Poussin And The Poetics Of Painting:

Poussin and the Poetics of Painting Jonathan Unglaub, 2006-02-06 This book examines how Poussin cultivated a poetics of painting from the literary culture of his own time and especially through his response to the work of Torquato Tasso Tasso's poetic discourses were the most important source for Poussin's theory of painting Poussin does not merely illustrate Tasso's verse but cultivates pictorial means to refashion the poet's metaphors of desire Offering new interpretations of these works this book also investigates Poussin's larger literary culture and how this context illuminates the artist's response to contemporary poetic texts especially in his mythological paintings Poussin's Paintings David Carrier, 1993 Ekphrastic Image-making in Early Modern Europe, 1500-1700 Arthur J. DiFuria, Walter Melion, 2021-12-20 In epideictic oratory ekphrasis is typically identified as an advanced rhetorical exercise that verbally reproduces the experience of viewing a person place or thing more specifically it often purports to replicate the experience of viewing a work of art Not only what was seen but also how it was beheld and the emotions attendant upon first viewing it are implicitly construed as recoverable indeed reproducible This volume examines how and why many early modern pictures operate in an ekphrastic mode such pictures claim to reconstitute works of art that solely survived in the textual form of an ekphrasis or they invite the beholder to respond to a picture in the way s he responds to a stirring verbal image or they call attention to their status as an image in the way that ekphrasis as a rhetorical figure makes one conscious of the process of image making or finally they foreground the artist's or the viewer's agency in the way that the rhetor or auditor is adduced as agent of the image being verbally produced Contributors Carol Elaine Barbour Ivana Bi ak Letha Ch ien James Clifton Teresa Clifton Karl Enenkel Arthur DiFuria Christopher Heuer Barbara Kaminska Annie Maloney Annie McEwen Walter Melion Lars Cyril N rgaard Dawn Odell April Oettinger Shelley Perlove Stephanie Porras Femke Speelberg Caecilie Weissert Elliott Wise and Steffen Zierholz Poussin's Women Troy Thomas, 2025-10-01 Poussin's Women Sex and Gender in the Artist's Works examines the paintings and drawings of the well known seventeenth century French painter Nicolas Poussin 1594 1665 from a gender studies perspective focusing on a critical analysis of his representations of women The book's thematic chapters investigate Poussin's women in their roles as predators as lustful or the objects of lust as lovers killers victims heroines or models of virtue Poussin's paintings reflect issues of gender within his social situation as he consciously or unconsciously articulated its conflicts and assumptions A gender studies approach brings to light new critical insights that illuminate how the artist represented women both positively and negatively within the framework in his seventeenth century culture This book covers the artist's works from Classical mythology Roman history Tasso and the Bible It serves as a good overview of Poussin as an artist discussing the latest research and including new interpretations of his major works Piety and Plague Franco Mormando, Thomas Worcester, 2007-10-01 Plague was one of the enduring facts of everyday life on the European continent from earliest antiquity through the first decades of the eighteenth century It represents one of the most important influences on the development of Europe's society and culture. In order to understand the changing circumstances of the political, economic, ecclesiastical, artistic, and social history of that continent, it is important to understand epidemic disease and society's response to it. To date, the largest portion of scholarship about plague has focused on its political, economic, demographic, and medical aspects. This interdisciplinary volume offers greater coverage of the religious and the psychological dimensions of plague and of European society's response to it through many centuries and over a wide geographical terrain including Byzantium. This research draws extensively upon a wealth of primary sources, both printed and painted, and includes ample bibliographical reference to the most important secondary sources, providing much new insight into how generations of Europeans responded to this dread disease. Tasso's art and afterlives Jason Lawrence, 2017-07-15

This interdisciplinary study examines the literary, artistic, and biographical afterlives in England of the great sixteenth-century Italian poet Torquato Tasso, from before his death to the end of the nineteenth century. Focusing on the lasting impact of his once famous poem Gerusalemme liberata across a spectrum of arts, it aims to stimulate a revival of interest in a neglected poetic masterpiece and its author. Some fifty years after the last account of the poet in English, the influence of Tasso's poem is traced and analysed in the literary works of Spenser, Milton, Shakespeare, and Daniel, and consideration is also given to its impact on the visual and musical arts in England, in works by Van Dyck, Poussin, and Handel. A second strand focuses on English responses to Tasso's troubled life in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, exemplified in Byron's memorable impersonation of the poet's voice in The Lament of Tasso.

Painting as a Way of Life Richard Neer, 2025-03-19 Neer uncovers a key moment in the history of early modern art when painting was understood to be a tool for self-transformation and for living a philosophical life. In this wide-ranging study, Richard Neer shows how French painters of the seventeenth century developed radically new ways to connect art, perception, and ethics. Cutting across traditional boundaries of classicism and realism, Neer addresses four case studies: Nicolas Poussin, renowned for marrying ancient philosophy and narrative painting; Louise Moillon, who pioneered French still life in the 1630s; Georges de La Tour, a painter of intense and introspective nocturnes; and the Brothers Le Nain, specialists in genre and portraiture who inspired Courbet, Manet, and other painters of modern life. Setting these artists in dialogue with Montaigne, Descartes, Pascal, and others, ranging from the studios of Rome to the streets of Paris, this book provides fresh accounts of essential artworks, some well known, others neglected, and new ways to approach the relation of art, theory, and daily life.

Re-inventing Ovid's Metamorphoses, 2020-10-26 This volume explores early modern recreations of myths from Ovid's immensely popular Metamorphoses, focusing on the creative ingenuity of artists and writers and on the peculiarities of the various media that were applied. The contributors try to tease out what pictorial devices, perspectives, and interpretative markers were used that do not occur in the original text of the Metamorphoses, what aspects were brought to the fore or emphasized, and how these are to be explained. Expounding the whatabouts of these differences, the contributors discuss the underlying literary and artistic problems, challenges, principles, and techniques the requirements of the various literary and artistic media and the role of the cultural ideological religious and gendered contexts in which these recreations were produced Contributors are Noam Andrews Claudia Cieri Via Daniel Dornhofer Leonie Drees Drylie Karl A E Enenkel Daniel Fulco Barbara Hryszko Gerlinde Huber Rebenich Jan L de Jong Andrea Lozano V squez Sabine L tkemeyer Morgan J Macey Kerstin Maria Pahl Susanne Scholz Robert Seidel and Patricia Zalamea Poussin, Tasso, and the Poetics of Painting with an Excursus, Ancient Painting and Baroque Elocution Jonathan Unglaub,1999 Historical Dictionary of Baroque Art and Architecture Lilian H. Poetics ,2024-12-16 It is hardly possible to read Aristotle s Poetics today without acknowledging the influence of its reception history our understanding of Aristotle s poetical theory has been reshaped in past decades thanks to a reappraisal of long held prejudices whose history may be no less fascinating to explore than the text of the Poetics itself To grasp what the Poetics has to say therefore involves questioning what its many readers have been looking after What was the Poetics used for And what are we using it for now Into which bodies of texts has it been incorporated and put into perspective How have these uses and contexts influenced past readings of the Poetics and how do they still inform the way we read it

Roman Charity Jutta Gisela Sperling, 2016-10-15 Roman Charity investigates the iconography of the breastfeeding daughter from the perspective of queer sexuality and erotic maternity The volume explores the popularity of a topic that appealed to early modern observers for its eroticizing shock value its ironic take on the concept of Catholic charity and its implied critique of patriarchal power structures It analyses why early modern viewers found an incestuous adult

Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel s two acclaimed books L Oeil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies Part II introduces Louvel s s typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace focal range synesthesia and rhythm and speed The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts images and the intersections between the two The Sublime Timothy M. Costelloe, 2012-07-30 This volume offers readers a unique and comprehensive overview of different theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives on the sublime Caravaggio David M. Stone, 2017-07-05 As this collection of essays makes clear the paths to grasping the complexity of Caravaggio's art are multiple and variable. Art historians from the UK and North America offer new or recently updated interpretations of the works of seventeenth-century Italian painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio and of his many followers known as the Caravaggisti. The volume deals with all the major aspects of Caravaggio's paintings: technique, creative process, religious context, innovations in pictorial genre and narrative, market strategies, biography, patronage, reception, and new hermeneutical trends. The concluding section tackles the essential question of Caravaggio's legacy and the production of his followers, not only in terms of style but from some highly innovative strategies: concettismo, art marketing, and the price of pictures, self-fashioning, and biography, and the concept of emulation.
