Managing Data Mining Technologies in Organizations Parag C. Pendharkar, 2003-01-01. Portals present unique strategic challenges in the academic environment. Their conceptualization and design requires the input of campus constituents who seldom interact and whose interests are often opposite. The implementation of a portal requires a coordination of applications and databases controlled by different campus units at a level that may never before have been attempted at the institution. Building a portal is as much about constructing intra-campus bridges as it is about user interfaces and content. Designing Portals: Opportunities and Challenges discusses the current status of portals in higher education by providing insight into the role portals play in an institution's business and educational strategy by taking the reader through the processes of conceptualization, design, and implementation of the portals in different stages of development at major universities and by offering insight from three producers of portal software systems in use at institutions of higher learning and elsewhere. Electronic Payment Systems for Competitive Advantage in E-Commerce Liébana-Cabanillas, Francisco, Muñoz-Leiva, Francisco, Sánchez-Fernández, Juan, Martínez-Fiestas, Myriam, 2014-02-28. Recent innovations in the field of information technology and communications are radically changing the way international organizations conduct business. In this competitive environment, having the necessary tools to streamline business transactions and secure digital payments is crucial to business success. Electronic Payment Systems for Competitive Advantage in E-Commerce provides relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical findings on electronic payment systems in the digital marketplace. Focusing on the importance of e-commerce in business development, including the advantages and disadvantages of e-payments, this book is an essential resource for business professionals who want to improve their understanding of the strategic role of e-commerce in all dimensions, as well as for both researchers and students. Mass Customization for Personalized Communication Environments: Integrating Human Factors Mourlas, Constantinos, Germanakos, Panagiotis, 2009-10-31. This book focuses on the customization of services and communication environments to advance user satisfaction. Provided by publisher. Marketing Management Svend Hollensen, 2019. This book takes the unique and innovative approach of linking relationship marketing to the traditional market planning models that are used by most marketers today. As globalisation progresses, the need for creating and maintaining off-line and on-line relationships with the company's customers, suppliers, stakeholders, and personnel has become increasingly vital in today's business environment. Now in its fourth edition, this best-selling text bridges the gap between relationship marketing and traditional marketing, integrating this approach with the process of developing effective marketing. Cases in Call Center

Management Richard Feinberg, Ko de Ruyter, Lynne Bennington, 2005 Written by authorities on the call center industry this book brings to light the strategic importance of call centers in today's business world. As interactions with customers move away from person to person, the call center is becoming a vital force for corporate marketing and communication.
