Space, Images, and Art Perception in Napoleonic Paris

Camilla Murgia,2025-10-01 This book examines the impact of space on the perception of art and visual culture in early nineteenth century Paris It turns its attention to the way in which space determines the understanding and the development of visual culture The abundance of images their status and their employment alike offer a means to grasp the extent of the development of an approach to art which further involved the spectator Space is here conceived as a multifaceted entity spanning architectural scholarly artistic and visual dimensions These various aspects offer means to consider the way in which images work and are consumed and the individual experience they represent Space works as a link and a connecting tool between different intellectual and visual categories and this study examines how this interaction applies to works of art as well as everyday objects

Realms of Memory Pierre Nora, Lawrence D. Kritzman,1996 The third and final volume in Pierre Nora's award winning for Volume I REALMS OF MEMORY which includes groundbreaking discussions of France's past powerfully demonstrates how a nation can both recover and rediscover its identity through remembrance how rewriting history can forge new paradigms of cultural identity and how meanings attached to an event can be as significant as the event itself 146 illustrations
