behaviors she observed and participated in To draw readers into her exploration of those behaviors she created compelling stories using carefully chosen literary techniques in powerful ways With words as her medium she drew maps of her fictionalized southern places revealing literally and metaphorically society s disfunctions Through carefully crafted points of view she offers readers an intimate glimpse into her own childhood as well as the psychological traumas that all southerners experience and help to perpetuate Comprised of seven essays by contemporary Smith scholars this volume explores these fascinating aspects of Smith s writings in an attempt to fill in the picture of this charismatic figure whose work not only was influential in her time but also is profoundly relevant to ours

Encyclopedia of Asian-American Literature Seiwoong Oh, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Asian American literature providing profiles of Asian American writers and their works

Intercultural Competence Myron W. Lustig, Jolene Koester, 2006 Striking a unique balance between skills and theory Intercultural Competence provides readers with the background and confidence to succeed in today s multicultural environment Blending both the practical and theoretical the concrete and abstract this book is both enjoyable to read and thoroughly researched By clearly explaining different theories and the significance of cultural patterns and having readers practice what they learn via examples in the book Intercultural Competence better prepares readers to interact in intercultural relationships The book also provides a discussion of important ethical and social issues relating to intercultural communication The authors cover U S cultures as well as global cultural issues      The Fourth Ghost Robert H. Brinkmeyer, 2009 In the 1949 classic Killers of the Dream Lillian Smith described three racial ghosts haunting the mind of the white South the black woman with whom the white man often had sexual relations the rejected child from a mixed race coupling and the black mammy whom the white southern child first loves but then must reject In this groundbreaking work Robert H Brinkmeyer Jr extends Smith s work by adding a fourth ghost lurking in the psyche of the white South the specter of European Fascism He explores how southern writers of the 1930s and 1940s responded to Fascism and most tellingly to the suggestion that the racial politics of Nazi Germany had a special problematic relevance to the South and its segregated social system As Brinkmeyer shows nearly all white southern writers in these decades felt impelled to deal with this specter and with the implications for southern identity of the issues raised by Nazism and Fascism Their responses varied widely ranging from repression and denial to the repulsion of self recognition With penetrating insight Brinkmeyer examines the work of writers who contemplated the connection between the authoritarianism and racial politics of Nazi Germany and southern culture He shows how white southern writers both those writing cultural criticism and those writing imaginative literature turned to Fascist Europe for images analogies and metaphors for representing and understanding the conflict between traditional and modern cultures that they were witnessing in Dixie Brinkmeyer considers the works of a wide range of authors of varying political stripes the Nashville Agrarians W J Cash Lillian Smith William Alexander Percy Thomas Wolfe William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter Carson McCullers Robert Penn Warren and Lillian Hellman He argues persuasively that by engaging in their works the vital contemporary debates about totalitarianism and democracy these writers reconfigured their understanding not only of the South but also of themselves as southerners and of the nature and significance of their art The magnum opus of a distinguished scholar The Fourth Ghost offers a stunning reassessment of the cultural and political orientation of southern literature by examining a major and heretofore unexplored influence on its development      The Slave's Rebellion Adélékè Adéèkó, 2005-07-21 Episodes of slave rebellions such as Nat Turner s are central to speculations on the trajectory of black history and the goal of black spiritual struggles Using fiction history and oral poetry drawn from the United States the Caribbean and Africa this book analyzes how writers reinterpret episodes of historical slave rebellion to conceptualize their understanding of an ideal master less future The texts range from Frederick Douglass s The Heroic Slave and Alejo Carpentier s The Kingdom of this World to Yoruba praise poetry and novels by Nigerian writers Adebayo Faleti and Akinwumi Isola Each text reflects different national attitudes toward the historicity of slave rebellions that shape the ways the texts are read This is an absorbing book about the grip of slavery and rebellion on modern black thought
