Samarkand and Beyond James Wellard,1977 The Mongol Empire Timothy May,2016-11-07 Covering the rise and fall of the Mongol Empire this essential reference presents the figures places and events that led this once beleaguered region to rise up to become the largest contiguous empire in history In the 13th century Chinggis Khan rose to power leading an empire of a million people and defeating surrounding regions with much larger populations This compendium follows the achievements and failures of the Mongol Empire from the birth of Chinggis Khan in 1162 to the formation of the successor states that came from the dissolution of the world power in the 16th century the Yuan Empire in East Asia the Chaghatai Khanate in Central Asia the Ilkhanate in the Middle East and the Jochid or Kipchak Khanate in the Pontic Caspian Steppes known as the Golden Horde Through some 180 entries this two volume set covers every aspect of Mongol civilization organizing content into eight sections government and politics organization and administration individuals groups and organizations key events military objects and artifacts and key places Each section is accompanied by an essay introducing the topic in the context of the Mongol Empire The work also includes a chronology a number of annotated primary documents and a bibliography Encyclopedia of World Trade: From Ancient Times to the Present Cynthia Clark

Northrup,Jerry H. Bentley,Alfred E. Eckes, Jr,Patrick Manning,Kenneth Pomeranz,Steven Topik,2015-04-10 Written for high school or beginning undergraduate students this four volume reference valiantly attempts to provide a historical framework for the perhaps overly broad concept of world trade Entry topics were selected on trade organizations influential people commodities events that affected trade trade routes navigation religion communic Islamic Empires Justin Marozzi,2019-08-29 Outstanding illuminating compelling a riveting read Peter Frankopan Sunday Times Islamic civilization was once the envy of the world From a succession of glittering cosmopolitan capitals Islamic empires lorded it over the Middle East North Africa Central Asia and swathes of the Indian subcontinent For centuries the caliphate was both ascendant on the battlefield and triumphant in the battle of ideas its cities unrivalled powerhouses of artistic grandeur commercial power spiritual sanctity and forward looking thinking Islamic Empires is a history of this rich and diverse civilization told through its greatest cities over fifteen centuries from the beginnings of Islam in Mecca in the seventh century to the astonishing rise of Doha in the twenty first It dwells on the most remarkable dynasties ever to lead the Muslim world the Abbasids of Baghdad the Umayyads of Damascus and Cordoba the Merinids of Fez the Ottomans of Istanbul the Mughals of India and the Safavids of Isfahan and some of the most charismatic leaders in Muslim history from Saladin in Cairo and mighty Tamerlane of Samarkand to the poet prince Babur in his mountain kingdom of Kabul and the irrepressible Maktoum dynasty of Dubai It focuses on these fifteen cities at some of the defining moments in Islamic history from the Prophet Mohammed receiving his divine revelations in Mecca and the First Crusade of 1099 to the conquest of Constantinople in 1453 and the phenomenal creation of the merchant republic of Beirut in the nineteenth century Death in the Sahara

Michael Asher,2008-05-17 Desert explorer Michael Asher investigates the most disastrous exploration mission in the history of the Sahara In 1880 the French government ordered a surveying expedition for a railway that would bring the fabulous wealth of Timbuktu in French Sudan to Paris This trek should have heralded a new era of French prosperity Instead it was a deadly fiasco Under armed in hostile territory and foolishly employing the enemy as guides the one hundred men of the expedition were ambushed and stranded without camels or supplies in the deserts of southern Algeria Many were killed outright and for four months the survivors were menaced by the Tuareg the lords of the desert robbed starved and tricked into eating poisoned fruit To escape the men hid in the wastelands of the Sahara with little hope of finding food or water They were finally forced to eat their own dead or worse the merely weak Only a dozen malnourished men lived to tell their tale The story of their 1 000 mile journey is one of the most astonishing narratives of survival ever recorded With a superb grip of narrative and uncanny ability to evoke battle scenes The Guardian Michael Asher has written an amazing true story that is as dramatic as it is frightening Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II the Third Reich Hitler and his henchmen the JFK assassination conspiracies the American Civil War the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Camel Robert Irwin,2010-05-15 A distinct symbol of the desert and the Middle East the camel was once unkindly described as half snake half folding bedstead But in the eyes of many the camel is a creature of great beauty This is most evident in the Arab world where the camel has played a central role in the historical development of Arabic society where an elaborate vocabulary and extensive literature have been devoted to it In Camel Robert Irwin explores why the camel has fascinated so many cultures including those cultivated in locales where camels are not indigenous Here he traces the history of the camel from its origins millions of years ago to the present day discussing such matters of contemporary concern as the plight of camel herders in Sudan s war torn Darfur region the alarming increase in the population of feral camels in Australia and the endangered status of the wild Bactrian in Mongolia and China Throughout history the camel has been appreciated worldwide for its practicality resilience and legendary abilities of survival As a result it has been featured in the works of Leonardo da Vinci Poussin Tiepolo Flaubert Kipling and Rose Macaulay among others From East to West Irwin s Camel is the first survey of its kind to examine the animal s role in society and history throughout the world Not just for camel aficionados this highly illustrated book containing over 100 informative and unusual images is sure to entertain and inform anyone interested in this fascinating and exotic animal

Time-Space Compression Barney Warf,2008-03-03 If geography is the study of how human beings are stretched over the earth s surface a vital part of that process is how we know and feel about space and time Although space and time appear as natural and outside of society they are in fact social constructions every society develops different ways of measuring organizing and perceiving them Given steady increases in the volume and velocity of social transactions over space time and space have steadily shrunk via the process of time space compression By changing the time space prisms of daily life how people use their times and spaces the opportunities and constraints they face the meanings they attach to them time space compression is simultaneously cultural social political and psychological in nature This book explores how various social institutions and technologies historically generated enormous improvements in transportation and communications that produced transformative reductions in the time and cost of interactions among places creating ever changing geographies of centrality and peripherality Warf invokes a global perspective on early modern late modern and postmodern capitalism He makes use of data concerning travel times at various historical junctures maps of distances between places at different historical moments anecdotal analyses based on published accounts of people s sense of place examinations of cultural forms that represented space e g paintings and quotes about the culture of speed Warf shows how time space compression varies under different historical and geographical conditions indicating that it is not one single homogenous process but a complex contingent and contested one This book will be useful book for those studying and researching Geography History Sociology and Political Science as well as Anthropology and Philosophy The Changing

European Hegemony Janet L. Abu-Lughod,1991-02-21 In this important study Abu Lughod presents a groundbreaking reinterpretation of global economic evolution arguing that the modern world economy had its roots not in the sixteenth century as is widely supposed but in the thirteenth century economy a system far different from the European world system which emerged from it Using the city as the working unit of analysis Before European Hegemony provides a new paradigm for understanding the evolution of world systems by tracing the rise of a system that at its peak in the opening decades of the 14th century involved a vast region stretching between northwest Europe and China Writing in a clear and lively style Abu Lughod explores the reasons for the eventual decay of this system and the rise of European hegemony Selection of

Technology and Culture, 1980 From Stonehenge to Samarkand Brian Fagan, 2006-07-20 Ever since Roman tourists scratched graffiti on the pyramids and temples of Egypt over two thousand years ago people have traveled far and wide seeking the great wonders of antiquity In From Stonehenge to Samarkand noted archaeologist and popular writer Brian Fagan offers an engaging historical account of our enduring love of ancient architecture the irresistible impulse to visit strange lands in search of lost cities and forgotten monuments Here is a marvelous history of archaeological tourism with generous excerpts from the writings of the tourists themselves Readers will find Herodotus describing the construction of Babylon Edward Gibbon receiving inspiration for his seminal work while wandering through the ruins of the Forum in Rome Gustave Flaubert watching the sunrise from atop the Pyramid of Cheops We visit Easter Island with Pierre Loti Machu Picchu with Hiram Bingham Central Africa with David Livingstone Fagan describes the early antiquarians consumed with a passionate and omnivorous curiosity pondering the mysteries of Stonehenge but he also considers some of the less reputable figures such as the Earl of Elgin who sold large parts of the Parthenon to the British Museum Finally he discusses the changing nature of archaeological tourism from the early romantic wanderings of the solitary figure communing with the departed spirits of Druids or Mayans to the cruise ship excursions of modern times where masses of tourists are hustled through ruins barely aware of their surroundings From the Holy Land to the Silk Road the Yucatán to Angkor Wat Fagan follows in the footsteps of the great archaeological travelers to retrieve their first written impressions in a book that will delight anyone fascinated with the landmarks of ancient civilization

The Top Books of the Year Samarkand And Beyond A History Of Desert Caravans The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Samarkand And Beyond A History Of Desert Caravans : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
