Grand Central Question Abdu H. Murray, 2014-03-04 All religions and worldviews seek to answer the fundamental questions of human existence But the main worldviews each tend to stress a different issue Abdu Murray a lawyer and former Muslim digs deeply into secular humanism pantheism and theism specifically in the form of Islam comparing each to the central message of Jesus What is a Parent Andrew Bainham, Shelley Day Sclater, Martin Richards, 1999-07-01 This collection of essays is the product of a series of seminars held at the University of Cambridge in 1998 under the auspices of the newly formed Cambridge Socio Legal Group The book presents an interdisciplinary exploration of the nature of parenthood and its various manifestations in contemporary society It is divided into three sections dealing respectively with defining parenthood new issues in contemporary parenting and parenting post divorce Each contributor addresses the central question What is a Parent from the perspective of his or her own discipline thus bringing together ideas about parents derived from law sociology psychology biology and criminology Despite the familiar and apparently obvious answer to this question the notion of parent emerges from the analysis as a contested concept Definitions are various and fluid parenting practices are by no means fixed and ideologies which frame who parents are and what they do are subject to disruptions from several quarters In short the essays in this book show the ways in which parent like child is a term with a shifting meaning and parenthood refers to a fluid set of social practices which are historically and culturally situated Contributors Andrew Bainham Carol Brayne Stuart Bridge Rachel Cook Shelley Day Sclater Margaret Ely Loraine Gelsthorpe Susan Golombok Jack Goody Jonathan Herring Felicia Huppert Allison James Martin Johnson Bridget Lindley Mavis Maclean Juliet Mitchell Ros Pickford Martin Richards Wendy Solomou Candida Yates The Constitutional Parent Jeffrey Shulman, 2014-07-01 In this bold and timely work law professor Jeffrey Shulman argues that the United States Constitution does not protect a fundamental right to parent Based on a rigorous reconsideration of the historical record Shulman challenges the notion held by academics and the general public alike that parental rights have a long standing legal pedigree What is deeply rooted in our legal tradition and social conscience Shulman demonstrates is the idea that the state entrusts parents with custody of the child and it does so only as long as parents meet their fiduciary duty to serve the developmental needs of the child Shulman s illuminating account of American legal history is of more than academic interest If once again we treat parenting as a delegated responsibility as a sacred trust not a sacred right we will not all reach the same legal prescriptions but we might be more willing to consider how time honored principles of family law can effectively accommodate the evolving interests of parent child and state Ethical English Mark A. Pike, 2014-12-18 Ethical English addresses the ethos of English teaching and draws attention to its spirit and fundamental character identifying the features that English teaching must exhibit if it is to continue to sustain us morally as a liberal art and to provide the learners of increasingly plural societies with a broad ethical education Mark A Pike provides practical examples from the classroom including assessment and teaching knitting these with an ethical critique of practice stimulating readers to engage in critical reflection concerning the teaching of English This book not only shows readers how to teach English but also helps them to critically evaluate the ethics of the practice of English teaching CLAT UG Exam Preparation Book |
