Reality And Shadows:

Shadows of Being Marko Uršič, 2019-01-15 This book is a study of the phenomena of shadows meant in a broader sense as symbolic forms The shadow is a less real surface replica of some more real form From the Platonic point of view empirical objects are shadows of ideas while from the modern natural point of view shadows are seen and conceived primarily as weaker replicas of bodies which give evidence of their material reality In the first three essays here several topics from the Ancient Egypt and Greece to modern arts and sciences are considered while in the fourth essay the contemporary virtual reality cyber technology and the internet as our parallel shadow world are discussed from the philosophical point of view The main and innovative point of this book is the connection between the meaning of shadows in philosophy and art on the one hand and their role in modern science and technology on the other The book will appeal to a wide span of readers from academic circles students and artists to the general reader interested in the humanities especially in philosophy and art

Reality Simulation in Science Fiction Literature, Film and Television Heather Duerre Humann, 2019-08-27 In recent decades science fiction in both print and visual media has produced an outpouring of story lines that feature forms of simulated reality These depictions appear with such frequency that fictional portrayals of simulated worlds have become a popular sci fi trope one that prompts timeless questions about the nature of reality while also tapping into contemporary debates about emerging technologies In combination with tech driven tensions this study shows that our collective sense of living in politically uncertain times also propels the popularity of these story lines Because of the kinds of questions they raise and the cultural anxieties they provoke these fictional representations provide a window into contemporary culture and demonstrate how we are reassessing our own reality

Irrevocable Alphonso Lingis, 2018-11-13 A lyrical and personal philosophical inquiry into the weight of reality the weight of things and the weight of life itself Drawing from philosophy anthropology psychology religion and science Alphonso Lingis seeks to uncover what in our reality escapes our attempts at measuring and categorizing Writing as much from his own experiences as from his longstanding engagement with phenomenology and existentialism Irrevocable studies the world in which shadows reflections halos and reverberations count as much as the carpentry of things Whether describing religious art and ritual suffering war and disease the pleasures of love the wonders of nature archaeological findings surfing volcanoes or jellyfish Lingis writes with equal measures of rigor and abandon about the vicissitudes of our practices and beliefs Knowing that birth the essential encounters in our lives crippling diseases and accidents and even death are all determined by chance how do we recognize and understand such chance After facing tragedies what makes it possible to live on while recognizing our irrevocable losses Lingis's investigations are accompanied by his own vivid photographs from around the world Balancing the local and the global and ranging across vast expanses of culture and time Irrevocable sounds the depths of both our passions and our impassioned bodies and minds

Art & Its Shadow Mario Perniola, 2004-05-01 Art and its Shadow is an extraordinary analysis of the state and meaning of contemporary art and film Ranging across the work of Andy Warhol cyberpunk Wim Wenders Derek Jarman thinking on difference and the possibility of a philosophical cinema Mario Perniola examines the latest and most disturbing tendencies in art Perniola explores how art notably in posthumanism psychotic realism and extreme art continues to survive despite the hype of the art market and the world of mass communication and reproduction He argues that the meaning of art in the modern world no longer lies in aesthetic value above the art work nor in popular taste below the art work but beside the artwork in the shadow created by both the art establishment and the world of mass communications In this shadow is what is left out of account by both market and mass media the difficulty of art a knowledge that can never be fully revealed and a new aesthetic future

The Semiotics of Light and Shadows Piotr Sadowski, 2017-12-28 Lighting and shadows are used within a range of art forms to create aesthetic effects Piotr Sadowski's study of light and shadow in Weimar cinema and contemporaneous visual arts is underpinned by the evolutionary semiotic theories of indexicality and iconicity These theories explain the unique communicative and emotive power of light and shadow when used in contemporary indexical media including the shadow theatre silhouette portraits camera obscura photography and film In particular Sadowski highlights the aesthetic and emotional significance of shadows The cast shadow as an indexical sign maintains a physical connection with its near present referent such as a hidden person stimulating a viewer's imagination and provoking responses including anxiety or curiosity The cinematic shadow plays a stylistic role by enhancing image texture depth of field and tonal contrast of cinematic moments Such enhancements are especially important in monochromatic films and Sadowski interweaves the book with accounts of seminal Weimar cinema moments Sadowski's book is distinctive for combining historical materials and theoretical approaches to develop a deeper understanding of Weimar cinema and other contemporary art forms The Semiotics of Light and Shadows is an ideal resource for both scholars and students working in linguistics semiotics film media and visual arts

Sociology Through the Projector Bulent Diken, Carsten Bagge Laustsen, 2008-10 Sociology through the Projector takes issue with the question of how contemporary film can help answering the general abstract but still urgent question what is the social today This book explains the performative relation to contemporary social theory in which cinema functions as a tool for social diagnosis There is much to be learned about social theory through an encounter with films as films are part and parcel of the society they portray Increasingly more lay knowledge about social problems and facts stems from cinema as it offers to large audiences a popular and pedagogical introduction to social knowledge Social theory cannot avoid a critical engagement with cinema as cinema interprets invents displaces and distorts the object of sociological inquiry This book will provide a deeper understanding of contemporary social theory as the chosen films will work as a pedagogical route into contemporary social theory The films represent a mix of European and American blockbusters and more aesthetically orientated films The authors question several dominant topics and concerns within social theory and film studies Firstly by cross examining a series of concepts such as identity representation memory and surveillance filming social behaviour which are of concern to both film theory and social theory Secondly by trying to develop imaginative approaches to standard social concerns such as exclusion gender roles and inequalities power infantilisation and commodification of the social and psychological bonds This book will be a great resource for students and researchers of Sociology Contemporary Social Theory Film Studies and Cultural Studies      The Poetics of Shadows: The Double in Literature and Philosophy Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2012-02-24 The essays in this collection attest to the richness of the double motif in literature and philosophy Veering away from predominantly psychoanalytical readings of narratives which foreground the double or doppelganger which have formed the basis of much scholarly discussions of this motif the contributions in this volume privilege divergent philosophical leanings ranging from Rousseau to Kierkegaard from Christian philosophy to Eastern mysticism to elicit the layered nuances and signifiers of this elusive motif Narratives interrogated in this collection include the works of Dickens Blanchot Edmund Jab s Orhan Pamuk Chuck Palahniuk and Don Delillo among others      A Summer in Arcadia Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-18 In the sun drenched splendor of Southern California a group of young men come together by the shimmering pool seeking refuge from the heat and the tumult of the world As they while away the hours they find themselves drawn into a captivating dialogue about life love and the pursuit of happiness Inspired by the teachings of the great Greek philosophers they embark on a journey of self discovery questioning everything they thought they knew about the world around them Socrates teachings on wisdom and virtue Plato s exploration of the Forms Nietzsche s critique of morality and Sartre s existentialist philosophy become their guiding lights With each passing day they delve deeper into the mysteries of existence exploring the nature of reality the meaning of life and the human condition They grapple with the paradoxes of love and loss the allure of power and the inevitability of death Through their spirited debates and introspective reflections they discover that the pursuit of knowledge is a lifelong endeavor and that the greatest lessons are often learned in the most unexpected of places As the summer draws to a close the young men find themselves transformed by their shared experiences They have learned to question their assumptions to embrace uncertainty and to seek truth and meaning in a world that is often confusing and chaotic They carry the lessons of Arcadia with them as they embark on new chapters of their lives forever changed by the transformative power of philosophy This captivating tale is an ode to the enduring power of friendship the pursuit of knowledge and the transformative nature of philosophical inquiry It is a story that will resonate with readers of all ages reminding them of the importance of asking big questions challenging conventional wisdom and living a life of purpose and meaning If you like this book write a review      Shadow Archaeologies Assaf Nativ, Gavin Lucas, 2025-07-31 Shadow Archaeologies explores the modes of knowledge production which operate where the light of mainstream historically oriented archaeology does not reach It exposes the field's underbelly and dwells on issues that standard practice ignores or glosses over questioning what archaeology and the archaeological are or could be The volume brings together scholars working at the discipline's theoretical cutting edge to challenge mainstream archaeology in various ways They engage with the political dimensions of the discipline's mode of production develop alternate practices and conceive of other manifestations of the archaeological object thus illuminating various ways in which the concept of shadow archaeology can be articulated After an introduction by the editors the volume is organised into three parts which address from different angles the politics practices and objects of an archaeology that resides in the shadow of antiquity While the book will appeal to any archaeologist with an interest in theory it is also a challenge to all archaeologists to reflect on their discipline and their own working practices and an invitation to join in the discussion about what archaeology might become
