Reinventing Eve Modern Woman In Search Of Herself:

Reinventing Eve Kim Chernin, 1994 The Feminization of Quest-Romance Dana A. Heller, 2014-03-19 What happens when a woman dares to imagine herself a hero Questing she sets out for unknown regions Lighting a torch she elicits from the darkness stories never told or heard before The woman hero sails against the tides of great legends that recount the adventures of heroic men legends deemed universal timeless and essential to our understanding of the natural order that holds us and completes us in its spiral Yet these myths and rituals do not fulfill her need for an empowering self image nor do they grant her the mobility she requires to imagine enact and represent her quest for authentic self knowledge The Feminization of Quest Romance proposes that a female quest is a revolutionary step in both literary and cultural terms Indeed despite the difficulty that women writers face in challenging myths rituals psychological theories and literary conventions deemed universal by a culture that exalts masculine ideals and universalizes male experience a number of revolutionary texts have come into existence in the second half of the twentieth century by such American women writers as Jean Stafford Mary McCarthy Anne Moody Marilynne Robinson and Mona Simpson all of them working to redefine the literary portrayal of American women s quests They work in part by presenting questing female characters who refuse to accept the roles accorded them by restrictive social norms even if it means sacrificing themselves in the name of rebellion In later texts female heroes survive their lighting out experiences to explore diverse alternatives to the limiting roles that have circumscribed female development This study of The Mountain Lion Memories of a Catholic Girlhood Coming of Age in Mississippi Housekeeping and Anywhere but Here identifies transformations of the quest romance that support a viable theory of female development and offer literary patterns that challenge the male monopoly on transformative knowledge and heroic action

Food and Gender Carole M. Counihan, Steven L. Kaplan, 2003-09-02 This volume examines among other things the significance of food centered activities to gender relations and the construction of gendered identities across cultures It considers how each gender s relationship to food may facilitate mutual respect or produce gender hierarchy This relationship is considered through two central questions How does control of food production distribution and consumption contribute to men s and women s power and social position and How does food symbolically connote maleness and femaleness and establish the social value of men and women Other issues discussed include men s and women s attitudes towards their bodies and the legitimacy of their appetites

The Spiritual Gifts of Travel James O'Reilly, Sean O'Reilly, 2002 In this lively collection from an array of accomplished writers readers meet an old woman who imparts an invaluable midnight message on a Greek island brothers who heal old family wounds in Ireland and travelers who awaken to the mystery of their souls in such disparate places as St Peter s in Rome and a dusty road in India Contributors include Phil Cousineau Kim Chernin David Yeadon Don George and Jan Morris The Spiritual Gifts of Travel reveals the myriad ways that travel renews the spirit The tales ring clear and loud with the universal need to travel the road toward self Francesca de

Grandis author of Be a Goddess The Spiral Path Theresa King,1992-09 This treasure of diverse and visionary writings explores the sacredness of women s everyday lives Twenty two contemporary spiritual teachers including Irina Tweedie Brooke Medicine Eagle Swami Radha Bernadette Roberts and Mary Giles probe aspects of their lives from sexuality work and cooking to relationships prayer and mysticism A vision then emerges of women as extraordinary sacred beings their lives sources of personal and community transformation This book is a guide for those seeking a practical workable spiritual life

Rape, Incest, Battery Miriam Kalman Harris,2000 According to Harris a woman discovers a new identity by becoming the subject who writes rather than the victim who waits in silence Knowing that the problem of violence against women is universal in our world Harris put out a call to professional writers women in shelters and scholars in academe She advertised in literary journals and newsletters asking for autobiographical writings by women who survived any kind of violence and abuse Rape Incest Battery resulted from her long process of collecting selecting and editing Beauty Bites Beast Ellen

Snortland,1998 Looks at how family religion history news and entertainment keep women thinking they are defenseless Snortland contends that women are capable of defending themselves and their loved ones if they learn how She argues that is not the female s size it is her culturally induced ignorance that makes her think she is helpless Snortland offers a clarion call to all women to wake up and take charge of their own self defense both verbal and physical and celebrates women and kids who fought back Adapted from publisher description Keeping the Victorian House Vanessa D. Dickerson,2016-07-01

First published in 1995 The essays in this volume demonstrate how Victorian women took up various positions along a continuum that ranged from the desire of Shelley s creature for the power and acceptance it associated with the house to the rejection of Bront s heroine of the immobility and powerlessness she ultimately experienced there More specifically the essays in this volume explore the nature of the Victorian woman s domestic relations by centring in one activity that most informed her place in what was often the father s house housekeeping The essays in this edition determine how writers especially novelists both male and female used housekeeping to construct reconstruct represent and inscribe the female self and condition This title will be of interest to students of history and literature The Beginner's Guide to Eating Disorders Recovery Nancy J. Kolodny,2013-10-18 Provides information on anorexia and bulimia and discusses what is involved in recovering from eating disorders James Baldwin's Go Tell it on the Mountain Carol E. Henderson,2006 The publication of James Baldwin s Go Tell It on the Mountain ushered in a new age of the urban telling of a tale twice told yet rarely expressed in such vivid portraits Go Tell It unveils the struggle of man with his God and that of man with himself Baldwin s intense scrutiny of the spiritual and communal customs that serve as moral centers of the black community directs attention to the striking incongruities of religious fundamentalism and oppression This book examines these multiple impulses challenging the widely held convention that politics and religion do not mix The Gender Knot Allan

Johnson,2014-10-19 New Third Edition The Gender Knot Allan Johnson s response to the pain and confusion that men and women experience by living with gender inequality explains what patriarchy is and isn't how it works and what gets in the way of understanding and doing something about it Johnson's simple yet powerful approach avoids the paralyzing trap of guilt blame anger and defensive denial that often results from conversations about gender This edition features Updated references data resources and examples especially in relation to issues of sexual orientation and gender identity e.g gay marriage transgender cisgender A glossary of terms A new chapter What Changes and What Does Not Manhood and Violence that provides an extended analysis of the causes of men's violence as a patriarchal phenomenon In the Sanctuary of Women Jan L. Richardson, 2010-10-01 Come spend some time in the sanctuary of women an often ignored space in Jewish and Christian history This devotional book for women highlights six women from around the world and across the centuries inviting us to discover what their lives tell us about God Jan Richardson a gifted poet artist and author believes it is essential for women to listen to one another's wisdom and bring the fullness of their lives with all the wonders and messiness into their prayer life In the Sanctuary of Women gathers together these women from scripture and history Eve Brigid of Kildare The desert mothers Hildegard of Bingen Harriet Powers The Woman of the Song of Songs Each chapter becomes its own sanctuary with one of the women serving as a companion as you contemplate the theme that her life offers Throughout the readings Richardson weaves her own stories poetry prayers and blessings Midway through each chapter a section called The Secret Room gives you a chance to pause and reflect on unexpected insights Reading the book daily will carry you through six months or you can dip into the readings as you wish An invitation into reflection and prayer alone or in the company of others In the Sanctuary of Women is a book to treasure and to share with the women and the men in your life Literature and the Writer , 2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts The Tao of Women Pamela K. Metz, Jacqueline L.

Tobin,1995-06 For centuries women have remained quiet suppressed by society Yet in their silence a singing can be heard celebrating their truths In The Tao of Women female voices speak out Finally the wisdom of Taoist philosophy is linked with the deep and mysterious wisdom of women The Tao of Women captures and presents the power and wisdom generated by centuries of women s lives with the hope that this wisdom will not be lost These brief and poignant meditations amplify the voices of our grandmothers and their mothers before them they illuminate the connections over time and space and culture allowing us to understand the women who came before and the daughters who will follow In 1950 a secret language was discovered near Hunan Province China It was not until 1982 that anyone collected and translated this secret women s script Known as Nu Shu this ancient language was developed and used by women to communicate with each other when their society would not allow them to learn to read and write For the first time in America 81 original Nu Shu illustrations and their translations can be seen in The Tao of Women
