British Protestant Missions and the Conversion of Europe, 1600-1900 Simone Maghenzani,Stefano Villani,2020-09-14 This book is the first account of British Protestant conversion initiatives directed towards continental Europe between 1600 and 1900 Continental Europe was considered a missionary land another periphery of the world whose centre was imperial Britain British missions to Europe were informed by religious experiments in America Africa and Asia rendering these offensives against Europe a true form of imaginary colonialism British Protestant missionaries often understood themselves to be at the forefront of a civilising project directed at Catholics and sometimes even at other Protestants Their mission was further reinforced by Britain becoming a land of compassionate refuge for European dissenters and exiles This book engages with the myth of International Protestantism questioning its early origins and its narrative of transnational belonging while also interrogating Britain as an imagined Protestant land of hope and glory In the history of western Christianities converting Europe had a role that has not been adequately investigated This is the story of the attempted and ultimately failed effort to convert a continent
