Regional Integration Experience Theory :

Regional Integration A. El-Agraa, 1999-07-30 The book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of the theoretical and empirical literature in international economics arising from the proliferation of regional integration schemes in the last four decades The focus is on the pure theoretical and empirical work in the field covering all recent developments in theoretical work and measurement techniques in regional integration The new book fully updates the analysis in the author's very well received The Theory and Measurement of International Economic Integration 1989 to take into account the impact of a further decade of rapid integration around the world Detailed empirical analysis of the major integration schemes themselves can be found in the author's collection International Economic Integration 1997

Regional Integration, Identity & Citizenship in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, Redie Bereketeab, 2012 Examines how regional integration can resolve the crises of the Greater Horn of Africa exploring how it can be used as a mechanism for conflict resolution promoting the economy and tackling issues of identity and citizenship The Greater Horn of Africa GHA is engulfed by three interrelated crises various inter state wars civil wars and inter communal conflicts an economic crisis manifested in widespread debilitating poverty chronic food insecurity and famines and environmental degradation that is ravaging the region While it is apparent that the countries of the region are unlikely to be able to deal with the crises individually there is consensus that their chances of doing so improve markedly with collective regional action The contributors to this volume address the need for regional integration in the GHA They identify those factors that can foster integration such as the proper management of equitable citizenship rights as well as examining those that impede it including the region's largely ineffective integration scheme IGAD and explore how the former can be strengthened and the latter transformed explain how regional integration can mitigate the conflicts and examine how integration can help to energise the region's economy Kidane Mengisteab is Professor of African Studies and Political Science at Penn State University Redie Bereketeab is a researcher at the Nordic Africa Institute Sweden

Regional Integration Processes in the Commonwealth of Independent States Katarzyna Czerewacz-Filipowicz, Agnieszka Konopelko, 2016-11-26 This book investigates the economic political and cultural factors that influence regional economic integration processes as well as international political cooperation in the area of the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS The authors analyze market integration manifested in interregional trade investment and service connections Taking a constructivist approach they shed new light on how national ethnic religious and linguistic factors as well as systems of government political regimes and models of leadership shape foreign policy decision making in various post Soviet countries

Assessment and Measurement of Regional Integration Philippe De Lombaerde, 2006-09-27 The book fills a niche in the market for books on regional integration where most of the publications deal with theory or the analysis of specific cases almost no books can be found dealing with analytical methodology The book includes a combination of well known and expert scholars and up and coming young academics The book will appeal strongly to both economists and politics and while the authors present an interdisciplinary approach the economists and political scientists approaches are kept separate

Regional integration and productivity : the experiences of Brazil and Mexico (Working Paper ITD = Documento de Trabajo ITD ; n. 14) Mauricio Mesquita Moreira, Ernesto Lopez Cordova, 2015 What is the impact of integration on productivity What are the main channels Is there anything specific about productivity effects in regional agreements This paper tries to answer these questions by looking at the experience of Brazil and Mexico We estimate firm level productivity and test its causal links with trade and FDI variables The results suggest strong trade related gains with import discipline emerging as the dominant effect The results on learning by exporting were mixed with gains restricted to Brazil's regional and worldwide exports On FDI foreign firms appear to have had a positive impact on their buyers and suppliers in Mexico but in Brazil the overall impact was statistically insignificant on productivity levels and negative on productivity growth

The Politics of Regional Integration in Latin America O. Dabène, 2009-08-31 This book explores the widely admitted failure of regional integration in this continent linking the features of regional institutional arrangements with domestic politics and includes an inquiry into regionalism at the hemispherical level

Systems Theory and Regional Integration James P. O'Leary,1978 Roadmap to an ASEAN Economic Community Denis Hew Wei-Yen,2005 At the Ninth ASEAN Summit in Bali on 7 October 2003 the leaders of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations agreed to establish an ASEAN Economic Community AEC by 2020 It is envisaged that the AEC would be a single market and production base with a free flow of goods and services investments capital and skilled labour An integrated ASEAN with a sizeable market of over 500 million people could become an alternative to China as a regional production base for MNCs Although there are roadmaps for the fast track integration of eleven priority sectors an overall longer term roadmap needs to be formulated to realize the AEC This book addresses the main issues

Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi,2020-12-23 This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective a post colonial and post partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives ignoring the socio cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood the impact of social media on Border Studies trans border cooperation water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation It also suggests ways of enhancing cross border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective Well supplemented with case studies the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies military and strategic studies international relations geopolitics and South Asian studies It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies especially those dealing with foreign relations

Assessing Regional Integration in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa,2004 This publication examines progress towards regional integration in Africa defined as one of the anchoring ideals of African unity and the basis for the New Partnership for Africa s Development NEPAD development framework The report analyses the current state of the integration process highlighting where efforts have succeeded or failed Findings include that progress has been mixed across sectors regional economic communities and member states with some notable progress in trade communications transport and macroeconomic policy Overall however substantial gaps remain between goals and achievements of most regional economic communities particularly in terms of internal African trade macroeconomic policy convergence production and physical connectivity A summary report is also available ISBN 9211250927 New Regionalism and the European Union Alex Warleigh-Lack, Nick Robinson, Ben Rosamond, 2011-06-01 The debates on regionalism have been polarized between European Union EU scholars and non EU scholars with the assumption being that regionalism within the EU and other regions of the world are quite distinct with little to be learnt from dialogue with each other This book challenges such assumptions and calls for a genuine debate between scholars of regionalism This book demonstrates that more can and needs to be learned about regional integration all over the world through comparison and reflection on specific regional trends Beginning with a theoretically driven introduction leading experts in the field are brought together to offer a series of case studies on regional integration within Latin America Africa Asia North America and Europe In Part III the authors investigate the links between the EU and selected other regional organisations and processes exploring the dynamics through which these interregional relations are developing and the implications they have for the study of contemporary regionalism regionalisation both inside and beyond the continent of Europe The conclusions set out a challenging research agenda for comparative studies in the field Addressing one of the under explored aspects of EU studies the EU s coexistence with other pan continental regional organisations in the European continent this book will be of interest to students and scholars of regionalism IPE European Studies and international politics

Regional Integration Study of East Africa ,2003 The Politics of Regionalism in South Asia B. Mohanan, 1992

The European Union Illuminated A. El-Agraa, 2015-05-05 The EU is under stress Many believe in the euro s demise because they blame it for the 2008 financial crisis and the unwelcome austerity measures Many resent the immigrants from the new EU member states threatening the survival of the Single European Market Many complain of a Brussels diktat seeking an escape from joint EU decisions Several member states want to unilaterally deal with the enhanced competition from the emerging markets especially China undermining the EU s common commercial policy run by a single EU commissioner And many in the UK want its exit from the EU diluting EU unity and reducing its global influence These concerns are either misguided or require a stronger EU to deal with them this book aims to address these issues by considering the nature importance and future of the European Union Monitoring Regional Integration in Southern Africa Yearbook ,2006

The Top Books of the Year Regional Integration Experience Theory The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Regional Integration Experience Theory : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
