The Multiverse as Theory in Postmodern Speculative Fictional Narratives Angélica Cabrera Torrecilla,Francisco Sáez de Adana,2024-11-15 The Multiverse as Theory in Postmodern Speculative Fictional Narratives considers the concept of the multiverse beyond the immediacy of being merely an excuse or scenario for the development of stories instead positioning the multiverse as a theoretical method in which speculative fiction narratives can explore diverse issues to bridge ideas across cultural social and philosophical analysis Taking a cross cultural approach the book centres around the critical engagements that literary and media texts have with the representations of the multiverse beyond considering this subject as a mere rhetorical flourish or a passing fad A diverse and international team of authors engage with the multiverse from the point of view of other worlds understanding it not as the appearance of another independent world but as the collision of two or more different worlds into one of them From this key finding the multiverse encourages us to pay attention to the influence that fiction exerts on narratives and world building providing possible frameworks to rethink critical aspects of temporality space self society and culture in contemporary times This pioneering work will interest students and scholars working in the areas of media and cultural studies comparative literature popular culture studies speculative fiction and transmedia studies

Postmodern Journeys Joseph Natoli, 2001-01-01 Part memoir part cultural criticism this fast paced ride through the postmodern landscape of American popular culture explores how our responses to headline events and popular films help script the ways in which we imagine ourselves and the world around us

10pak Postmodern Bizarro Dan Piraro, 1991-06-01 Esthetic Experiments Marek Wojtaszek, 2014-08-26 Contemporary American landscape is wrought with ongoing processes and phenomena of technicization observable at the intersections of multiple layers of society This book brings to attention their cultural and political aspects emphasizing timeliness and necessity of academic intervention into and evaluation of their specificity and ramifications Presenting critical and analytical account of cultural narratives which define speak of and use diverse technologies of writing sound media representations surveillance war the texts compiled in this volume investigate the coalescence between technological production on the one hand and the textual on the other The idea of the book responds to the current academic appeal inspired by postmodern questioning of the foundations and realized most importantly by deconstruction to dismantle one of the constitutive pillars of Western civilization namely between techne and episteme In their interpretative mode the texts proceed largely experimentally bridging the gap between techne and episteme In doing so they endeavor to reformulate and complexify an experience of American culture The book aims to clarify and exemplify that the junction of text and technology implies that meanings are embedded in a material Consequently the publication introduces and popularizes the assumption that American cultural experience emerges as a genuine experiment of an esthetic nature

Theory and the Postmodern Text Paul Strohm, Insisting on the imaginative multiplicity of the text Strohm finds in theory an augmentation of interpretive possibilities an augmentation that sometimes requires respectful disagreement with what a work says or seems to want known about itself Coupled with this strategic disrespect is a new and amplified form of respect for the text as a meaning making system for its unruly power and its unpredictable effects in the world
