Rebirth Of A Realist:

Corruption and Realism in Late Socialist China Jeffrey Kinkley, 2006-10-26 As China's centrally planned economy and welfare state have given way to a more loosely controlled version of late socialism public concern about economic reform's downside has found expression in epic novels about official corruption and its effects. While the media shied away from dealing with these issues novelists stepped in to fill the void. Anti corruption fiction exploded onto the marketplace and into public consciousness spawning popular films and television series until a clampdown after 2002 that ended China's first substantial realist fiction since the 1989 Beijing massacre. With frankness and imagination seldom allowed journalists novelists have depicted the death of China's rust belt industries the gap between rich and poor social unrest i.e. riots and the questionable new practices of entrenched communist party rulers. Corruption and Realism examines this rebirth of the Chinese political novel and its media adaptations explaining how the works reflect contemporary Chinese life and how they embody Chinese traditions of social criticism literary realism and contemplation of taboo subjects. This is the first book to investigate such novels and includes excerpts from personal interviews with China's three most famous anticorruption novelists.

Ecology and German Realism Alexander Robert Phillips, 2025 Shows contrary to the traditional view that the major authors of German literary realism not only thematized environmental transformation but that it was central to their aesthetics. In nineteenth century Europe and particularly in Germany the industrial revolution led to air and water pollution urban and industrial sprawl and the physical reconstitution of natural landscapes. This book investigates the relationship between environmental degradation and German Realist aesthetics challenging a longstanding argument in the scholarship that German Realism largely occluded urban and industrial realities by demonstrating that its major authors Adalbert Stifter Wilhelm Raabe Theodor Storm and Theodor Fontane not only thematized environmental matters but that environmental transformation became the very condition for their texts. Reflections on the aesthetic representation of reality German Realist aesthetics in this sense are thus inseparable from environmental aesthetics. Environmental aesthetics in turn are inseparable from environmental politics connected as they are to problems such as the loss of individual livelihoods displacement of communities and the legal and ethical standing of animals plants and landscapes By exploring how these problems appear in the fiction of the period Alexander Phillips s book situates the literature in a longer genealogy of environmentalism and ecological aesthetics beyond Germany That genealogy includes the early twentieth century Nature Fakers debate in the United States twentieth century nature writing and contemporary ecocritical theory Political Realism in Apocalyptic Times Alison McQueen,2018 From climate change to nuclear war to the rise of demagogic populists our world is shaped by doomsday expectations In this path breaking book Alison McQueen shows why three of history s greatest political realists feared apocalyptic politics Niccol Machiavelli in the midst of Italy s vicious power struggles Thomas Hobbes during England s bloody civil war and Hans Morgenthau at the dawn of the thermonuclear age all saw the temptation to prophesy the end of days Each engaged in subtle and surprising strategies to oppose apocalypticism from using its own rhetoric to neutralize its worst effects to insisting on a clear eyed tragic acceptance of the human condition Scholarly yet accessible this book is at once an ambitious contribution to the history of political thought and a work that speaks to our times Realism Arthur Sydney McDowall,1918 Christian Fiction and Religious Realism in the Novels of Dostoevsky Wil van den Bercken,2011-01-01 This study offers a literary analysis and theological evaluation of the Christian themes in the five great novels of Dostoevsky Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Adolescent The Devils and The Brothers Karamazov Dostoevsky s ambiguous treatment of religious issues in his literary works strongly differs from the slavophile Orthodoxy of his journalistic writings In the novels Dostoevsky deals with Christian basic values which are presented via a unique tension between the fictionality of the Christian characters and the readers experience of the existential reality of their religious problems A History of Buddhist Philosophy David J. Kalupahana,1992-03-01 David J Kalupahana s Buddhist Philosophy A Historical Analysis has since its original publication in 1976 offered an unequaled introduction to the philosophical principles and historical development of Buddhism Now representing the culmination of Dr Kalupahana s thirty years of scholarly research and reflection A History of Buddhist Philosophy builds upon and surpasses that earlier work providing a completely reconstructed detailed analysis of both early and later Buddhism Consumer Culture Reborn Martyn J. Lee,2003-09-02 Consumer Culture Reborn focuses on consumption as the point at which economy and culture combine The book draws the often polarised discourses of political economy and cultural studies closer together in a historical context as a means of understanding our social situations as we approach the end of the millenium Taking as its central theme the ability of the capitalist mode of production to transform the material and social world which sustains it the book focuses on some of the ways in which this transformational impulse has altered the means by which ordinary people reproduce their life and their patterns of life Neither a history book nor simply a book of theory Consumer Culture Reborn fuses elements of economic social and cultural theory in an historical perspective Realism's Others Eva Aldea,Geoffrey Baker,2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism s Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

Classical Indian Metaphysics: Refutations of Realism and the Emergence of New Logic Stephen H.

Phillips,1998-01-01 Our knowledge of the most ancient times in India rests mainly on tradition The Puranas the Mahabharata and in a minor degree of Ramayana profess to give accounts from tradition about the earliest occurrences The Rgveda contains historical allusions of which some record contemporary persons and events but more refer to bygone times and persons and are obviously based on tradition Almost all the information therefore comes from tradition The results obtained from an examination of Puranic and epic tradition as well as of the Rgveda and Vedic literature are set forth in the present book which happens to be a pioneering work in the area by an important orientalist of the nineteenth century

Postwar Literary Emergence Iris Calder,2025-05-06 Postwar Literary Emergence explores the profound impact of World War II and subsequent social upheaval on global literature It examines how writers navigated historical trauma and crafted new narrative forms to articulate previously unvoiced experiences The book reveals how literature became a tool for social critique political activism and personal healing in the face of unprecedented change The collection of essays analyzes the reinvention of realism the rise of experimental narratives and the exploration of identity in a fractured world For example the book addresses the resurgence of historical fiction as a means of confronting collective memory By examining literary collections and essays from Europe Latin America Asia and Africa the book demonstrates how writers grappled with legacies of war colonialism and injustice The book progresses across chapters by exploring different geographical areas and thematic concerns offering a scholarly yet accessible tone

Speculative Realism Graham Harman,2018-09-19 On April 27 2007 the first Speculative Realism SR workshop was held at Goldsmiths University of London featuring four young philosophers whose ideas were loosely allied Over the ensuing decade the ideas of SR spread from philosophy to the arts architecture and numerous disciplines in the humanities and social sciences SR has been arguably the most influential new current in continental philosophy since the works of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari found their second wind in the 1990s But what is SR This book is the first general overview by one of its original members focusing on the aesthetic ethical ontological and political themes of greatest importance to the movement Graham Harman provides a balanced but critical assessment of his original SR colleagues Ray Brassier Iain Hamilton Grant and Quentin Meillassoux along with a clear summary of his own Object Oriented Ontology OOO A number of central philosophical questions tie the four chapters together What exactly is correlationism the chief enemy of SR What are the stakes of philosophical realism and is such realism better served by mathematics and the natural sciences or by a broader model of cognitive activity that includes aesthetics This book covers both the historical and conceptual development of the movement providing a first rate introduction for students aided by helpful end of chapter study questions chosen by Harman himself SR Harman shows is a vital and fast developing field in contemporary philosophy

The First Great Political Realist Roger Boesche,2003-01-01 The First Great Political Realist is a succinct and penetrating analysis of one of the ancient world's foremost political realists Kautilya Kautilya's treatise Arthashastra stands as one of the great political books of the ancient world its ideas on the science of politics strikingly similar to those of Thucydides Machiavelli Hobbes Clausewitz and even Sun Tsu Roger Boesche's excellent commentary on Kautilya's voluminous text draws out the essential realist arguments for modern political analysis and demonstrates the continued relevance of Kautilya's work to modern Indian strategic thinking and our understanding of the relationship between politics and economics Striking a balance between textual analysis and secondary scholarship Boesche's work will be an enduring contribution to the study of ancient Indian history Eastern political thought and international relations

Realist Ecstasy Lindsay V. Reckson, 2020-01-28 Honorable Mention Barnard Hewitt Award from the American Society for Theater Research Explores the intersection and history of American literary realism and the performance of spiritual and racial embodiment Recovering a series of ecstatic performances in late nineteenth and early twentieth century American realism Realist Ecstasy travels from camp meetings to Native American ghost dances to storefront church revivals to explore realism's relationship to spiritual experience In her approach to realism as both an unruly archive of performance and a wide ranging repertoire of media practices including literature photography audio recording and early film Lindsay V Reckson argues that the real was repetitively enacted and reenacted through bodily practice Realist Ecstasy demonstrates how the realist imagining of possessed bodies helped construct and naturalize racial difference while excavating the complex shifting and dynamic possibilities embedded in ecstatic performance its production of new and immanent forms of being beside Across her readings of Stephen Crane James Weldon Johnson and Nella Larsen among others Reckson triangulates secularism realism and racial formation in the post Reconstruction moment Realist Ecstasy shows how post Reconstruction realist texts mobilized gestures especially the gestures associated with religious ecstasy to racialize secularism itself Reckson offers us a distinctly new vision of American realism as a performative practice a sustained account of how performance lives in and through literary archives and a rich sense of how closely secularization and racialization were linked in Jim Crow America

The Philosophy of Medicine Reborn Edmund D. Pellegrino, 2008-03-01 Edmund D Pellegrino has played a central role in shaping the fields of bioethics and the philosophy of medicine His writings encompass original explorations of the healing relationship the need to place humanism in the medical curriculum the nature of the patient's good and the importance of a virtue based normative ethics for health care In this anthology H Tristram Engelhardt Jr and Fabrice Jotterand have created a rich presentation of Pellegrino's thought and its development. Pellegrino's work has been dedicated to showing that bioethics must be understood in the context of medical humanities and that medical humanities in turn must be understood in the context of the philosophy of medicine. Arguing that bioethics should not be restricted to topics such as abortion, third party assisted reproduction, physician assisted suicide or cloning, Pellegrino has instead stressed that such issues are shaped by foundational views regarding the nature of the physician-patient relationship and the goals of medicine, which are the proper focus of the philosophy of medicine. This volume includes a preface, Apologia, by Dr Pellegrino and a comprehensive Introduction by the editors. Of interest to medical ethicists as well as students, scholars and physicians, The Philosophy of Medicine Reborn offers fascinating insights into the emergence of a field and the work of one of its pioneers.

Hallucinatory Realism in Chinese Literature

Lin Jiang, 2023-06-07. This edited collection of 14 essays presents the most enlightening research findings on Mo Yan and his novels. The authors of the contributions are renowned Chinese scholars and critics from Mainland China, Chinese Hong Kong and Taiwan, like Li Jingze, vice president of Chinese Writers Association; Guo Jie, doctoral supervisor and vice president of South China Normal University; Cheng Guangwei, professor and doctoral supervisor of Renmin University of China, etc. In the book, a large range of topics have been discussed and explored, such as Mo Yan and the Chinese spirit, the revelation of Mo Yan's hallucination and localization, and folkness in The Transparent Carrot, Life and Death Are Wearing Me Out, Red Sorghum, Clan, Big Breasts and Wide Hips, The Republic of Wine, Sandalwood Death and Frog. This collection provides English readers and researchers the opportunity to learn what Chinese scholars and critics have argued about Mo Yan's styles and themes as well as his relationship to the long canon of Chinese literature. Such a collection with fluid and yet accurate translations, the first of its kind in English, brings to the Western world the Chinese sensibility and critical analysis of this living Chinese Nobel laureate and his novels.

Magical Realism and the Postcolonial Novel Christopher Warnes, 2009-03-19. This book rethinks the origins and nature of magical realism and provides detailed readings of key novels by Asturias, Carpentier, Garc a M rquez, Rushdie and Okri. Identifying two different strands of the mode, one characterized by faith, the other by irreverence, Warnes makes available a new vocabulary for the discussion of magical realism.
