New York Times Editor's Choice 1924 George Mallory is arguably the last great British explorer having twice tried and failed to conquer Mount Everest. The mountain has haunted him but his attempts have captivated the hearts of a nation desperate to restore its former glory after World War I. Yet George has sworn to his wife Ruth that he will not mount a third attempt. He will remain with her and their three children instead of again challenging the unreachable peak. Then one afternoon Ruth reads a telegram addressed to George: Glad to have you aboard again. And with this one sentence the lives of the Mallorlys and the face of the nation are irrevocably changed. A beautifully rendered story about the need for redemption and the quest for glory. Above All Things is a captivating blend of historical fact and imaginative fiction. It is a heartbreaking tale of obsession, sacrifice and what we do for love and honor.
