Power And Innocence A Search For The Sources Of Violence:

Power and Innocence: A Search for the Sources of Violence Rollo May, 1998-03-17 Stressing the positive creative aspects of power and innocence Rollo May offers a way of thinking about the problems of contemporary society Rollo May defines power as the ability to cause or prevent change innocence on the other hand is the conscious divesting of one's power to make it seem a virtuous form of powerlessness that Dr May sees as particularly American in nature From these basic concepts he suggests a new ethic that sees power as the basis for both human goodness and evil Dr May discusses five levels of power's potential in each of us the infant's power to be self affirmation the ability to survive with self esteem self assertion which develops when self affirmation is blocked aggression a reaction to thwarted assertion and finally violence when reason and persuasion are ineffective

Towards a Critical Victimology Ezzat A. Fattah, 2016-07-27 Towards a Critical Victimology offers a serious challenge to the law and order perspective on victims rights and the false contest that is usually created between those rights and the rights of offenders It sheds light on the way victim initiatives emerged the timing of those initiatives their seemingly ulterior motives and the political interests they are meant to serve

Leadership and Change Management Annabel Beerel, 2009-06-04 Electronic Inspection Copy available for instructors here Recognizing and responding to change is the oxygen of life for an organization and leadership is fundamentally about focusing organizations on these new realities Leadership and Change Management provides the reader with a practical real world understanding of several dimensions of leadership that are usually neglected in management textbooks such as the nature of new realities and how managers can improve their insight into them and how leaders can identify and overcome resistance to change Drawing on a wide range of insightful global real life case studies to capture the imagination the topics covered include critical systems thinking philosophies of leadership group dynamics authority ethics personal character and the psychology of leadership This comprehensive text will be of interest to anyone looking for a more thoughtful engagement with the key issues in leadership and change management

Visions of Britain, 1730-1830 Sebastian Mitchell, 2013-05-14 This is a revisionist study of the literary and visual representation of the nation in the century following the formation of the British state It argues that the most engaging accounts of Great Britain subject their imagery to sustained artistic pressure threatening to dismantle the national vision at the moment of its construction

Abuse and Cover-Up Arbuckle, Gerald A., 2019-09-26 Written for readers deeply concerned for the future of the church this book seeks to answer two questions Why is the culture of the Catholic Church despite Vatican II's emphasis on collegiality and transparency still prone to covering up abuses of power How can this culture change in order to move forward A timely book on the sex abuse crisis by a scholar who is adept at weaving insights from the social sciences into a framework of practical theology

Healing Violent Men David J. Livingston, Violence forgiveness and healing Domestic violence is a widespread though largely invisible problem often exacerbated by the pastoral urge to keep the family together at all costs Yet if that is not a solution how should the church relate to batterers I believe that the Christian community if it is to be genuinely a community of healing and hope must attend to both the victims and the perpetrators of domestic violence says David Livingston Addressing the complex phenomenon of intimate violence against wives lovers and children Livingston profiles batterers and battering and traces it to larger cultural pathologies He explores the ambiguous role of religion and then offers practical advice of pastoral and programmatic efforts to embrace simultaneously the twin Christian imperatives of forgiveness and responsibility 101

Constructions Wendy C. Hamblet, 2008-03-26 Savage Constructions composes a critical examination of the popular assumption that violence is an essential quality of certain ethnic or racial populations Wendy Hamblet challenges the supposition all too common in the West that darker skinned peoples are inherently violent To challenge this myth Savage Constructions offers a theory of subjectivity transformed by historical violence It rethinks how African peoples once living in simple neighborly communities more democratic and egalitarian than modern states have come to the condition of abjection misery and fierce aggression in which we find them today This rethinking she argues that Western affluence is built upon slaughter slavery and colonial oppression and suggests that prosperous nations of the West owe a great debt to the societies they trampled en route to their prosperity This work is important because Newly independent nations of Africa are a primary example of a much vaster phenomenon Western powers continue to sack poorer weaker countries through covert intrigue outright war crippling debts and unfair global labor and trade policies The violences continue because many Westerners still harbor metaphysical assumptions about the supremacy of white Christians over less civilized darker skinned peoples These assumptions depress the possibilities of ethnic minorities within the West continue to influence foreign policy and frustrate global relations and ensure that the overwhelming collateral damage of modern wars is color conscious Savage Constructions will appeal to all levels of scholars and students The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America

John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From 1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history Confessions Emma Woodley, 2010-02-19 This edited collection draws on a range of disciplines in exploring the central place of narrative in social inquiry and understanding the ethical life It provides scholarly and practical insights into the rewards and potential pitfalls of working in and with narrative It offers readers a broad range of carefully considered examples the use of art in enhancing insight into the plights of rural communities in Australia the use of illness narratives in medical education applying narratives of torture survivors and torturers in shaping humane political response and policy in the face of terrorism and the place of the music as a vehicle of story telling and moral growth This volume illuminates the explicit links between the importance of narrative that is the telling of stories to create shape and meaning in our lives and ethical engagement so critical to the achievement of a good life Radical Ecopsychology, Second Edition Andy Fisher, 2013-01-01 Expanded new edition of a classic examination of the psychological roots of our ecological crisis Born Only Once, Third Edition Conrad W. Baars, 2016-03-30 This timeless classic Born Only Once describes the emotional turmoil of many persons and offers hope for healing through the author's compassionate understanding of their deepest wounds Psychiatrist Conrad Baars discusses this inner unrest in terms of the fundamental human need for unconditional love or affirmation When children have been denied the gift of themselves through affirmation to a greater or lesser degree they continue to look for this unconditional love and later as adults suffer from deep feelings of inferiority inadequacy uncertainty and insecurity as well as having difficulty relating to others Baars describes how authentic affirmation strengthens a person to feel secure and happy in himself able to confront the world and to relate to others with confidence Affirmation is what unaffirmed persons and those with Emotional Deprivation Disorder need to feel at peace strong and secure in their own identity Baars lists many things that unaffirmed persons can do to help themselves but it is hoped that the reader will be moved to lead an authentically affirming life by being open to the goodness of persons things nature ideas etc This simple way of being of openness to being moved can bring peace and resolve difficulties Growing a Healing Ministry Kathy Edmison, 2004 This book is based directly on the experience and wisdom of those who have established energy touch healing ministries in congregational settings Library Book Catalog United States.
