A Postmodern Cinema Mary Alemany-Galway, 2002 Alemany Galway media studies Massey University New Zealand engages with a trend in Canadian cinema that speaks for those who are marginalized by society She develops a rationale for a postmodern film theory to explore this trend and then focuses closely on four films Jesus of Montreal I've Heard the Mermaids Singing Family Viewing Life Classes Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Great Canadian Film Directors George Melnyk, 2007-06-15 Film directors articulate creative visions that provide insights into national cultures 18 essays highlight Canada's prominent Anglophone and Francophone filmmakers Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film Ian Aitken, 2013 This reference work explores the history of the documentary film It discusses individual films and filmmakers examines national and regional filmmaking traditions elaborates on production companies organizations festivals and institutions explores themes issues and representations and describes various styles techniques and technical issues Canadian Journal of Film Studies, 2003

Nationalist African Cinema Sada Niang, 2014-02-21 In the last decade a certain discomfort at times even impatience emerged among critics of African cinema The onset of such uneasiness can be traced back to the demise of the liberationist discourse to the questioning of the monolithic expression African cinema and finally to the critical exploration of various forms of visual narratives developing at a fast speed on the continent Nationalist African Cinema Legacy and Transformations reexamines African cinema of the nationalist era within the context of contemporary major Euro American film trends It argues that the aesthetic diversification of African cinema can be traced as far back as the nationalist era The Films of Denys Arcand Jim Leach, 2020-07-17 Denys Arcand has been making films in Quebec for nearly sixty years The Films of Denys Arcand illuminates his films in the context of the massive changes in Quebec society during that period It explores the work of a major director who has achieved international success and some key issues in film studies and Canadian studies

Woody Allen and Charlie Chaplin Jill Franks, 2019-06-19 The comic archetype of the Little Man a nobody who stands up to unfairness is central to the films of Woody Allen and Charlie Chaplin Portraying the alienation of life in an indifferent world with a mix of pathos irony and slapstick both adopted absurdist personas Chaplin's bumbling yet clever Tramp with his shabby clothes and Allen's fool with his metaphysical witticisms and proclivity to fall in love too quickly Both men were auteurs who managed to retain creative control of their work and achieve worldwide popularity Both suffered from scandals regarding their attraction to younger women Drawing on psychoanalysis and gender studies this book explores their films as barometers of their respective historical moments marking cultural shifts from modernism to postmodernism Mychael Danna's The Ice Storm Miguel Mera,2007-06-15 Ang Lee s The Ice Storm is a film of striking significance which achieved widespread critical acclaim for its well crafted and superbly acted study of suburban morality in 1970s America For the film composer Mychael Danna created one of the most distinctive scores of the 1990s one that constantly challenges perceptions of the form and function of film music In Mychael Danna s The Ice Storm A Film Score Guide Miguel Mera explores the music and sound Danna uses in his score investigating the narrative structural and aesthetic themes of the film and illustrating the techniques and stylistic features central to Danna s music Mera carefully examines the collaborative processes that influenced the score s development describing the significance of the composer s relationships with the director producer editor orchestrator and sound designers to the evolution of the score and demonstrating how the politics of filmmaking interact with creativity This seventh volume in Scarecrow s Film Score Guide series also includes a biography of Danna and a complete analysis of the full soundtrack considering the sound design pre existent pop songs and the specifically arranged song by David Bowie in conjunction with Danna s fascinating score making this essential reading for film music scholars and students

Unsettling Sights Corinn Columpar,2010-03-11 Unsettling Sights The Fourth World on Film examines the politics of representing Aboriginality in the process bringing frequently marginalized voices and visions issues and debates into the limelight Corinn Columpar uses film theory postcolonial theory and Indigenous theory to frame her discussion of the cinematic construction and transnational circulation of Aboriginality The result is a broad interdisciplinary analysis of how Indigeneity is represented in cinema supported by more than twenty rigorous and theoretically informed case studies of contemporary feature films by both First and Fourth World filmmakers in the United States Canada New Zealand and Australia Columpar relies heavily on textual analysis of the films but also explores contextual issues in filmmaking such as funding personnel modes of production and means of distribution Part one of Unsettling Sights focuses on contact narratives in which the Aboriginal subject is constructed in reactive response to a colonizing or invading presence Films such as The Piano and The Proposition wherein a white man goes native and The New World and Map of the Human Heart which approach contact from the perspective of an Aboriginal character serve as occasions to examine the ways in which Aboriginal identities are negotiated within dominant cinema Part two shifts the focus from contact narratives to films that seek to define Aboriginality on its own terms with reference to a lost homeland and or Indigenous practices of hi story telling while texts such as Once Were Warriors and Smoke Signals foster an engagement with issues of deterritorialization relocation and urbanization discussion of beDevil Atanarjuat and The Business of Fancydancing among others bring questions of voice translation and the relationship between cinema and oral tradition to the forefront Unsettling Sights is the first significant
