Kilama, 1985 Sanitation Without Water Uno Winblad, W L. Kilama, Kjell Torstensson, Swedish International Development Authority, SIDA, 1978 Progress on household drinking water, sanitation and hygiene 2000-2020 World Health Organization, United Nations Children's Fund, 2021-09-13 Water and Sanitation in the World's Cities Un-Habitat, 2013-06-17 This is surely the most impressive and important publication to come out of the UN system for many years Peter Adamson founder New Internationalist and author and researcher of UNICEF's The State of the World's Children from 1980 to 1995 The world's governments agreed at the Millennium Summit to halve by 2015 the number of people who lack access to safe water With rapidly growing urban populations the challenge is immense Water and Sanitation in the World's Cities is a comprehensive and authoritative assessment of the problems and how they can be addressed This influential publication by the United Nations Human Settlements Programme UN HABITAT sets out in detail the scale of inadequate provision of water and sanitation It describes the impacts on health and economic performance showing the potential gains of remedial action it analyses the proximate and underlying causes of poor provision and identifies information gaps affecting resource allocation it outlines the consequences of further deterioration and it explains how resources and institutional capacities public private and community can be used to deliver proper services through integrated water resource management Progress on household drinking water, sanitation and hygiene 2000-2022 United Nations Children's Fund, World Health Organization, 2024-07-09 Water and Sanitation in the World's Cities United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2003 This is surely the most impressive and important publication to come out of the UN system for many years Peter Adamson founder New Internationalist and author and researcher of UNICEF's The State of the World's Children from 1980 to 1995 The world's governments agreed at the Millennium Summit to halve by 2015 the number of people who lack access to safe water With rapidly growing urban populations the challenge is immense Water and Sanitation in the World's Cities is a comprehensive and authoritative assessment of the problems and how they can be addressed This influential publication by How Smart are Cities without Adequate Finances? Simanti Bandyopadhyay, Firdousi Naher, Aishna Sharma, 2022-06-14 This book compares urban finances in cities located in two different South Asian countries and assesses their fiscal health It uses simulation to estimate the required augmentation in financial resources by the urban local bodies ULBs to reach a level of city development that is significantly better compared to existing levels The book provides a systematic analysis of the fiscal health of two city corporations in Bangladesh viz Dhaka North City Corporation DNCC and Dhaka South City Corporation DSCC and one city corporation in the Indian state of West Bengal viz Kolkata Municipal Corporation KMC The choice of city corporations was based on the shared history and the similarity of heritage culture topography and socio economic conditions Both DNCC and DSCC as well as the KMC have a high population density which puts immense pressure on the service delivery provided by these corporations of basic services such as water supply sanitation facilities street lighting drainage and sewerage and waste disposal This is compounded by poor fiscal health of the ULBs Using primary data collected through surveys and personal interviews and information obtained from official documents the book estimates fiscal gaps of the ULBs and undertakes simple simulations to estimate potential revenue enhancements and expenditure requirements to deliver services at the internationally acceptable standards It highlights under exploited sources of revenue which can be better realized and also identifies untapped revenue sources that can be easily introduced in order to significantly enhance city revenues The book is an excellent resource not only for researchers studying this topic but also for policy makers and urban planners particularly those from developing countries having to deal with burgeoning cities with high migrant population density
