historical exploration of race policy development in these two countries In this path breaking work Bleich argues against common wisdom that attributes policy outcomes to the role of powerful interest groups or to the constraints of existing institutions instead emphasizing the importance of frames as widely held ideas that propelled policymaking in different directions British policymakers framing of race and racism principally in North American terms of color discrimination encouraged them to import many policies from across the Atlantic For decades after WWII by contrast French policy leaders framed racism in terms influenced largely by their Vichy past which encouraged policies designed primarily to counter hate speech while avoiding the recognition of race found across the English Channel Flat Racing and British Society, 1790-1914 Mike Huggins, 2014-06-03 2001 North American Society for Sports History Book of the Year This volume studies the formative period of racing between 1790 and 1914 This was a time when despite the opposition of a respectable minority attendance at horse races betting on horses or reading about racing increasingly became central leisure activities of much of British society British Ocean Racing British Ocean Racing, 2020-07-14 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing many of these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork Encyclopedia of British Horse Racing Dr Joyce Kay, Professor Wray Vamplew, 2012-10-02 The Encyclopedia of British Horse Racing offers an innovative approach to one of Britain's oldest sports While it considers the traditional themes of gambling and breeding and contains biographies of human personalities and equine stars it also devotes significant space to neglected areas Entries include social economic and political forces that have influenced racing controversial historical and current issues legal and illegal gambling and racing finance the British impact on world horseracing history and heritage of horseracing links between horse racing and the arts media and technology human and equine biographies venues associated with racing horseracing websites The Encyclopedia of British Horse Racing provides a unique source of information and will be of great interest to sports historians as well as all those whose work or leisure brings them into the world of racing The Race Tim Zimmermann, 2004-01-01 A contributing editor for Outside magazine provides a behind the scenes look at the fast paced around the world sailing race An invigorating behind the scenes look at the world of extreme sailing The Race is also a taut engrossing account of the first running of the competition called The Race which began on December 31 2000 in Barcelona and ended sixty two days later in Marseilles The most intense event of its kind a nonstop circumnavigation of the globe in the fastest boats ever built The Race attracts some of the world's best sailors and arguably its most eccentric personalities Tim Zimmermann an experienced blue water sailor relates in knuckle whitening detail how and why sailors risk millions of dollars and their lives to dash around the world in record time He garnishes this story with a chronicle of the tumultuous history of extreme sailing from the nineteenth century to today Zimmermann puts the reader right on board with the tough colorful crews as they take a crash course sometimes literally in how to handle these astonishing machines Derek Lundy author of

Godforsaken Sea Praise for The Race Zimmerman turns a daring race of unthinkably fast high tech sailing machines into a page turner Bruce Knecht author of The Proving Ground This is probably the finest account of the history of the circumnavigator's quest yet written refreshingly free of hyperbole and false expectation Zimmerman's pace matches that of The Race itself though he never puts his bow under Lincoln P Paine author of Ships of the World Zimmerman's behind the scenes look at the characters boats and technology in The Race as well as the rich sailing history that preceded it captures the nuances of adventure only a masochist could love The Race was a wild ride and The Race is a fine read Herb McCormick sailing correspondent of the New York Times editor of Cruising World

Nobility and the Making of Race in Eighteenth-Century Britain Tim Mc Inerney, 2023-09-07 Nobility and the Making of Race in Eighteenth Century Britain focuses on 18th century Britain and Ireland at a time when race theory as we know it today was steadily emerging in the realm of natural philosophy to examine the structural relationship between nobility and race This ground breaking book examines texts from the fields of naturalism political philosophy medicine and colonial venture as well as interrogating works of drama and literature in order to track how climate based understandings of human variety at this time became increasingly imbued with noble traditions of genealogical purity and hierarchies of descent This process the book argues allowed British naturalists and wider society to understand global populations according to an already familiar pattern of genealogical inequality and offered the proponents of race theory a ready made model of natural supremacy In this highly original and meticulously researched book Tim McInerney explains why nobility and race developed in the way they did and how the premise of each promoted a certain idea of superiority The result is a necessary in depth understanding of how genealogical exclusivity works as a power strategy vital to students and scholars alike
