Reinventing The Family:

Reinventing the Family Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim, 2002-04-22 The traditional image of the family as a life long unit is fading fast There are fewer marriages more divorces and ever more children born to unmarried or single parents The forms of our private life are changing rapidly and people are embarking on new lifestyles based on cohabitation separation and same sex partnerships In this lively and accessible new book Elisabeth Beck Gernsheim looks at the future of our lives after the family Examining the breakdown of the conventional family unit she explores the new choices that are open to individuals and analyses our anxiety over the ensuing loss of stability In Reinventing the Family Beck Gernsheim describes how men and women are being confronted with competing and often incompatible demands Our areas of personal choice have been redrawn but in a space that involves new social regulations and controls The talk of family values sits uneasily with the reality of long working hours business trips weekend seminars and career moves At work we are encouraged to pursue competition speed and change at home we are expected to find community and conciliation Beck Gernsheim examines the impact of these conflicting expectations on the relationships between men women and children and searches for possible solutions Reinventing the Family is an important and timely contribution to the growing debate about the family and its future It will be ideal reading for students of sociology and gender studies but will also appeal to a wide general readership contemporary representations of the ideal family and lived experience and compares the British experience with that of the United States and Australia Enduring Liberalism Robert Booth Fowler, 1999 Enduring Liberalism pursues two objectives One it explores the political thought of public intellectuals and the general public since the 1960s Two it assesses contemporary and classic interpretations of American political thought in light of the study's findings BOOK JACKET

Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick's probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements BOOK JACKET Family in Transition Arlene S.

After the Crisis: Remembrance, Re-anchoring and Recovery in Ancient Greece and Rome Jacqueline Klooster, Inger N.I. Kuin, 2020-02-06 Crises resulting from war or other upheavals turn the lives of individuals upside down and they can leave marks on a community for many years after the event This volume aims to explore how such crises were remembered in the ancient world and how communities reconstituted themselves after a crisis Can crises serve as catalysts for innovation or change and how does this work What do crises reveal about the normality against which they are defined and framed People living in post crisis societies have no choice but to adapt to the changes caused by crisis Such adaptation entails the question of how the relationship between the pre crisis situation and the new status quo is constructed and by whom Due to the reduced possibility of using the immediate past which is tainted by conflict and bad memories it may involve revisions of historical narratives about communal pasts and identities through the selection of new anchors and sometimes even a discarding of the old ones Crises affect all areas of life and crisis recovery likewise spans different spheres This volume finds traces of such recovery strategies in texts as well as visual representations in literary as well as in documentary texts in official ideology as much as in subaltern responses The contributors bring together the diverse testimonies for such ways of coping that have survived from antiquity His
