Addiction Recovery and Resilience Townsand Price-Spratlen, 2022-02-01 We live in an era of substance misuse colliding with public health shortcomings Consequences of mass incarceration and other racial disparities of the drug war are felt acutely in the neighborhoods and communities least equipped to deal with them More than 600 000 people are released from US prisons each year nearly two thirds of returning citizens have a substance use disorder SUD and have limited access to treatment Even among the general public only one in ten people with SUD receive any type of specialty treatment
