Employment and Earnings, 1982 Staging Spectatorship in the Plays of Philip Massinger Professor Joanne Rochester, 2013-04-28 The playwrights composing for the London stage between 1580 and 1642 repeatedly staged plays within and other metatheatrical inserts Such works present fictionalized spectators as well as performers providing images of the audience stage interaction within the theatre They are as much enactments of the interpretive work of a spectator as of acting and as such they are a potential source of information about early modern conceptions of audiences spectatorship and perception This study examines on stage spectatorship in three plays by Philip Massinger head playwright for the King s Men from 1625 to 1640 Each play presents a different form of metatheatrical inset from the plays within of The Roman Actor 1626 to the masques within of The City Madam 1632 to the titular miniature portrait of The Picture 1629 moving thematically from spectator interpretations of dramatic performance the visual spectacle of the masque to staged readings of static visual art All three forms present a dramatization of the process of examination and allow an analysis of Massinger s assumptions about interpretation perception and spectator response Unemployment Compensation Interpretation Service, 1942

Gendering Modern German History Karen Hagemann, Jean H. Quataert, 2007-08-01 Writing on the history of German women has like women s history elsewhere undergone remarkable expansion and change since it began in the late 1960s Today Women s history still continues to flourish alongside gender history but the focus of research has increasingly shifted from women to gender This shift has made it possible to make men and masculinity objects of historical research too After more than thirty years of research it is time for a critical stocktaking of the gendering of the historiography on nineteenth and twentieth century Germany To provide a critical overview in a comparative German American perspective is the main aim of this volume which brings together leading experts from both sides of the Atlantic They discuss in their essays the state of historiography and reflect on problems of theory and methodology Through compelling case studies focusing on the nation and nationalism military and war colonialism politics and protest class and citizenship religion Jewish and non Jewish Germans the Holocaust the body and sexuality and the family this volume demonstrates the extraordinary power of the gender perspective to challenge existing interpretations and rewrite mainstream arguments Sinners, Works of Law, and Transgression in Gal 2:14b-21 Nicolai Techow, 2024-01-30 In this study of the flow of thought in Paul s speech to Cephas Gal 2 14b 21 Nicolai Techow explains the passage as a linear and unified argument centered on God s judgment of people in the cross of Christ as integral to justification He argues for a primarily moral religious meaning of sinfulness and works of law Fair Or Foul United States. Congress. Senate.
