Michigan Farmer, 1929 Guide Book and Standard American Rabbit and Cavy Breeders Association, Inc, 1939 Fur, Feather, & Fin Series: The Rabbit. Natural history, by James Edmund Harting; cookery, by Alexander Innes Shand Alfred Edward Thomas Watson, 1898 The Handbook of New Zealand Mammals

Carolyn King, David Forsyth, 2021-01-20 The Handbook of New Zealand Mammals is the only definitive reference on all the land breeding mammals recorded in the New Zealand region including the New Zealand sector of Antarctica. It lists 65 species including native and exotic wild and feral living and extinct residents, vagrants and failed introductions. It describes their history, biology and ecology and brings together comprehensive and detailed information gathered from widely scattered or previously unpublished sources. The description of each species is arranged under standardised headings for easy reference. Because the only native land breeding mammals in New Zealand are bats and seals, the great majority of the modern mammal fauna comprises introduced species whose arrival has had profound effects both for themselves and for the native fauna and flora. The book details changes in numbers and distribution for the native species and for the arrivals; it summarises changes in habitat, diet, numbers and size in comparison with their ancestral stocks and some of the problems they present to resource managers. For this third edition, the text and references have been completely updated and reorganised into Family chapters. The colour section includes 14 pages of artwork showing all the species described and their main variations, plus two pages of maps.

More adventure than bumps. Extraordinary Pillow Guy is a Texan pillow who tells tall tales. He stretches the truth to unbelievable lengths. This one has a few bumps. There are two stories in this title. Tastie Frees is an action story that has a few bumps. The Frees family is being hunted and eight year old Tastie has been left in a panic room. Desert Soldiers is a poem about the unexpected. More excitement than bumps. Spots is about twin leopards being returned to the wild and what happens. Expect a few bumps. A Cyclical Model of Literacy Learning Adrienne Minnery, Antony T. Smith, 2024 This book introduces the Cycle of Responsibility (COR) model, the next step in the evolution of the Gradual Release of Responsibility model which has been a conceptual mainstay of literacy education for decades. This new model shifts the current linear model to a cyclical process of multifaceted interactions that better reflect the complexities of early literacy and with an emphasis on constructing knowledge together in the context of vibrant learning communities. Focused on reading, writing and word study in the primary grades, the COR is put into motion through five key motivators: challenge, creativity, collaboration, choice and independence. Vignettes demonstrate how to enact COR in classroom contexts This practical resource is based on the authors shared research and teaching experiences in employing the COR to empower children as literacy learners and teachers as agents of impactful instruction
