Realism and Allegory in the Early Fiction of Mao Tun Youshi Zhen, 1986 Realism and Allegory in the Early Fiction of Mao Tun Youshi Zhen, 1986 The Limits of Realism Marston Anderson, 2024-07-26 Chinese intellectuals of the early twentieth century were attracted to realism primarily as a tool for social regeneration Realism encouraged writers to adopt the stance of the independent cultural critic and drew into the compass of serious literature the disenfranchised others of Chinese society As historical pressures forced new ideological commitments in the late twenties and thirties however writers grew suspicious both of the individualism implicit in the realist model and of the often superficial nature of the sympathies that their fiction evoked in the middle class Anderson argues that realism must be defined negatively as a discourse of limitations and is of minimal utility in the Chinese search for political and cultural empowerment He shows how hesitations about the realist model affect the fiction of four representative authors Lu Xun Ye Shaojun Mao Dun and Zhang Tianyi He also considers the demise of critical realism in the face of a new collectivist understanding of Chinese reality This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-Hua Ying, 2010 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2021-11-15 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature The Edge of Knowing Roy Bing Chan, 2016-11-01 Reveals the historical impact of dream rhetoric on Chinese modernity and nation building Realism and the rhetoric of dreams intersected in modern Chinese literature from the May
