

A scenic landscape at sunrise or sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. In the background, there are rolling hills and mountains. A winding road or path leads from the foreground into the distance. The foreground features a grassy field with some bushes and a small fence made of wooden posts. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and inspiring.

Michael Herman

Race To The Swift:

Race to the Swift Jung-en Woo, Meredith Woo-Cumings, 1991 A comprehensive and original account of the rise of Korea's developmental state Race to the Swift by Jung en Woo argues that Korea's industrial growth is neither a miracle nor a cultural mystery but the outcome of a previously misunderstood political economy Race to the Swift, 1986 Race to the Swift Richard E. Simpkin, 1985 This reprint of the 1994 edition looks at the possibilities for warfare in the 21st century

Race To The Swift, Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious Intelligence Power in Peace and War Michael Herman, 1996-10-13 Intelligence services form an important but controversial part of the modern state Drawing mainly on British and American examples this book provides an analytic framework for understanding the intelligence community and assessing its value Michael Herman a former senior British Intelligence officer describes the various components of intelligence discusses what intelligence is for considers issues of accuracy evaluation and efficiency and makes recommendations for the future of intelligence in the post Cold War world Race to the Swift Jung-en Woo, 1991 The Race to 270 Daron R. Shaw, 2008-09-15 The Electoral College has played an important role in presidential politics since our nation's founding but surprisingly little information exists about precisely how it affects campaign strategy Daron R Shaw a scholar who also worked as a strategist in both Bush Cheney campaigns has written the first book to go inside the past two presidential elections and reveal how the race to 270 was won and lost Shaw's nonpartisan study lays out how both the Democrats and the Republicans developed strategies to win decisive electoral votes by targeting specific states and media markets Drawing on his own experience with Republican battle plans candidate schedules and advertising purchases plus key contacts in the Gore and Kerry camps Shaw goes on to show that both sides used information on weekly shifts in candidate support to reallocate media buys and schedule appearances Most importantly he uses strikingly original research to prove that these carefully constructed plans significantly affected voters preferences and opinions not in huge numbers but enough to shift critical votes in key battlegrounds Bridging the gap between those who study campaigns and those who conduct them The Race to 270 will provide political scientists and practitioners alike with fresh insights about the new strategies that stem from one of our oldest institutions

Running The Race To Win DARREN T. CARTER,2012-04-18 Running The Race To Win is a book about developing a deeper understanding of discipleship and developing a deeper relationship with Christ It does not matter if you are a businessperson schoolteacher nurse athlete computer technician student etc you are called to be a disciple and to make disciples The contemporary church has many times neglected the original command laid down by Christ Himself and for this reason discipleship seems to be a radical message However for the church to fulfill its mission we must once again return to this radical call The word radical comes from the Latin word radix meaning the root of things Radical discipleship is simply a call to return to biblical foundations Biblical foundations are at the root of discipleship since a disciple is one who has been instructed in the foundational teachings of Christ

Order Out Of Chaos Captain Robert G. Walters,2015-11-06 The U S Army s current AirLand battle doctrine emphasizes maneuver warfare Coupled to this revision in doctrine there has been no major update to U S command and control philosophy The German Army of World War II also operated under a maneuver warfare doctrine Its use of Auftragstaktik a command and control philosophy provides valuable lessons for our army from an historical perspective This monograph presents an anatomy of the Chir River battles from a command and control as opposed to a tactical perspective The brilliant defense of the German weak positions against a numerically superior Soviet attacker provides an interesting parallel to the current situation faced by NATO units in Central Europe Auftragstaktik should serve well as a foundation from which the U S Army can develop a coherent command and control philosophy that complements the AirLand battle doctrine

Korea at the Center Charles K. Armstrong, 2006 Illuminating the role of the Korean peninsula in three modern historical periods this volume offers a fresh appraisal of Korea as the key to the coalescence of a broad open Northeast Asian regionalism in the twenty fifth century A Race to Freedom David Williams, 2018-04-28 Mira Slovak was born in Czechoslovakia and endured both the Nazi occupation and the brutal Russian liberation He joined the Czech Air force rising to Captain by the age of 21 When he could no longer tolerate life under the Communists he hijacked an airliner and flew across the Iron Curtain to freedom He went to work for the CIA and was eventually sent to the US and given a job as Bill Boeing Jr's personal pilot When Boeing began racing Hydroplanes in the late 1950s Mira was his driver During his ten year career as a hydroplane driver he won many races and two national championships He met Presidents and dated movie starlets After a serious hydroplane accident Slovak switched to airplanes where he won another national championship When he retired from racing he became a stunt pilot and public speaker and talked about the value of freedom and how we should value it above everything else He outlasted Communism and when it collapsed in 1990 he returned to his home only to realize that his true home was and always would be the United States Parameters ,1985 Race Ivan Hannaford, 1996 But he also finds the first traces of modern ideas of race and the protoscences of late medieval cabalism and hermeticism Following that trail forward he describes the establishment of modern scientific and philosophical notions of race in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and shows how those notions became popular and pervasive even among those who claim to be nonracist State-Directed Development Atul Kohli, 2004-08-30 Why have some developing country states been more successful at facilitating industrialization than others An answer to this question is developed by focusing both on patterns of state construction and intervention aimed at promoting industrialization Four countries are analyzed in detail South Korea Brazil India and Nigeria over the twentieth century The states in these countries varied from cohesive capitalist mainly in Korea through fragmented multiclass mainly in India to neo patrimonial mainly in Nigeria It is argued that cohesive capitalist states have been most effective at promoting industrialization and neo patrimonial states the least The performance of fragmented multiclass states falls somewhere in the middle After explaining in detail as to why this should be so the study traces the origins of these different state types historically emphasizing the role of different types of colonialisms in the process of state construction in the developing world The Operational Art Bloomsbury Publishing, 1996-09-24 This work considers the modern antecedents and evolution of the operational art in military thought and practice in both peace and wartime This theme is developed over time and across military cultures A comparative framework allows the treatment of the overall theme by examining the concept of the operational art in the context of different nationalities different military organizations and different societies This study situates the current operational art in its historical context
