Haunts of the White City: Ghost Stories from the World's Fair, the Great Fire and Victorian Chicago Ursula Bielski, 2019 At the close of the nineteenth century Chicago offered the world a glimpse of humanity's most breathtaking possibilities and its most jaw dropping horrors Even as the White City emerged from the ashes of the Great Fire serial killers like H H Holmes stalked the sparkling new boulevards and tragic accidents plagued the factories slums and railroads that powered the churn of industrial innovation Demons mesmerists and birds of ill omen preyed on the unwary from the shadows Ship captains spoke to the dead while undertakers discovered reanimated corpses no longer requiring services From posh mansions built on massacre grounds to the drowned quarries of a forest preserve Ursula Bielski follows the dark undercurrents beneath the electric lights of the World's Fair Autobiography of a Homegirl Yvette Heyliger, 2001 Autobiography of A Homegirl is the bittersweet story of a black woman's epiphany when in a 24 hour stretch her child's father shows up with his white fiancée and in an historic coup the first black woman is crowned Miss America When the validity of this coup is challenged this emboldened mother goes to battle with both inner and out forces threatening her fragile self esteem Ultimately it is the belief system held by both blacks and whites that is on the front lines as issues of race color beauty and the origins of it all culminate in this psychological journey through the life of a black woman determined to give her daughter what she herself must recoup a healthy self esteem The coronation of the first black Miss America in 1983 serves as a backdrop for understanding ourselves and the complexities of American society brought sharply into focus by the guest appearance of that enduring indefatigable icon Barbie The play explores how entrenched standards of beauty have affected not just African American women but all women Comprehensive Study Guide Notes are included in this edition to supplement African American Studies Women's Studies Cultural Studies Theatre or Playwriting programs and courses in high schools colleges and universities The Best of Fiona Kidman's Short Stories Fiona Kidman, 2013-12-16 An engrossing collection of short stories from one of New Zealand's most distinguished writers Fiona Kidman first wrote short stories in the 1960s and has continued to publish them in books magazines and journals ever since Her style has evolved as she has explored different
