Brutal Justice Mark Sewell, 2016-02-19 Crime is rampant the City cries in pain The call is made for a protector a hero are you that hero Do you feel the burning urge to fight evil but maybe you're not quite sure where to start Do I need a stick how about a mask Must I develop 6 pack abs before heading off into the night What will the neighbours think Well you've had your entire life to be normal and what did that get you Probably not much or maybe it has good for you Its time to get positive its time to get crazy its time to impose your glorious indomitable will upon the world at large So dont plod through another day at your boring lame ass job surrounded by coworkers that you hate with a boss you want to shove face first into a filthy toilet bowl Put on your ski mask and grab the old baseball bat its time to go bash some scum Justice Brutality Ultra violence Heed the call Disclaimer Dont actually heed the call or you'll end up dead or imprisoned Reality check sorry Twisted Justice E. L. Jefferson, 2016-06-09 Dr Brian Fields is a renowned psychiatrist with a hideous past and dark secrets He is a man driven by an insatiable hunger and the need to manipulate others to do his bidding Among his patients are some of the most deranged sociopaths our society has created He cares for them and allows them to walk among us He protects them as long as they play by his rules Danielle Salley destroyed a woman's life by fire Father Catelli is a Catholic priest whose pedophilia knows no boundaries Coach Rogers conceals a personal life so shocking that he teeters on the brink of insanity every waking moment These individuals have left a trail of broken bodies and devastated lives in their wake Under Dr Field's care they will never be brought to trial to answer for their crimes but their victims scream for justice even if it's Twisted Justice

Enlightened Maggie Walsh, Cree Storm, 2019-10-02 Feeling overworked overwhelmed and underappreciated with having to set up everything for the new training facility on the island all by himself Heath has very little time to eat or even sleep forget getting to know his new found mate Because of his size Felix had always been underestimated and forced to prove himself He had hopes that starting a new life on his friend Savage's island would change all of that but this time is no different Having to deal with trainees who only see the size of his body and not the skill that lives within him as well as having to deal with finding his mate who is frustrated and angry it forces Felix to call on all his training to find inner peace But this time trying to prove himself Felix may have gone too far It's the only explanation as to why someone would try and kill him Will he be able to get out of this situation before he pays with his life Can Felix count on his mate to help Or will Heath be so consumed by what needs to be done and trying to make others happy that he doesn't even notice when his mate's life is in danger Hearings United States. Congress Senate, 1956 A Materialist Theory of Justice George Sotiropoulos, 2019-03-13 A Materialist Theory of Justice offers an innovative re-reading of justice that draws from diverse theoretical currents tracing in the process an age old tradition of critical thought Raising the banner of materialism against idealist conceptions justice is conceived as a multiple process which emerges in the dynamic reproduction and interaction of material bodies Mapping out its presence on non human fields justice is then shown to attain in human beings the status of a contentious problem and a productive desire which is related to the pursuit of a good life and is also determinative of human history The theorization enlarges the scope of the notion by incorporating a wide spectrum of phenomena from animal forms of sociality and activity to revolution empire civil war up to and including the riots that spread out in the world today In this way the book also manages to extend beyond the disciplinary boundaries of normative political theory within which theories of justice are usually logged and enter a productive discussion with various currents of critical thought

Vigilance Is Not Enough Mark M. Lowenthal, 2025-05-06 A broad and deep survey of American intelligence from before the Revolution to the present Every nation has an intelligence apparatus some means by which its top officials acquire needed information on sensitive issues But each nation does it differently influenced by its history its geographical conditions and its political traditions In this book Mark M Lowenthal examines the development of U S intelligence to explain how and why the United States went from having no intelligence service to speak of to being the world s predominant intelligence power almost overnight and he discusses the difficult choices involved in maintaining that dominance in a liberal democracy Lowenthal describes how the lack of a tradition of spycraft both hindered and helped American efforts to develop intelligence services during and after the Second World War He points to the political pragmatism leading to difficult choices with which most intelligence directors operated the constant tension between security and civil liberties in a constitutional democracy the tension between the need for secrecy and the accountability required for democratic governance and the way the growing importance of technology changed both the methods and the objectives of intelligence gathering Far more than simply an episodic history this book offers an analysis of why American intelligence developed as it did and what it has meant for the nation s and the world s politics

Sprague's Journal of Maine History John Francis Sprague,1913 Navigating Local Transitional Justice Laura S. Martin,2023-05-11 In post war Sierra Leone a range of transitional justice mechanisms were implemented to address experiences of conflict violence and human rights violations Much of the research on local transitional justice processes has focused on the work of organisations failing to acknowledge how individual and communal dynamics shape and are shaped by these programs Drawing on original fieldwork in Sierra Leone Laura S Martin moves beyond discussions measuring effectiveness and considers how people navigate their circumstances in conflict and post conflict societies Developing the idea of recognised and unrecognised transitional justice processes Martin uses Fambul Tok as an example of a recognised local transitional justice program and shows how ordinary Sierra Leoneans appropriated Fambul Tok s agenda for their own purposes Ultimately this book highlights the crucial role of agency and the diverse range of actors involved in transitional justice processes Justice as Martin powerfully argues is not something that happens to or for people but is enacted by individuals and communities

Royal Justice and the Making of the Tudor Commonwealth, 1485-1547

Laura Flannigan, 2023-11-16 The dawn of the Tudor regime is one of most recognisable periods of English history Yet the focus on its monarchs private lives and ministers constitutional reforms creates the impression that this age s major developments were isolated to halls of power far removed from the wider populace This book presents a more holistic vision of politics and society in late medieval and early modern England Delving into the rich but little studied archive of the royal Court of Requests it reconstructs collaborations between sovereigns and subjects on the formulation of an important governmental ideal justice Examining the institutional and social dimensions of this point of contact this study places ordinary people their knowledge and demands at the heart of a judicial revolution unfolding within the governments of Henry VII and Henry VIII Yet it also demonstrates that directing extraordinary royal justice into ordinary procedures created as many problems as it solved
