Regionalization In Africa Integration And Disintegration:

Regionalisation in Africa Daniel Bach,1999 by including accounts of the flows of goods and people that take place informally and frequently illegally Bach has lifted the lid on a little observed but vitally important aspect of contemporary African life International Affairs The dynamics of integration and disintegration in sub Saharan Africa at the end of the millennium result from a combination of upheavals in the international system since the end of the Cold War and the crisis of the state within Africa itself

Regionalism and Regional Integration in Africa Nordiska Afrikainstitutet,2001 The contributions identify and review current issues of regionalism and regional integration within the era of globalization in the African context Their approaches present different theoretical and regional perspectives which provide new insights challenge existing concepts and perceptions and contribute to an enriched debate

African Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes James Thuo Gathii,2011-07-21 African regional trade integration has grown exponentially in the last decade This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the legal framework within which it is being pursued It will fill a huge knowledge gap and serve as an invaluable teaching and research tool for policy makers in the public and private sectors teachers researchers and students of African trade and beyond The author argues that African Regional Trade Agreements RTAs are best understood as flexible legal regimes particularly given their commitment to variable geometry and multiple memberships He analyzes the progress made toward trade liberalization in each region how the RTAs are financed their trade remedy and judicial regimes and how well they measure up to Article XXIV of GATT The book also covers monetary unions as well as intra African regional integration and examines free trade agreements with non African regions including the Economic Partnership Agreements with the European Union

The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum,2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism

Regionalism in Africa Daniel C Bach,2015-12-22 Africa which was not long ago discarded as a hopeless and irrelevant region has become a new frontier for global trade investment and the conduct of international relations This book surveys the socio economic intellectual and security related dimensions of African regionalisms since the turn of the 20th century It argues that the continent deserves to be considered as a crucible for conceptualizing and contextualizing the ongoing influence of colonial policies the emergence of specific integration and security cultures the spread of cross border regionalisation processes at the expense of region building the interplay between territory space and trans state networks and the intrinsic ambivalence of global frontier narratives This is emphasized through the identification of distinctive threads of regionalism which by focusing on genealogies trajectories and ideals transcend the binary divide between old and new regionalisms In doing so the book opens new perspectives not only on Africa in international relations but also Africa s own international relations This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of African politics African history regionalism comparative regionalism and more broadly to international political economy international relations and global and regional governance Capitalism and

Economic Crime in Africa Jörg Wiegratz, 2024-06-21 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of economic crimes and market irregularities including matters of trickery parallel economy illicit trade economies of violence and criminalisation of the poor in neoliberal Africa It investigates economic crime as a phenomenon of neoliberal reform and transformation and it unpacks crime as a societal and particularly as a political economic phenomenon under capitalism The book brings together a collection of research articles briefings and updated blog posts that were published over a period of nearly 40 years 1986 2023 in the acclaimed journal Review of African Political Economy ROAPE and on its website roape net Featuring contributions from leading experts in the field including a foreword by Yusuf K Serunkuma and an afterword by Laureen Snider this volume explores what these crimes have to do with and can tell us about state business relations regulation capitalist transformation and the corporation on the continent shedding light on the co production of the crimes by a range of actors from the realms of business politics state and international development including major reform advocates such as international financial institutions IFIs and other donors It responds to the imperative to advance the analysis of the link between capitalism and crime in Africa and to locate capitalism more centrally in the analysis of economic crimes as more African countries move from being societies with capitalism to capitalist societies Illustrating the relevance of African countries to debates in criminology corporate crime state crime crimes of the powerful and illegality this volume engages with and mobilises a variety of literatures to analyse economic crimes as phenomena of global and local capitalism and provides readers from academia government business media civil society and education a striking source of information and analysis Regionalism and Human Protection Charles T. Hunt, Noel M. Morada, 2018-11-26 This book provides a detailed examination of how norms concerning human rights civilian protection and prevention of mass atrocities have fared in the regions of Southeast Asia and Africa Originated as a spin off of the journal GR2P vol 8 2 3 2016 it has been enriched with new chapters and revised contents which contrast the different experiences of those regions and investigates the expression of human protection norms in regional organisations and thematic policy agendas as well as the role of civil society mechanisms processes Hunt and Morada have brought together scholar practitioners from across the world The collection identifies a range of insights that provide rich opportunities for south south exchange and mutual learning when it comes to promoting and building capacity for human protection at the regional level Redrawing the Global Economy

A. Landau,2001-05-04 Alice Landau investigates the confluence magnitude and dynamics of globalization and regionalization and highlights the integrative and disintegrative effects of both processes She digs deep in to the processes and traces the inequalities embedded in their dynamics The analysis is complemented by a detailed empirical investigation into the geographical distribution of trade investments capital and transnational corporations which are cumulatively concentrated in a few highly developed and developing countries thus limiting the development prospects for the majority of developing countries The Ashgate Research Companion to Regionalisms J. Andrew Grant,2016-03-23 EU studies increasingly offers a critical reflection of the North South regional trade agreements RTAs known as the Economic Partnership Agreements negotiated between the EU and the African Caribbean and Pacific countries Conceiving of regions as legal regimes Clair Gammage highlights the challenges facing developing countries when negotiating RTAs with developed countries and interrogates the assumption that these agreements will and can promote sustainable development through trade Towards an African Peace and Security Regime João Gomes Porto,2016-02-24 Towards an African Peace and Security Regime Continental embeddedness transnational linkages strategic relevance provides an informed and critical reflection on the adequacy of the emerging African Peace and Security Architecture APSA to the medium and long term challenges and opportunities of conflict prevention management and resolution in Africa Complementary to the editors Africa's New Peace and Security Architecture Implementing norms institutionalising solutions Ashgate 2010 this volume revolves around three main areas of focus the continental embeddedness of norms values and processes required for the gradual coming into shape of the African peace and security regime its transnational linkages as well as the wider collective security environment and the empirical analysis of the connections between the continental level and the regional economic communities with case studies on ECOWAS SADC and COMESA

International Human Rights Michael Haas, 2013-09-05 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to international human rights international human rights law why international human rights have increasingly risen to world prominence what is being done about violations of human rights and what might be done to further promote the cause of international human rights so that everyone may one day have their rights respected regardless of who they are or where they live It explains how the concept of international human rights has developed over time the variety of types of human rights civil political rights economic social rights as well as a delineation of war crimes empirical findings from statistical research on human rights institutional efforts to promote human rights an extensive listing of international human rights agreements identification of recent prosecutions of war criminals in domestic and international tribunals ongoing efforts to promote human rights through international aid programs the newest dimensions in the field of human rights gay rights animal rights environmental rights Richly illustrated throughout with case studies controversies court cases think points historical examples biographical statements and suggestions for further reading International Human Rights is the ideal introduction for all students of human rights The book will also be useful for human rights activists to learn how and where to file human rights complaints in order to bring violators to justice The new edition is fully updated and includes new material on the Obama presidency the Arab Spring and its aftermath the workings of the International Criminal Court quantitative analyses of human rights war crimes

Land, Law and Politics in Africa Jon Abbink, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2011-11-18 This volume presents a wide selection of studies on the issues of law land dispute and conflict mediation in Africa reconsidering the role of state agents and other actors in these matters The focus is on analyzing how citizens state institutions and concerned international actors aim to find solutions to disputes tension and conflict that are part of social life The authors have approached the subject of Land Law and Politics in Africa from a variety of disciplinary angles The issues at stake comprise land access and land use state politics and democratization efforts the relationship between constitutional state law and customary law the challenges of urban and rural conflicts border issues and the conceptions of human rights On the basis of new empirical studies the authors plead for a more holistic perspective on the above issues and on developmental policy in general The book has 15 chapters in four thematic parts focusing on historical and cultural aspects of politics and authority land law and land disputes constitutionalism and politics and conflict studies The volume is also a tribute to the work of Gerti Hesseling 1946-2009 a Dutch Africanist with a successful career as a scholar of constitutional and land law focusing on West Africa      The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dibia,2001 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations      Routledge

Handbook of African Security James J. Hentz,2013-08-22 This new Handbook examines the issues challenges and debates surrounding the problem of security in Africa Africa is home to most of the world s current conflicts and security is a key issue However African security can only be understood by employing different levels of analysis the individual human security the state national state security and the region regional international security Each of these levels provides analytical tools for understanding what could be called the African security predicament and these debates are animated by the new security issues immigration small arms transfers gangs and domestic crime HIV AIDS transnational crime poverty and environmental degradation African security therefore not only presents concrete challenges for international security but provides a real world context for challenging conventional conceptions of security Drawing together contributions from a wide range of key thinkers in the field the Routledge Handbook of African Security engages with these debates and is organized into four parts Part I The African security predicament in the twenty first century Part II Understanding conflict in Africa Part III Regionalism and Africa Part IV External influences This Handbook will be of great interest to students of African politics human security global security war and conflict studies peacebuilding and IR in general      The Congo Wars Doctor Thomas Turner,2010-01-01 Since 1996 war has raged in the Congo while the world has looked away Waves of armed conflict and atrocities against civilians have resulted in over three million casualties making this one of the bloodiest yet least understood conflicts of recent times In The Congo Wars Thomas Turner provides the first in depth analysis of what happened The book describes a resource rich region suffering from years of deprivation and still profoundly affected by the shockwaves of the Rwandan genocide Turner looks at successive misguided and self interested interventions by other African powers including Uganda Angola Zimbabwe and Namibia as well as the impotence of United Nations troops Cutting through the historical myths so often used to understand the devastation Turner indicates the changes required of Congolese leaders neighbouring African states and the international community to bring about lasting peace and security      Monitoring Regional Integration in Southern Africa Yearbook ,2005      Demilitarizing the Mind Alexander De Waal,2002 Highlighting a central but neglected component of Africa s complicated and intractable wars the essays collected here argue that political militarism stands in the way of enduring peace democracy and the development of civil society Present in both right wing and left wing guises the latter practised by former liberation fronts which have all betrayed the ideals that enthused their earlier struggles these anonymous essays drawn from the experience of conflict and peacemaking focus on militarism s different manifestations and the ways of overcoming it      African Migrants and the Refugee Crisis Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella O. Abidde, 2020-11-12 This book discusses African migration and the refugee crisis Economic political and social tension in the Middle East and in many parts of the Global South has induced historic mass migration across national and international borders The situation is especially dire in Africa where a sizable number of Africans have chosen or have been forced to leave their countries of origin for Europe and North America Written by an international team of scholars this edited book traces the refugee crisis around the world telling the necessary story of forced migration intentional exclusion and human insecurity from an Afrocentric lens The volume is divided into three sections Section I places African migration within the broader contexts of international history law economics and policy Section II discusses cases of African migration to Europe Latin America and the Mediterranean Section III considers negative consequences of mass African migration including the restriction and criminalization of migration post traumatic stress disorder and gender based violence A compelling account of risk resilience and global power dynamics this volume will be useful to students and researchers interested in African studies migration peace and conflict studies and policy as well as professionals practitioners NGOs IGOs governmental and humanitarian organizations      The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling Max Gallien, Florian Weigand, 2021-12-21 The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling offers a comprehensive survey of interdisciplinary research related to smuggling reflecting on key themes and charting current and future trends Divided into six parts and spanning over 30 chapters the volume covers themes such as mobility borders violent conflict and state politics as well as looks at the smuggling of specific goods from rice and gasoline to wildlife weapons and cocaine Chapters engage with some of the most contentious academic and policy debates of the twenty first century including the historical creation of borders re bordering the criminalisation of migration and the politics of selective toleration of smuggling As it maps a field that contains unique methodological ethical and risk related challenges the book takes stock not only of the state of our shared knowledge but also reflects on how this has been produced pointing to blind spots and providing an informed vision of the future of the field Bringing together established and emerging scholars from around the world The Routledge Handbook of Smuggling is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of conflict studies borderland studies criminology political science global development anthropology sociology and geography
