Muslim Exegesis of the Bible in Medieval Cairo Lejla Demiri, 2013 In Muslim Exegesis of the Bible in Medieval Cairo Lejla Demiri makes Najm al D n al f s d 716 1316 extraordinary commentary on the Christian scriptures available for the first time in a scholarly edition and English translation with a full introduction Routledge Handbook on Christian-Muslim Relations David Thomas, 2017-08-16 The matter of Christian Muslim relations cannot be ignored these days While the term itself may not appear all that often relations between the two faiths and their reciprocal perceptions are undeniable influences behind many current conflicts declarations of mutual recognition and peace negotiations not to mention the brooding hatred of religious extremists Since 9 11 relations between the two faiths have in one form or another hardly been away from the news This Handbook contains fundamental information about the major aspects of relations between Christians and Muslims Its various sections follow the history from the early seventh century to the present the major religious issues that have led to disputes between the two faiths and the political implications of religious differences at various stages through history as well as in the present It includes analysis of scriptural and theological themes and explores the characteristics of relations at important points in history and also in various parts of the world today Chapters are devoted to the most significant intellectual interpretations and encounters the main armed clashes including the Crusades and the important documents issued by each faith that in recent years have led the way towards new developments in recognition and acceptance With chapters written by some of the foremost experts in the field the book traces the largely dark history of relations and explains the underlying reasons why Muslims and Christians have found tolerance and respect for the other difficult It is an excellent resource for understanding the past and for highlighting lessons for future relations between the world's two largest religions Islam Claire Woodward, 2002 Islam Background Bibliography Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively minded but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious Judaism Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham's example Yet the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order The Qur'an claims that men and women and the relations between them are a sign from God The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures This book finds that far from silencing women the Qur'an affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo-Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God Toward a Healthier Contextualization among Muslims Wonjoo Hwang, 2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God's Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the

Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Poverty and Wealth in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Nathan R. Kollar,Muhammad Shafiq,2016-07-27 This book gathers scholars from the three major monotheistic religions to discuss the issue of poverty and wealth from the varied perspectives of each tradition It provides a cadre of values inherent to the sacred texts of Jews Christians and Muslims and illustrates how these values may be used to deal with current economic inequalities Contributors use the methodologies of religious studies to provide descriptions and comparisons of perspectives from Judaism Christianity and Islam on poverty and wealth The book presents citations from the sacred texts of all three religions The contributors discuss the interpretations of these texts and the necessary contexts both past and present for deciphering the stances found there Poverty and Wealth in Judaism Christianity and Islam identifies and details a foundation of common values upon which individual and institutional decisions may be made Perceptions of Christianity Among South Asian Muslims in America Paul S. Biswas,2020-07-13 This book explores and articulates perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America The South Asian Muslim population in America includes many immigrants and their families This book analyzes the perceptions of Christianity held by South Asian Muslims in three areas theological sociocultural and ethical moral This book addresses both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity although it mainly focuses on the misperceptions that give rise to conflicting views between Muslim and Christian The primary goal of this book is to consider how flawed perceptions hinder the effective communication of the Christian gospel in efforts to witness to Muslims in America This book further explores the sociocultural and ethnic differences among South Asian Muslims and the ways in which their perceptions of Christianity differ More specifically this book identifies the factors most likely to influence both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America This book also briefly explores the multi faceted historical background of Islam in South Asia and the impact Islam has had on the assumptions and perceptions of Christianity of South Asian people in general and specifically on the thinking and perceptions of South Asian Muslims in America This book includes qualitative research using an ethnographic case study approach Data presented in this book are collected from two different sources scholarly literature related to the focal group and structured interviews with a representative sample of South Asian Muslims in America The anticipated result is to provide useful information and insights so Christian practitioners can develop useful tools for building harmonious relationships with South Asian Muslims in America and effectively communicating the gospel to them
