Regional Cohesion And Competition In The Age Of Globalization:

Regional Cohesion and Competition in the Age of Globalization Hirofumi Kōno, Peter Nijkamp, Jacques Poot, 2000 This text discusses issues including the impact and implications of European expansion as well as developments in the Asia Pacific region It also examines the driving forces backgrounds obstacles and opportunities for regions to become powerful global players The work contains much empirical material and is supported by a thorough investigation of the theory and methodology of policy strategies for the positioning of regions in the new global economy Regional Competition Peter W.J. Batey, Peter Friedrich, 2013-03-14 Many parts of the world are currently experiencing the outcome of processes of economic integration globalization and transformation Technological advances in telecommunications and in transport facilities have opened up new possibilities for contracts and exchanges among regions External effects among regions have increased in importance As a result competition among regions has intensified Except some pioneering work by regional scientists and scholars of public finance and economics the phenomenon of regional competition has yet to attract the attention it warrants despite its importance for policy making The present volume is intended to remedy this neglect by providing high level contributions to the three main topics of the book the theory of regional competition methods of analysis of regional competition and policies of regional competition International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2009-07-16 The International Encyclopedia of Human Geography provides an authoritative and comprehensive source of information on the discipline of human geography and its constituent and related subject areas The encyclopedia includes over 1 000 detailed entries on philosophy and theory key concepts methods and practices biographies of notable geographers and geographical thought and praxis in different parts of the world This groundbreaking project covers every field of human geography and the discipline s relationships to other disciplines and is global in scope involving an international set of contributors Given its broad inclusive scope and unique online accessibility it is anticipated that the International Encyclopedia of Human Geography will become the major reference work for the discipline over the coming decades The Encyclopedia will be available in both limited edition print and online via ScienceDirect featuring extensive browsing searching and internal cross referencing between articles in the work plus dynamic linking to journal articles and abstract databases making navigation flexible and easy For more information pricing options and availability visit http://info.sciencedirect.com/content/books/ref\_works coming Available online on ScienceDirect and in limited edition print format Broad interdisciplinary coverage across human geography Philosophy Methods People Social Cultural Political Economic Development Health Cartography Urban Historical Regional Comprehensive and unique the first of its kind in human geography New Frontiers of Policy Evaluation in Regional Science Yoshiro Higano, Lily Kiminami, Kenichi Ishibashi, 2022-06-02 This book is especially valuable for its policy evaluation studies using both a theoretical model for policies carried out at national and regional levels and for gathering policy evaluation studies in diverse disciplines by empirical study Policy analysis shown here employs theoretical models such as an international trade model an optimal tariff and spatial reorganization At the same time factors in well being are taken into consideration with land development changes in migration and local economies by natural disasters validation of efficiency for emission control methods the relationship between cyberspace and physical space in urban networks and NPOs investment activities The empirical research reported in this volume analyzes Japan China and Asian Pacific cities In the case of Japan studies focus on the finances of local governments the real estate industry the role of consumer cooperatives in a food system and agriculture and its productivity in hilly and mountainous areas As well the effects of industrial clusters in megacities and investment in high speed railways and prediction of human behavior during an earthquake are studied In China s case studies focus on food policy and the effect of ecology and environment on migration policy For Asia Pacific cities studies show performance rankings of super cities in the region The book defines the frontier of policy evaluation following a middle path between theoretical study and empirical study with regard to evaluation In addition the book contributes to an understanding of the relationship between the goals and targets of sustainable development This book is highly recommended for graduate students policymakers and researchers concerned with policy evaluation
