Context David J. Kennedy, 2008 This book explores the epiclesis or invocation of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharistic prayer using the Anglican tradition as an historical model of a communion of churches in conscious theological and liturgical dialogue with Christian antiquity Incorporating major studies of England North America and the Indian sub Continent the author includes an exposition of Inter Church ecumenical dialogue and the historic divisions between western and eastern Eucharistic traditions and twentieth century ecumenical endeavour This unique study of the relationship between theology and liturgical text commends a theology and spirituality which celebrates the presence of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist as present and eschatological gift It thus sets historic contemporary and ecumenical divisions in a new theological context

Eucharistic Prayers Paul F. Bradshaw, 2017-01-13 A companion to Prayers of the Eucharist Early and Reformed The Churches of the East possess a sometimes bewildering array of Eucharistic prayers Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayer offers a guide to the exploration of the principal prayers and presents in a simple and succinct manner the current scholarship on the origins development and relationship of these particular prayers to other ancient prayers As well as summarizing the state of research and suggesting directions for future study these essays explain the history of these prayers their relationship to one another and reveal how and why early Christian prayers developed as they did In this way Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers produces a clear picture of the way early Eucharistic prayers emerged and grew in the Eastern Churches Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers serves as a companion to and provides an extended commentary on the texts of early eastern Eucharistic prayers that are published in R C D Jasper and G J Cuming's Prayers of the Eucharist: Early and Reformed. Bradshaw, Maxwell E. Johnson, 2012. Includes bibliographical references and index. A Companion to the Eucharist in the Reformation, 2013-10-24. By the end of the fifteenth century the Eucharist had come to encompass theology, liturgy, art, architecture, and music. In the sixteenth century each of these dimensions was questioned, challenged, rethought, as western European Christians divided over their central act of worship. This volume offers an introduction to early modern thinking on the Eucharist as theology, as Christology, as a moment of human and divine communion, as that which the faithful do, as taking place, and as visible and audible. The scholars gathered in this volume speak from a range of disciplines: liturgics, history, history of art, history of theology, philosophy, musicology, and literary theory. The volume thus also brings different methods and approaches, as well as confessional orientations, to a consideration of the Eucharist in the Reformation. Contributors include Gary Macy, Volker Leppin, Carrie Euler, Nicholas Thompson, Nicholas Wolterstorff, John D Rempel, James F Turrell, Robert J Daly, Isabelle Brian, Thomas Schattauer, Raymond A Mentzer, Michele Zelinsky, Hanson Jaime, Lara Andrew, Spicer Achim, Timmermann Birgit, Ulrike M nch, Andreas Gormans, Alexander J Fisher, Regina M Schwartz, and Christopher Wild. Issues in Eucharistic Praying in East and West Maxwell E. Johnson, 2011-01-01. This collection provides several state-of-the-question essays on current research in a variety of Eucharistic prayers in the Churches of East and West, including attention to other issues of Eucharistic praying and theology. In addition to essays by already recognized scholars in the field, this collection also introduces readers to a new generation of liturgiologists who are emerging within the academy as notable contributors to the field of liturgical studies. For students and teachers of liturgy, indeed for all who seek solid and up-to-date scholarship on Eucharistic liturgy and theology, this volume

The Eucharistic Prayer at Sunday Mass Richard E. McCarron, 2008-04-28 Down in the valley God asked the prophet Ezekiel a mighty question Mortal can these dry bones live Ezekiel 37 3 Today this question is being posed once more to those who are charged with the preparation and celebration of the Sunday liturgy the assembly that celebrates the ministers from within that assembly who prepare and serve and those ordained as priests or bishops who preside We have come a long way since the early days of the conciliar reform of the liturgy Assemblies respond and sing the word is proclaimed with dignity and reverence careful attention is given to environment and season and all come to the communion table Many assemblies strive to realize fully week after week the vision of the Council that the eucharistic liturgy be seen heard felt and smelt as the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed the source from which all its power flows This is critical work if we are utterly convinced that the preeminent manifestation of the church is present in the full active participation of all God's holy people in these liturgical celebrations But many still know liturgical assemblies that are but shadows of who they are called to be and celebrations are slivers of what they could be Many stand at the brink of the valley and behold dry bones And when we come to the eucharistic prayer named the central prayer of the Sunday liturgy we behold very dry bones indeed The question is put forth Can these dry bones live We have come to realize that liturgy is something people do something people live The eucharistic prayer is more than its words It is a way of praying and living What lies in the ritual book must be enlivened when we gather We come together and breathe life into our rituals and their words We can do this because we have first been sealed in the Spirit the one who aids us in our weakness to pray that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words Romans 8 26 from Chapter 1

Sacred Music and Liturgical Reform Rev. Anthony Ruff, O.S.B., 2022-01-07 Anthony Ruff O.S.B. has written a brilliant comprehensive well researched book about the treasures of the Church's musical tradition and about the transformations brought about by liturgical reform The liturgy constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium stated many revolutionary principles of liturgical reform Regarding liturgical music the Council's decrees mandated on the one hand the preservation of the inherited treasury of sacred music and on the other hand advocated adaptation and expansion of this treasury to meet the changed requirements of the reformed liturgy In clear precise language he retrieves the Council's neglected teachings on the preservation of the inherited music treasury He clearly shows that this task is not at odds with good pastoral practice but is rather an integral part of it The book proposes an alternate hermeneutic for understanding the Second Vatican Council's teachings on worship music
