Maternity and Reproductive Health in Asian Societies Pranee and Manderson Rice, 2016-01-31 This collection examines enduring and topical questions in sexual and reproductive health in a range of contemporary Asian cultures Beliefs and practices surrounding conception pregnancy birth and confinement are studies in culturally specific contexts in Japan Taiwan the Philippines Thailand Laos Cambodia and Indonesia Important and widely applicable health issues are also addressed including the perception and management of HIV AIDS experiences of menopause and the interaction of cosmopolitan western medicine with traditional healthcare

Reproduction, Childbearing and Motherhood Pranee Liamputtong, 2007 Although reproduction including infertility abortion childbearing and motherhood is a significant human experience its social meaning is shaped by the culture in which birthing women live Reproduction and its management therefore occur within the social and cultural context of the event As such reproductive beliefs and practices differ across social and cultural settings This book focuses on reproduction childbearing and motherhood In this volume the authors show that despite the modernisation of the society and advanced medical technology and knowledge in reproduction traditions continue to exert influence on how the women and their families manage their reproduction childbearing and motherhood in their societies

Violence Against Women in Asian Societies Linda Rae Bennett, Lenore Manderson, 2013-09-13 Violence against women is a violation of women's human rights and a priority public health issue It is endemic worldwide While much has been written about it in industrialized societies there has been relatively little attention given to such violence in Asian societies This book addresses the structural and interpersonal violences to which women are subject both under conditions of conflict and disruption and where civil society is relatively ordered It explores sexual violence and coercion domestic violence and violence within the broader community and the state avoiding sensationalised accounts of so called cultural practices in favour of nuanced explorations of violences as experienced in Cambodia Thailand Burma Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Bangladesh and India Women, Islam and Modernity Linda Rae Bennett, 2005 This book examines how the cultural context influences the way in which young single women approach courtship and issues of sexuality and reproductive health Coming of Age in South and Southeast Asia Lenore Manderson, Pranee Liamputtong Rice, 2020-11-25 In recent years first feminist considerations and now concerns with HIV Aids have led to new approaches to the study of sexuality The experience of puberty explorations with sexuality and courtship and the pressure to reproduce are a few of the human tensions central to this volume Childbirth Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2009-12-01 This book will explore the childbirth process through globally diverse perspectives in order to offer a broader context with which to think about birth We will address multiple rituals and management models surrounding the labor and birth process from communities across the globe Labor and birth are biocultural events that are managed in countless ways We are particularly interested in the notion of power Who controls the pregnancy and the birth Is it the hospital the doctor or the in laws and in which cultures does the mother have the control These decisions regarding place of birth position who receives the baby and even how the mother may or may not behave during the actual delivery are all part of the different ways that birth is conducted One chapter of the book will be devoted to midwives and other birth attendants There will also be chapters on the Evolution of Birth on Women s Birth Narratives and on Child Spacing and Breastfeeding This book will bring together global research conducted by professional anthropologists midwives and doctors who work closely with the individuals from the cultures they are writing about offering a unique perspective direct from the cultural group Trends in Midwifery Research Randell E. Balin, 2005 Midwifery is used to describe a number of different types of health practitioners other than doctors who provide prenatal care to expecting mothers attend the birth of the infant and provide postnatal care to the mother and infant Nurse midwives also provide gynaecological care to women of all ages Practitioners of midwifery are known as midwives a term used in reference to both women and men the term means with the woman Most are independent practitioners who work with obstetricians when the need arises They usually deal with normal births only but are trained to recognise and deal with deviation from the norm If something abnormal is discovered during prenatal care the client is sent to an obstetrician Other midwives will deal with abnormal births including breech birth There are two main divisions of modern midwifery in the United States nurse midwives and direct entry midwives In the United Kingdom midwives are practitioners in their own right and take responsibility for the antenatal intrapartum and immediate postnatal care of women In many parts of the world midwives deliver far more children than doctors This new book brings together the latest research on this ever changing field Daughters of Hariti Santi Rozario, Geoffrey Samuel, 2003-09-02 Hariti is the ancient Indian goddess of childbirth and women healers known at one time throughout South and Southeast Asia from India to Nepal and Bali Daughters of Hariti looks at her daughters today female midwives and healers in many different cultures across the region It also traces the transformation of childbirth in these cultures under the impact of Western biomedical technology national and international health policies and the wider factors of social and economic change The authors ask what can be done to improve the high rates of maternal and infant deaths and illnesses still associated with childbirth in most societies in this area and whether the wholesale replacement of indigenous knowledge by Western biomedical technology is necessarily a good thing Childrearing and Infant Care Issues Pranee

Liamputtong,2007 Child rearing practices in every society occur in accordance with the cultural norms of the society In most societies however child rearing practices share a common value the preservation of life and maintenance of the health and well being of a new born infant In this volume the authors bring together salient issues regarding cultural beliefs and practices and social issues regarding infant care and child rearing and infant feeding practices as well as early motherhood in different societies They show that traditional practices surrounding infant care and child rearing continue to live despite the fact that many societies have been modernised Women's Studies in Thailand Suwann? Sath???nan,2004

Handbook of Sensitive Research in the Social Sciences Pranee Liamputtong,2025-03-12 Conducting sensitive research in the social sciences requires meticulous attention to ethical considerations methodological rigour and emotional intelligence In this comprehensive Handbook Pranee Liamputtong brings together a diverse array of expert contributing authors to reflect on best practice and to discuss the growing attention to this type of research in the social sciences

Knowing Differently Pranee Liamputtong,Jean Rumbold,2008 This book explores the experiential research methods arts based reflexative collaborative that allow researchers to access their own and their participants knowing in richer ways It comprises chapters on innovative methods of research and analysis using literary forms performance and visual arts and through collaborative and interdisciplinary inquiry It offers methodological discussions and first person accounts of experiences in using these methods in order to fire the imagination of students and researchers Writers are drawn from various disciplines in the health and social sciences and the methodologies they discuss can be applied across these fields

Gender Relations in an Indonesian Society Nurul Ilmi Idrus,2016-04-08 Gender Relations in an Indonesian Society offers a comprehensive ethnography of Bugis marriage through an exploration of gender identity and sexuality in this bilateral highly competitive hierarchical society Nurul Ilmi Idrus considers the fundamental concept of siriq honour shame in relation to gender socialization courtship sex within marriage the regulation of sexuality between genders the importance of kinship and status in marriage and the dynamics of marriage divorce and reconciliation This analysis considers the practical combination of Islamic tenets with local adat custom customary law and the effect of contemporary Indonesia s national ideology on cultural practices specific to Bugis society How to Conduct Qualitative Research in Social Science

Pranee Liamputtong,2023-01-17 Explaining both the theoretical and practical aspects of doing qualitative research the book uses examples from real world research projects to emphasise how to conduct qualitative research in the social sciences Pranee Liamputtong draws together contributions covering qualitative research in cultural and medical anthropology sociology gender studies political science criminology demography economic sciences social work and education The Journey of Becoming a Mother Among Women in Northern Thailand Pranee Liamputtong, 2007-01-01 This book is the first book that deals with motherhood and reproduction in northern Thailand The book covers a wide range of issues relating to pregnancy birth postpartum practice motherhood infant feeding and infant care issues Eliciting Care Bo Kyeong Seo, 2020-06-23 In 2001 Thailand introduced universal health care reforms that have become some of the most celebrated in the world providing almost its entire population with health protection coverage However this remarkable implementation of health policy is not without its weaknesses Drawing on two years of fieldwork at a district hospital in northern Thailand Bo Kyeong Seo examines how people in marginal and dependent social positions negotiate the process of obtaining care Using the broader concept of elicitation Seo analyzes the social encounters and forces that shape caregivers These dynamics challenge dichotomies of subjugation and resistance consent and coercion and dependence and autonomy The intimate and moving stories at the core of Eliciting Care from patients and providers draw attention to a broader critically important phenomenon at the hospital level Seo's poignant ethnography engages with feminist theory on the ethics of care and in so doing makes a significant contribution to emerging work in the field of health policy and politics Sisters and Lovers Megan Jennaway, 2002-11-19 The Balinese devotion to their temples is both legendary and conspicuous but the ways in which they enshrine their innermost desires have long been hidden This ethnography draws back the veil by focusing on the romantic experiences of women in a rural village Punyanwangi in North Bali from adolescence to maturity Delving into the intensity of passion that exists just below the harmonious veneer of traditional patterns of courtship and marriage motherhood and connubial fidelity this book overturns Margaret Mead's assertions of passivity in Balinese social life Punyanwangi's proximity to a thriving tourist center allows Megan Jennaway to explore as well the striking gender disparities in the ways sexuality and desire are culturally mediated Aside from service work women are excluded from entering the tourist domain yet male sexual adventurism is expected and even encouraged The bodies of foreign women are thus invested with potent fantasies of exotic desire while those of local women are muted denied legitimate avenues of expression The author invokes Post Freudian and feminist concepts of sexuality to explain culturally specific psychiatric disorders to which Balinese women are prone interpreting them as expressions of frustrated desire She thus convincingly reveals Balinese society as anything but unemotional or stagnant Rather it is swept along by currents of emotionally charged desire By allowing key informants to tell their stories in their own voices and by skillfully interweaving fictionalized interludes the author gives us not only a rigorously researched ethnography but an intimate and fully realized portrait of Balinese women's innermost desires Doing Cross-Cultural Research Pranee Liamputtong, 2008-07-31 Conducting cross cultural research is rife with methodological ethical and moral challenges Researchers are challenged with many issues in carrying out their research with people in cross cultural arenas In this book I attempt to bring together salient issues for the conduct of culturally appropriate research The task of undertaking cross cultural research can present researchers with unique opportunities and yet dilemmas The book will provide some thought provoking points so that our research may proceed relatively well and yet ethical in our approach The subject of the book is on the ethical methodological political understanding and practical procedures in undertaking cross cultural research The book will bring readers through a series of questions who am I working with What ethical and moral considerations do I need to observe How should I conduct the research which is culturally appropriate to the needs of people I am researching How do I deal with language issues How will I negotiate access And what research methods should I apply to ensure a successful research process The book is intended for postgraduate students who are undertaking research as part of their degrees It is also intended for researchers who are working in cross cultural studies and in poor nations
