Marges De La Philosophie:

Margins of Philosophy Jacques Derrida, 1982 In this densely imbricated volume Derrida pursues his devoted relentless dismantling of the philosophical tradition the tradition of Plato Kant Hegel Nietzsche Husserl Heidegger each dealt with in one or more of the essays There are essays too on linguistics Saussure Benveniste Austin and on the nature of metaphor White Mythology the latter with important implications for literary theory Derrida is fully in control of a dazzling stylistic register in this book a source of true illumination for those prepared to follow his arduous path Bass is a superb translator and annotator His notes on the multilingual allusions and puns are a great service Alexander Gelley Library Journal The Limits of Disenchantment Peter Dews, 1995 In this book Peter Dews explores some of the most urgent problems confronting contemporary European thought the status of the subject after postmodernism the ethical and existential dimensions of critical theory the encounter between psychoanalysis and philosophy and the possibilities of a non foundational metaphysical thinking His approach cuts across the hostile boundaries which that usually separate different theoretical traditions Lacan and the Frankfurt School are brought into dialogue as are deconstruction and Ricoeur's hermeneutics Current questions of language communication and critique are located in a broader context as the author ranges back over the history of modern philosophy from poststructuralism via Nietzsche to German romanticism and idealism A wide variety of issues is discussed in the book including Habermas's views on the ethics of nature Lacan's theory of Oedipal crisis the relation between writing and the lifeworld in Derrida and Schelling's philosophy of the Ages of the World The volume is also enlivened by forceful critiques of a range of currently influential thinkers including Michel Foucault Richard Rorty Rodolphe Gasch and Slavoj Žižek The World, the Text, and the Critic Edward W. Said, 1983 Said demonstrates that critical discourse has been strengthened by the writings of Derrida and Foucault and by influences like Marxism structuralism linguistics and psychoanalysis But he argues these forces have compelled literature to meet the requirements of a theory or system ignoring complex affiliations binding the texts to the world Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä, 2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkilä asserts that the implications of the work of art art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkilä shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art

Sufism and Deconstruction Ian Almond,2004-08-02 Examining a series of common features in the works of Derrida and the Sufism of Ibn Arabi considered to be one of the most influential figures in Islamic thought the author addresses the significant absence of attention on the relationship between Islam and Derrida Presenting a deconstructive perspective on Ibn Arabi the book s features include the opposition to systematizing representations of God reality the text a re emphasis on the radical unthinkability of God and the text a common conception of rational thought as restrictive commodifying and ultimately illusory and a subsequent appraisal of confusion as leading to a higher state of knowledge a positive belief in the infinite interpretability of the text a suspicion of representation and an awareness of its semantic futility along with a common welcoming affirmation of openness and errancy towards God and the text This book will be essential reading for advanced students and academics of Religious studies Arabic and Islamic studies and those interested in the work of Derrida and Ibn Arabi

Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones Irwin,2016-04-22 Michel Foucault refers to 1965 1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida s work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida s work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida s relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory

Heidegger and French Philosophy Tom Rockmore,2002-09-11 Martin Heidegger s impact on contemporary thought is important and controversial However in France the influence of this German philosopher is such that contemporary French thought cannot be properly understood without reference to Heidegger and his extraordinary influence Tom Rockmore examines the reception of Heidegger s thought in France He argues that in the period after the Second World War due to the peculiar nature of the humanist French Philosophical tradition Heidegger became the master thinker of French philosophy Perhaps most importantly he contends that this reception first as philosophical anthropology and later as postmetaphysical humanism is systematically mistaken

Archival Afterlives Laura Hughes,2023-11-15 A capacious analysis of a legendary intellectual friendship and the material legacies it left behind Over the course of their decades long friendship Hélène Cixous and Jacques Derrida assembled overlapping archives of written experiments and exchanges that document a shared interest in their literary afterlives In this incisive account Laura Hughes shows how pushing against the limits of writing and of life itself means not only imagining but manifesting a community of future readers Archival Afterlives Cixous Derrida and the Matter of Friendship examines the embodied nature of literary creation taking letters fragments notes and other ephemera as objects of critical analysis and care Combining close readings of key texts and previously unexamined archival materials Hughes traces critical connections between Cixous and Derrida between the theoretical and the autobiographical and between life writing and its limits In putting deconstruction into dialogue with new material analyses and archive studies Archival Afterlives positions this historical and intellectual relationship as a lens through which to reexamine the legacy of critical theory itself A History of the Humanities in the Modern University Sverre

Raffnsøe,2024-03-27 This book challenges commonplace assertions that the humanities are presently undergoing a severe crisis as a result of a longstanding decline Rather than hearkening to the widespread reactive call for a last ditch defense of the humanities under attack from an ungracious world this book fundamentally reverses the perspective and makes a plea for a different affirmative approach It contends that the humanities have incessantly arrived at critical turning points since they were first constituted in a form that remains recognizable today and assumed a leading role in knowledge organization with the establishment of the modern university around 1800 Assuming a historical perspective the monograph takes the human sciences back to their rightful place in the family tree of sciences and gives due recognition to their continuously decisive role in the production of new knowledge and the creation of new fields of knowledge Situating the ongoing gemmation of the humanities in a broader context this monograph also offers an encompassing introduction to the over all development of knowledge in the last two hundred years Starting with Derrida Sean Gaston,2010-06-15

How does one start with Derrida In this exciting and accessible book Sean Gaston presents a new kind of introduction to Jacques Derrida arguably the most important and influential European thinker of the last century Derrida claimed that However old I am I am on the threshold of reading Plato and Aristotle we need to read them again and again and again In Starting with Derrida Gaston introduces all Derrida s major works and ideas by tracing Derrida s reading and re reading of Plato Aristotle and Hegel throughout his writings Starting with Derrida argues for the importance of the relationship between philosophy literature and history in Derrida s work and addresses all the key concepts in Derrida s thought including his work on time and space being and the soul sensation and thought history and literature the concept and the name The book encourages the reader to enter Derrida s varied and complex legacy through the moments in Derrida s work that are concerned with the question of origins and beginnings By actively engaging with Derrida s ideas in this way Gaston reveals a new and highly original reading of Derrida s work and provides a useful introduction to his entire corpus This exciting new book is essential reading for students of philosophy and literary theory and indeed anyone interested in the work of this hugely important thinker

Derrida and Disinterest Sean Gaston,2005-04-14 Disinterest has been a major concept in Western philosophy since Descartes Its desirability and importance have been disputed and its definition reworked by such pivotal figures as

Nietzsche Shaftesbury Locke and Kant In this groundbreaking book Sean Gaston looks at the treatment of disinterest in the work of two major modern Continental philosophers Jacques Derrida and Emmanuel Levinas He identifies both as part of a tradition obscured since the eighteenth century that takes disinterest to be the opposite of self interest rather than the absence of all interest Such a tradition locates disinterest at the centre of thinking about ethics The book argues that disinterest plays a significant role in the philosophy of both thinkers and in the dialogue between their work In so doing it sheds new light on their respective contributions to moral and political philosophy Moreover it traces the history of disinterest in Western philosophy from Descartes to Derrida taking contributions and in the of major philosopher in both the analytic Anglo American and Continental traditions Locke Shaftesbury Hume Smith Nietzsche Kant Hegel Heidegger Derrida and Disinterest offers a new reading of Derrida a stimulating account of the role and importance of disinterest in the history of Western philosophy and a provocative and original contribution to Continental ethics God, the Gift, and

Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason and religion in opposition God the Gift and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages with Jean Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention givenness and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion New interpretations of Kant Heidegger Husserl and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe The result is that God the Gift and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent Contributors include John D Caputo John Dominic Crossan Jacques Derrida Robert Dodaro Richard Kearney Jean Luc Marion Frangoise Meltzer Michael J Scanlon Mark C Taylor David Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod The Impossible Mourning of Jacques Derrida Sean Gaston, 2010-07-15

At the time of his death in 2004 Jacques Derrida was arguably the most influential and the most controversial thinker in contemporary philosophy But how does one respond to the death of Jacques Derrida How does one mourn for Derrida who spent thirty years warning of the dangers of mourning while insisting that mourning is both unavoidable and impossible In this original and engaging response to Derrida's death Sean Gaston re-examines his own relationship with this great thinker and traces his own mourning while examining the very nature of mourning in Derrida's work Written in the immediate aftermath of Derrida's death this insightful and touching account offers a fresh analysis of a vital element of Derrida's thought and a genuine reflection on the implications of Derrida's death for how we will now address his work

Transcendental History Søren Gosvig Olesen, 2012-11-20 Transcendental History defends the claim that historicity is the very condition for human knowledge By explaining this thesis and by tracing its development from Kant and Hegel to

Derrida and Agamben this book enriches our understanding of the history of philosophy and contributes to epistemology and the philosophy of history Routledge Library Editions: Continental Philosophy Various,2021-06-23 This 11 volume set reissues a host of classic titles on Continental Philosophy Written by leading scholars in the field they form an essential reference resource that tackles philosophers and subjects such as Deleuze Derrida hermeneutics and phenomenology

Contagious Metaphor Peta Mitchell,2013-03-14 The metaphor of contagion pervades critical discourse across the humanities the medical sciences and the social sciences It appears in such terms as social contagion in psychology financial contagion in economics viral marketing in business and even cultural contagion in anthropology In the twenty first century contagion or thought contagion has become a byword for creativity and a fundamental process by which knowledge and ideas are communicated and taken up and resonates with Andr Siegfried s observation that there is a striking parallel between the spreading of germs and the spreading of ideas In Contagious Metaphor Peta Mitchell offers an innovative interdisciplinary study of the metaphor of contagion and its relationship to the workings of language Examining both metaphors of contagion and metaphor as contagion Contagious Metaphor suggests a framework through which the emergence and often epidemic like reproduction of metaphor can be better understood Derrida and the Political Richard Beardsworth,2013-04-15

Jacques Derrida is one of the most influential controversial and complex thinkers of our time This is the first book to consider the political implications of Derrida s philosophical project Is Philosophy Androcentric? Iddo Landau,2009-03-02 In Is Philosophy Androcentric Iddo Landau contends that none of the arguments for viewing philosophy as pervasively androcentric ultimately stand up to rational scrutiny while the ones that show it to be nonpervasively androcentric do not undermine it in the way that many critics have supposed Philosophy emerges in almost all of its parts he concludes as human rather than male and most parts and aspects of it need not be rejected or rewritten The Power of Language in the Making of International Law Stéphane Beaulac,2004-01-01 It is in the intellectual context of the new possibility of philosophy and the great new challenge facing philosophy that I place Stéphane Beaulac s important book His work takes advantage in particular of several of the hard earned lessons of twentieth century philosophy and social experience From the Foreword Exile and Post-1946 Haitian Literature Martin Munro,2013-08-15 Exile and Post 1946 Haitian Literature provides readers with an excellent introduction to recent Haitian literature one of the richest literary traditions in the Americas Martin Munro focuses on works written after 1946 a period in which exile has become the dominant theme in Haitian literature Using this notion of Haitian writing as a literature of exile Munro analyzes key novels by the most important figures of each generation of the past sixty years including Jacques Stephen Alexis Ren Depestre mile Ollivier Dany Laferrière and Edwidge Danticat
